FOREWORD

The 1972 Manual is both a historic document and a handbook for ready reference in all matters pertaining to the church's life and service. It contains a brief history of our church, a summary of doctrine, standards of practical ethics, the outlines of our basic church polity, and detailed procedures of church government.

For those called Nazarenes, the Bible is the Word of God and the supreme authority and source for all spiritual truth. The doctrines of our church are based upon the Bible, and have been brought to us out of the experience of the historic Christian Church. We believe in all the cardinal doctrines of the evangelical Church, but we also carry a sense of mission to present and conserve the doctrine of heart holiness as an experience to be received and as a life to be lived. The church is committed to an evangelistic outreach that will make her witness vital in every generation and to all nations.

The ethical standards of our church are well expressed in the General and Special Rules. They should be followed carefully and conscientiously as guides and helps to holy living. Those who violate the conscience of the church do so at their own peril and to the hurt of the witness and fellowship of the church.

Our church government reveals synthesis and balance between local congregations and connectionalism. We believe in responsible leadership by duly elected superintendents, on the district and general levels. In practice, our government is representative. There is a balance of ministers and laymen in the General Assembly, and in the membership of the General Board.

The General Assembly, which meets every four years, is the one lawmaking body of the church. No major change has been made in the principles of church government by the new legislation enacted at the 1972 General Assembly. However, there are a number of changes based on experience and need. A few changes may be on an experimental basis, but always with a view toward greater efficiency and usefulness in service.

This Manual contains the amendments and additions authorized by the 1972 General Assembly. A suitable index of these revisions is prepared for the reader's convenience and is located on page 402.

A careful study of this book and adherence to its regulations will make for cooperative and effective service throughout our church. We commend it to our people everywhere. We are sure it will prove beneficial to all who would be "workers together with God" through the Church of the Nazarene.

Historical Statement

HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I. Near the close of the nineteenth century, a movement for the spread and conservation of scriptural holiness in organized church form developed almost simultaneously in various parts of the United States. This movement was similar to the Wesleyan revival of the previous century. The manifestation everywhere of a spontaneous drawing in the unity of the Spirit towards closer affiliation of those of like precious faith culminated finally in the organization of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

The great impulse of this movement has been the emphasis placed by the Scriptures upon the fact that, in the atonement, Jesus Christ has made provision, not only to save men from their sins, but also to perfect them in love.

II. On May 12, 1886, a number of the brethren in Providence, R.I., interested in promoting the Wesleyan doctrine and experience of entire sanctification, organized and held weekly religious services, first in private homes, but after a few months in a rented store on Oxford Street. On January 16, 1887, a Sunday school was organized with 95 members. On July 21, 1887, the People's Evangelical Church was organized with 51 members, Rev. F. A. Hillery acting as pastor. On November 25, 1888, the Mission Church, Lynn, Mass., was organized with Rev.

C. Howard Davis as pastor. On March 13 and 14, 1890, representatives from these churches and other evangelical holiness organizations in southern New England assembled at Rock, Mass., and organized the Central Evangelical Holiness Association. Rev. W. C. Ryder, pastor of the Independent Congregational Church of that place, was elected president. Within the following year the Mission Church, Malden, Mass., the Emmanuel Mission Church, North Attleboro, Mass., and the Bethany Mission Church, Keene, N.H., were organized.

In January, 1894, William Howard Hoople, a businessman in New York City, founded a mission in Brooklyn, which, in the following May, was organized as an independent church with a membership of 32, and was called the Utica Avenue Pentecostal Tabernacle. After a church edifice was erected, Mr. Hoople was called to the pastorate. The following February, in an abandoned church building, the Bedford Avenue Pentecostal Church was organized, and a little later the Emmanuel Pentecostal Tabernacle. In December, 1895, delegates from these three churches adopted a constitution, summary of doctrines, and bylaws, and formed the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America. This association was duly incorporated. Associated with Rev. William Howard Hoople in this work were Rev. H. B. Hosley, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. Charles BeVier, and Rev. H. F. Reynolds.

On November 12, 1896, a joint committee from these two associations met in the city of Brooklyn, N.Y., to formulate some plan of union. For the benefit of their counsel and co-operation, several brethren prominent in the work were invited to act with the joint committee. Among this number were Rev. C. Howard Davis, Rev. G. W. Wilson, Rev. John Norberry, Rev. H. F. Reynolds, Rev. H. B. Hosley, and Rev. Charles H. BeVier. This meeting resulted in the union of the two bodies. It was agreed that the work should be continued under the name of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America.

III. In October, 1895, a number of persons, under the leadership of Rev. Phineas F. Bresee, D.D., and J. P. Widney, M.D., formed the First Church of the Nazarene at Los Angeles, Calif., with 135 charter members. They adopted statements of belief, and agreed to such general rules as seemed proper and needful for their immediate guidance, leaving to the future the making of such provisions as the work and its conditions might necessitate. As a result of this organization a number of churches sprang into existence, reaching as far east as Chicago.

IV. As the group from the East and the group from the West came to know each other better, the feeling grew that they should unite. After delegates from both areas had conferred, the following basis of union was prepared and adopted unanimously by both bodies:

BASIS OF UNION

It is agreed that the two churches are one in the doctrines considered essential to salvation, especially the doctrines of justification by faith and entire sanctification subsequent to justification, also by faith, and, as a result, the precious experience of entire sanctification as a normal condition of the churches. Both churches recognize that the right of church membership rests upon experience and that persons who have been born of the Spirit are entitled to its privileges.

We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency, which shall foster and care for churches already established and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church, each church enjoying the right of selecting its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute; the election of delegates to the various assemblies; the management of their own finances; and of all other things pertaining to their local life and work.

It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with them to continue to hold their property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

The first union assembly was held in Chicago in October, 1907. It was agreed that the name of the united body should be The Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

V. In 1894 at Milan, Tenn., the New Testament Church of Christ was organized with 14 members by Rev. R. L. Harris to conserve and promote scriptural holiness. The influence of this church soon spread throughout western Texas and Arkansas. Prominent among the leaders was Mrs. Mary Lee Cagle, formerly the wife of Rev. R. L. Harris, who continued the work after her husband's death.

In 1888 the first holiness churches in Texas were organized by Rev. Thomas Rogers and Rev. Dennis Rogers, who came from California.

In 1901 the first Independent Holiness church was organized at Van Alstyne, Tex., by Rev. C. B. Jernigan. This denomination grew and prospered until, in 1903, there were 20 church organizations.

The legal representatives of the Independent Holiness church and the New Testament Church of Christ met at Rising Star, Tex., in November, 1904, where a joint committee framed a Manual and statement of doctrine and basis of union. The union was fully consummated at Pilot Point, Tex., in November, 1905, and the united body adopted the name Holiness Church of Christ.

VI. In 1907 several representatives from the Holiness Church of Christ accepted the invitation of the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene to attend its General Assembly in Chicago, but were not authorized to take any action with reference to organic union. After the assembly invited them into counsel, provisional arrangements were made to incorporate the two churches into one body, when proper action could be taken. Upon the invitation of the Holiness Church of Christ, the Second General Assembly convened at Pilot Point, Tex., at two o'clock, Thursday afternoon, October 8, 1908. On the following Tuesday morning, R. B. Mitchum moved: "That the union of the two churches be now consummated," and the motion was seconded by Rev. C. W. Ruth. Revs. John N. Short, J. B. Creighton, C. B. Jernigan, H. B. Hosley, P. F. Bresee, and others spoke favorably regarding the motion. On Tuesday, October 13, 1908, at 10:40 a.m., amid great enthusiasm, the motion to unite was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

VII. In 1898 Rev. J. O. McClurkan and a few others called a meeting of the holiness people of Tennessee and adjacent states to be held in Nashville. At this convention an association known as the Pentecostal Alliance was formed, but its name was later changed to the Pentecostal Mission. From the beginning these people were evangelistic in spirit and had a burning desire to disseminate the doctrine and experience of sanctification. Thus in different sections of the South there came together groups of holiness people, known as bands of the Pentecostal Mission. They were decidedly missionary in spirit, and soon were sending their representatives to "the regions beyond." Throughout their career they have been characterized by this missionary zeal.

At different times the question of the union of the Pentecostal Mission with the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene had been discussed. Finally on February 13, 1915, this union was effected at Nashville, Tenn., thus uniting both the home and the foreign work of the Pentecostal Mission and the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene.

VIII. In November, 1901, the first stage in the present holiness church movement in the British Isles began, when Rev. George Sharpe, who had been for 13½ years a preacher in the Methodist Episcopal church, accepted a call to the Congregational church at Ardrossan, Scotland. In September, 1905, he became minister of Parkhead Congregational Church, Glasgow; but after a strenuous, successful, and glorious ministry of 13 months, he was evicted for preaching Bible holiness.

On September 30, 1906, the first services of the first distinctively holiness church were held in the Great Eastern Roads Hall, Glasgow. The charter members numbered 80. Other churches were organized and became the Pentecostal Church of Scotland. Visits of Dr. E. F. Walker and Dr. H. F. Reynolds to Scotland, and a visit of Rev. George Sharpe and Mrs. Sharpe to the Fourth General Assembly, at Kansas City, Mo., led the way to union with the Church of the Nazarene, which was consummated in November, 1915.

IX. The General Assembly of 1919, in response to memorials from 35 district assemblies, changed the name of the organization to "Church of the Nazarene."

X. For many years a holiness movement had been developing in Minnesota, the Dakotas, and Montana. It was originated by a group of Methodist laymen, and was formally organized in 1917 at Jamestown, N.D., as the Laymen's Holiness Association. Rev. J. G. Morrison was immediately elected field evangelist and, in 1919, president of the organization. With him were associated Rev. Ira E. Hammer, Rev. S. C. Taylor, Rev. W. G. Bennett, and over 20 other evangelists and workers engaged in a widespread program of holiness evangelism and camp meeting promotion. In 1922, under the leadership of these ministers, more than 1,000 people identified with the Laymen's Holiness Association united with the Church of the Nazarene.

XI. During the quadrennium 1952-56, two holiness groups in Britain merged with the Church of the Nazarene.

The International Holiness Mission, founded in London, England, in 1907 by Mr. David Thomas, businessman and lay preacher, consummated union with the Church of the Nazarene in Leeds, England, October 29, 1952, with General Superintendent Hardy C. Powers officiating. At the time of union, Mr. John Place was president of the International Holiness Mission, and Rev. J. B. Maclagan, who for 22 years had been a minister in the Church of the Nazarene in the British Isles, was superintendent-minister. The union brought 28 churches, over 1,000 constituents, and 36 missionaries in South Africa into the Church of the Nazarene.

For about 25 years the Calvary Holiness church of Britain carried on its ministry of holiness evangelism under the leadership of Rev. Maynard James and Rev. Jack Ford. Union of the Calvary Holiness church with the Church of the Nazarene was consummated June 11, 1955, at Manchester, England, with General Superintendent Samuel Young officiating. About 22 churches and over 600 members came into the church as a result of this union.

XII. The Gospel Workers church of Canada united with the Church of the Nazarene on September 7, 1958. Under the leadership of Rev. Albert Mills, president, and Rev. C. J. McNichol, secretary, the union took place with Mr. Samuel Goff, son of the founder, Rev. Frank D. Goff, of the Gospel Workers church, acting as attorney in the negotiations. The union was completed under the supervision of General Superintendent Samuel Young and added five churches and 200 members to the Canada Central District.

Church Constitution

ARTICLES OF FAITH

THE CHURCH

GOVERNMENT

AMENDMENTS

PREAMBLE OF CONSTITUTION

In order that we may preserve our God-given heritage, the faith once delivered to the saints, especially the doctrine and experience of sanctification as a second work of grace, and also that we may cooperate effectually with other branches of the Church of Jesus Christ in advancing God's kingdom among men, we, the ministers and lay members of the Church of the Nazarene, in accordance with the principles of constitutional legislation established among us, do hereby ordain, adopt, and set forth as the fundamental law or constitution of the Church of the Nazarene the Articles of Faith, the General Rules, and the Articles of Organization and Government here following, to wit:

ARTICLES OF FAITH

I. The Triune God

1. We believe in one eternally existent, infinite God, Sovereign of the universe; that He only is God, creative and administrative, holy in nature, attributes, and purpose; that He, as God, is Triune in essential being, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

II. Jesus Christ

2. We believe in Jesus Christ, the Second Person of the Triune Godhead; that He was eternally one with the Father; that He became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and was born of the Virgin Mary, so that two whole and perfect natures, that is to say the Godhead and manhood, are thus united in one person very God and very man, the God-man.

We believe that Jesus Christ died for our sins, and that He truly arose from the dead and took again His body, together with all things appertaining to the perfection of man's nature, wherewith He ascended into heaven and is there engaged in intercession for us.

III. The Holy Spirit

3. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Third Person of the Triune Godhead, that He is ever present and efficiently active in and with the Church of Christ, convincing the world of sin, regenerating those who repent and believe, sanctifying believers, and guiding into all truth as it is in Jesus.

IV. The Holy Scriptures

4. We believe in the plenary inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, by which we understand the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments, given by divine inspiration, inerrantly revealing the will of God concerning us in all things necessary to our salvation, so that whatever is not contained therein is not to be enjoined as an article of faith.

V. Original Sin, or Depravity

5. We believe that original sin, or depravity, is that corruption of the nature of all the offspring of Adam by reason of which every one is very far gone from original righteousness or the pure state of our first parents at the time of their creation, is averse to God, is without spiritual life, and inclined to evil, and that continually. We further believe that original sin continues to exist with the new life of the regenerate, until eradicated by the baptism with the Holy Spirit.

VI. Atonement

6. We believe that Jesus Christ, by His sufferings, by the shedding of His own blood, and by His meritorious death on the Cross, made a full atonement for all human sin, and that this atonement is the only ground of salvation, and that it is sufficient for every individual of Adam's race. The atonement is graciously efficacious for the salvation of the irresponsible and for the children in innocency, but is efficacious for the salvation of those who reach the age of responsibility only when they repent and believe.

VII. Free Agency

7. We believe that man's creation in God-likeness included ability to choose between right and wrong, and that thus he was made morally responsible; that through the fall of Adam he became depraved so that he cannot now turn and prepare himself by his own natural strength and works to faith and calling upon God. But we also believe that the grace of God through Jesus Christ is freely bestowed upon all men, enabling all who will to turn from sin to righteousness, believe on Jesus Christ for pardon and cleansing from sin, and follow good works pleasing and acceptable in His sight.

We believe that man, though in the possession of the experience of regeneration and entire sanctification, may fall from grace and spostatize and, unless he repent of his sin, be hopelessly and eternally lost.

VIII. Repentance

8. We believe that repentance, which is a sincere and thorough change of the mind in regard to sin, involving a sense of personal guilt and a voluntary turning away from sin, is demanded of all who have by act or purpose become sinners against God. The Spirit of God gives to all who will repent the gracious help of penitence of heart and hope of mercy, that they may believe unto pardon and spiritual life.

IX. Justification, Regeneration, and Adoption

9. We believe that justification is the gracious and judicial act of God by which He grants full pardon of all guilt and complete release from the penalty of sins committed, and acceptance as righteous, to all who believe on Jesus Christ and receive Him as Lord and Saviour.

10. We believe that regeneration, or the new birth, is that gracious work of God whereby the moral nature of the repentant believer is spiritually quickened and given a distinctively spiritual life, capable of faith, love, and obedience.

11. We believe that adoption is that gracious act of God by which the justified and regenerated believer is constituted a son of God.

12. We believe that justification, regeneration, and adoption are simultaneous in the experience of seekers after God and are obtained upon the condition of faith, preceded by repentance; and that to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

X. Entire Sanctification

13. We believe that entire sanctification is that act of God, subsequent to regeneration, by which believers are made free from original sin, or depravity, and brought into a state of entire devotement to God, and the holy obedience of love made perfect.

It is wrought by the baptism with the Holy Spirit, and comprehends in one experience the cleansing of the heart from sin and the abiding indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit, empowering the believer for life and service.

Entire sanctification is provided by the blood of Jesus, is wrought instantaneously by faith, preceded by entire consecration; and to this work and state of grace the Holy Spirit bears witness.

This experience is also known by various terms representing its different phases, such as "Christian perfection," "perfect love," "heart purity," "the baptism with the Holy Spirit," "the fullness of the blessing," and "Christian holiness." [36]

XI. Second Coming of Christ

14. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ will come again; that we who are alive at His coming shall not precede them that are asleep in Christ Jesus; but that, if we are abiding in Him, we shall be caught up with the risen saints to meet the Lord in the air, so that we shall ever be with the Lord.

XII. Resurrection, Judgment, and Destiny

15. We believe in the resurrection of the dead, that the bodies both of the just and of the unjust shall be raised to life and united with their spirits — "they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation."

16. We believe in future judgment in which every man shall appear before God to be judged according to his deeds in this life.

17. We believe that glorious and everlasting life is assured to all who savingly believe in, and obediently follow, Jesus Christ our Lord; and that the finally impenitent shall suffer eternally in hell.

XIII. Baptism

18. We believe that Christian baptism is a sacrament signifying acceptance of the benefits of the atonement of Jesus Christ, to be administered to believers as declarative of their faith in Jesus Christ as their Saviour, and full purpose of obedience in holiness and righteousness.

Baptism being the symbol of the New Testament, young children may be baptized, upon request of parents or guardians who shall give assurance for them of necessary Christian training.

Baptism may be administered by sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, according to the choice of the applicant.

XIV. The Lord's Supper

19. We believe that the Memorial and Communion Supper instituted by our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is essentially a New Testament sacrament, declarative of His sacrificial death, through the merits of which believers have life and salvation and promise of all spiritual blessings in Christ. It is distinctively for those who are prepared for reverent appreciation of its significance and by it they show forth the Lord's death till He come again. It being the Communion feast, only those who have faith in Christ and love for the saints should be called to participate therein.

XV. Divine Healing

20. We believe in the Bible doctrine of divine healing and urge our people to seek to offer the prayer of faith for the healing of the sick. Providential means and agencies when deemed necessary should not be refused.

THE CHURCH

I. The General Church

21. The Church of God is composed of all spiritually regenerate persons, whose names are written in heaven.

II. The Churches Severally

22. The churches severally are to be composed of such regenerate persons as by providential permission, and by the leadings of the Holy Spirit, become associated together for holy fellowship and ministries.

III. The Church of the Nazarene

23. The Church of the Nazarene is composed of those persons who have voluntarily associated themselves together according to the doctrines and polity of said church, and who seek holy Christian fellowship, the conversion of sinners, the entire sanctification of believers, their upbuilding in holiness, and the simplicity and spiritual power manifest in the primitive New Testament Church, together with the preaching of the gospel to every creature.

IV. Agreed Statement of Belief

24. Recognizing that the right and privilege of persons to church membership rest upon the fact of their being regenerate, we would require only such avowals of belief as are essential to Christian experience. We, therefore, deem belief in the following brief statements to be sufficient. We believe:

§ 1. In one God — the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

§ 2. That the Old and New Testament Scriptures, given by plenary inspiration, contain all truth necessary to faith and Christian living.

§ 3. That man is born with a fallen nature, and is, therefore, inclined to evil, and that continually.

§ 4. That the finally impenitent are hopelessly and eternally lost.

§ 5. That the atonement through Jesus Christ is for the whole human race; and that whosoever repents and believes on the Lord Jesus Christ is justified and regenerated and saved from the dominion of sin.

§ 6. That believers are to be sanctified wholly, subsequent to regeneration, through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

§ 7. That the Holy Spirit bears witness to the new birth, and also to the entire sanctification of believers.

§ 8. That our Lord will return, the dead will be raised, and the final judgment will take place.

V. The General Rules

25. To be identified with the visible Church is the blessed privilege and sacred duty of all who are saved from their sins, and are seeking completeness in Christ Jesus. It is required of all who desire to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, and thus to walk in fellowship with us, that they shall show evidence of salvation from their sins by a godly walk and vital piety; that they shall be, or earnestly desire to be, cleansed from all indwelling sin; and they shall evidence this —

§ 1. FIRST. By avoiding evil of every kind, including:

- (1) Taking the name of God in vain.
- (2) Profaning of the Lord's day, either by unnecessary labor, or business, or by the patronizing or reading of secular papers, or by holiday diversions.
- (3) Using of intoxicating liquors as a beverage, or trafficking therein; giving influence to, or voting for, the licensing of places for the sale of the same; using of tobacco in any of its forms, or trafficking therein.

(4) Quarreling, returning evil for evil, gossiping, slandering, spreading surmises injurious to the good names of others.

(5) Dishonesty, taking advantage in buying and selling, bearing false witness, and like works of darkness.

(6) The indulging of pride in dress or behavior. Our people are to dress with the Christian simplicity and modesty that become holiness. "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; but (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works" (I Timothy 2:9-10). "Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; but let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price" (I Peter 3:3-4).

(7) Songs, literature, and entertainments not to the glory of God; the theater, the ballroom, the circus, and like places; also, lotteries and games of chance; looseness and impropriety of conduct; membership in or fellowship with oath-bound secret orders or fraternities. "Know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God" (James 4: 4). "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? . . . Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you" (II Corinthians 6: 14-17).

§ 2. SECOND. By doing that which is enjoined in the Word of God, which is both our rule of faith and practice, including:

- (1) Being courteous to all men.
- (2) Contributing to the support of the ministry and the church and its work, according to the ability which God giveth.
- (3) Being helpful to those who are of the household of faith, in love forbearing one another.
- (4) Loving God with all the heart, soul, mind, and strength.
- (5) Attending faithfully all the ordinances of God, and the means of grace, including the public worship of God, the ministry of the Word, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper; searching the Scriptures and meditating thereon; family and private devotions.
- (6) Seeking to do good to the bodies and souls of men; feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and ministering to the needy, as opportunity and ability are given.

(7) Pressing upon the attention of the unsaved the claims of the gospel, inviting them to the house of the Lord, and trying to compass their salvation.

§ 3. TRUST. By abiding in hearty fellowship with the church, not inveighing against its doctrines and usages, but being in full sympathy and conformity therewith.

ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION AND GOVERNMENT

ARTICLE I. FORM OF GOVERNMENT

26. The Church of the Nazarene has a representative form of government.

§ 1. We are agreed on the necessity of a superintendency which shall foster and care for churches already established, and whose duty it shall be to organize and encourage the organizing of churches everywhere.

§ 2. We are agreed that authority given to superintendents shall not interfere with the independent action of a fully organized church. Each church shall enjoy the right to select its own pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. Each church shall also elect delegates to the various assemblies, manage its own finances, and have charge of all other matters pertaining to its local life and work.

*27. It is agreed that any church of the Association of Pentecostal Churches of America going into this organization which may feel it imperative with it to continue to hold its property in like manner as at present, shall be at liberty to do so.

ARTICLE II. LOCAL CHURCHES

28. The membership of a local church shall consist of all who have been organized as a church by those authorized so to do and who have been publicly received by those having proper authority, after having declared their experience of salvation, their belief in our doctrines, and their willingness to submit to our government. [100-101]

ARTICLE III. DISTRICT ASSEMBLIES

29. The General Assembly shall organize the membership of the church into District Assemblies, giving such lay and ministerial representation therein as the General Assembly may deem fair and just, and shall determine qualifications of such representatives, provided, however, that all elders in good standing shall be members thereof. The General Assembly shall also fix the boundaries of Assembly Districts, and define the powers and duties of District Assemblies. [200-201]

*An amendment now being voted on by districts, if confirmed, will delete paragraph 27.

ARTICLE IV. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

30. § 1. How composed. The General Assembly shall be composed of ministerial and lay delegates in equal numbers, elected thereto by District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene; such ex officio members as the General Assembly shall from time to time direct; and such (representatives of the missionary districts) delegates of districts under the administration of the Departments of World Missions and Home Missions of the Church of the Nazarene as may be provided for by the General Assembly.

§ 2. Election of Delegates. (Every) At a District Assembly (shall elect by ballot at a session) within 16 months of the meeting of the General Assembly an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates to the General Assembly shall be chosen as may be provided by the General Assembly, and provided that the ministerial delegates shall be elders of the Church of the Nazarene. Each assembly district shall be entitled to at least one ministerial and one lay delegate, and such additional delegates as its membership may warrant on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly. Each assembly district shall elect alternate delegates not exceeding the number of its delegates.

An amendment now being voted on by districts, if confirmed, will change 30, 1 & 2 by deleting words in parentheses and adding words in italics.

§ 3. Credentials. The secretary of each District Assembly shall furnish certificates of election to the delegates and alternates severally elected to the General Assembly, and shall also send certificates of such elections to the general secretary of the Church of the Nazarene immediately following the adjournment of the District Assembly.

§ 4. Quorum. When the General Assembly is in session a majority of the whole number of delegates elected thereto shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. If a quorum has once been had, a smaller number may approve the minutes then remaining unapproved, and adjourn.

§ 5. General Superintendents. The General Assembly shall elect by ballot from among the elders of the Church of the Nazarene as many general superintendents as it may deem necessary, who shall constitute the Board of General Superintendents. Any vacancy in the office of general superintendent in the interim of General Assemblies shall be filled by a two-thirds vote of all the district superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene. [305.1]

§ 6. Presiding Officers. A general superintendent appointed thereto by the Board of General Superintendents shall preside over the daily meetings of the General Assembly. But if no general superintendent be so appointed or be present, the General Assembly shall elect one of its members as temporary presiding officer. [300.1]

§ 7. Rules of Order. The General Assembly shall adopt Rules of Order governing its manner of organization, procedure, committees, and all other matters pertaining to the orderly conduct of its business. It shall be the judge of the election and qualifications of its own members. [300.2]

§ 8. General Court of Appeals. The General Assembly shall elect from among members of the Church of the Nazarene a General Court of Appeals and shall define its jurisdiction and powers. [305.9]

§ 9. Powers and Restrictions.

(1) The General Assembly shall have power to legislate for the Church of the Nazarene, and to make rules and regulations for all the departments related to or associated with it in any respect, but not in conflict with this Constitution. [300, 305-5.14]

(2) No local church shall be deprived of the right to call its pastor, subject to such approval as the General Assembly shall find wise to institute. [119]

(3) All local churches, officers, ministers, and laymen shall always have the right to a fair and orderly trial and the right to take an appeal.

AMENDMENTS

31. The provisions of this Constitution may be repealed or amended when concurred in by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the General Assembly, and when concurred in by not less than two-thirds of all the District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene. Either the General Assembly or any District Assembly may take the initiative in the matter of proposing such alterations or amendments. As soon as such alterations or amendments shall have been adopted as herein provided, the result of the vote shall be announced by the Board of General Superintendents, whereupon such alterations or amendments shall have full force and effect.

PART III

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

CHURCH OFFICERS

GROWTH IN GRACE

A. CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

32. Meaning of Stewardship. The Scriptures teach that God is the Owner of all persons and all things, that men are His stewards of both life and possessions, that God's ownership and man's stewardship ought to be acknowledged, and that men shall be held personally accountable to God for the exercise of their stewardship. God, as a God of system and order in all of His ways, has established a system of giving which acknowledges His ownership and man's stewardship. To this end all His children should faithfully tithe and present offerings for the support of the gospel. [143, 377]

32.1. Storehouse Tithing. Storehouse tithing is a scriptural and practical performance of faithfully and regularly placing the tithe into that church to which the member belongs. Therefore, the financing of the church shall be based on the plan of storehouse tithing, and the local Church of the Nazarene shall be regarded by all of its people as the storehouse. All who are a part of the Church of the Nazarene are urged to contribute faithfully one-tenth of all their increase as a minimum financial obligation to the Lord and freewill offerings in addition as God has prospered them for the support of the whole church, local, district, zonal, and general.

32.2. Fund Raising and Distribution. In the light of the scriptural teaching concerning the giving of tithes and offerings for the support of the gospel, and for the erection of church buildings, no Nazarene church should engage in any method of fund raising which would detract from these principles, hinder the gospel message, sully the name of the church, discriminate against the poor, nor misdirect the people's energies from promoting the gospel.

In disbursing to meet the requirements of the local, district, zonal, and general programs of the Church of the Nazarene, local churches are urged to adopt and practice the budget plan, and to pay general, zonal, and district apportionments monthly. [112, 133, 173-74]

32.3. Support of the Ministry. "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel" (I Corinthians 9:14). The church is obligated to support its ministers, who have been called of God, and who, under the direction of the church, have given themselves wholly to the work of the ministry. We urge therefore that the members of the church voluntarily commit themselves to the task of supporting the ministry by gathering money weekly for this holy business, and that the pastor's salary be paid regularly every week. [123]

32.4. Life Income Gifts and Bequests. It is essential in the exercise of Christian stewardship that careful thought be given as to what shall be done with the residue of one's income and possessions over which the Lord makes the Christian a steward during his life. Civil laws often do not provide for the distribution of an estate in such a way as to glorify God. Each Christian should give attention to the preparation of his last will and testament in a careful and legal manner, and the Church of the Nazarene through its various ministries of missions, evangelism, education, and benevolences—local, district, zonal, and general—is recommended for consideration. [380-80.4]

B. TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION

33. The Holy Scriptures and human experience alike condemn the use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage. The manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for such purpose is a sin against God and the human race. Total abstinence from all intoxicants is the Christian rule for the individual, and total prohibition of the traffic in intoxicants is the duty of civil government. [379]

33.1. Only unfermented wine and unleavened bread should be used in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. [109.10, 403.5, 404, 689]

C. MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

34. The institution of marriage was ordained of God in the time of man's innocency, and is, according to apostolic authority, "honourable in all"; it is the mutual union of one man and one woman for fellowship, helpfulness, and the propagation of the race. Our people should cherish this sacred estate as becomes Christians, and should enter it only after earnest prayer for divine direction, and when assured that the contemplated union is in accordance with scriptural requirements. They should seek earnestly the blessings which God has ordained in connection with the wedded state, namely, holy companionship, parenthood, and mutual love — the elements of home building. The marriage covenant is morally binding so long as both shall live, and, therefore, may not be dissolved at will.

34.1. Ministers of the Church of the Nazarene are instructed to give due care to matters relating to solemnizing marriages. They shall seek, in every manner possible, to convey to their congregations the sacredness of Christian marriage. They shall provide premarital counseling in every instance possible before performing a marriage ceremony. They shall only solemnize marriages of persons having the scriptural right to marry. [101-1.1, 103, 401.5]

34.2. Members of the Church of the Nazarene are to seek prayerfully a redemptive course of action when involved in marital unhappiness, in full harmony with their vows and the clear teachings of the Scripture, their aim being to save the home and safeguard the good name of both Christ and His Church. Couples having serious marital problems are urged to seek counsel and guidance of their pastor.

Failure to comply with this procedure in good faith and with sincere endeavor to seek a Christian solution, and subsequent obtainment of an unscriptural divorce and remarriage, makes one or both parties subject to discipline as prescribed in 501.

34.3. Though there may exist such other causes and conditions as may justify a divorce under the civil law, only adultery is a scriptural ground for divorce and only adultery will supply such ground as may justify the innocent party in remarrying. (Matthew 5:31-32; 19:3-9)

34.4. Through ignorance, sin, and human frailties, many in our society fall short of the divine ideal. We believe that Christ can redeem these persons even as He did the woman at Samaria's well. Where the scriptural ground for divorce did not exist and remarriage followed, the marriage partners, upon genuine repentance for their sin, are enjoined to seek the forgiving grace of God and His redemptive help in their marriage relation. Such persons may be received into the membership of the church at such time as they have given evidence of their regeneration and an awareness of their understanding of the sanctity of Christian marriage. [24.4, 101.1]

D. CHURCH OFFICERS

35. We direct our local churches in selecting their church officers to elect only such as are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification. [106.10, 164]

E. GROWTH IN GRACE

36. There is a marked distinction between a perfect heart and a perfect character. The former is obtained in an instant, the result of entire sanctification, but the latter is the result of growth in grace.

Our mission to the world is not alone to spread scriptural holiness as a doctrine, but also to be "an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity." Our people should give careful heed to the development of holiness in the fear of the Lord, to the promotion of the growth of Christian graces in the heart, and to their manifestation in the daily life. [13]

PART IV

Government

THE LOCAL CHURCH
THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

PREAMBLE TO GOVERNMENT

All life must have law; all organization must have government. He who is Head over all things unto the Church himself gave form and order unto His body of followers and representatives. We seek as a church to conform to principles of government in accord with the Holy Scriptures and divine providences, that all things may be done scripturally, decently, and in order.

The government of the Church of the Nazarene is representative, and thus avoids the extremes of episcopacy on the one hand, and unlimited congregationalism on the other.

CHAPTER I

A. Organization of Local Churches

100. Local churches may be organized by the district superintendent, or by the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or by an elder authorized by either of them. Official reports of new churches shall be filed in the Department of Home Missions. [28, 208.1, 310, 347, 404.9]

B. Full Membership

101. All persons who have been organized into a local church by those authorized so to do, and all who have been publicly received by the pastor, the district superintendent, or the general superintendent, after having declared their experience of salvation, and their belief in the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene, and their willingness to submit to its government, shall compose the full membership of the local church; however, only church members who have reached their fifteenth birthday shall be entitled to vote in annual or special church meetings. [28, 34.4, 101.1, 104; 106.1, 109.2, 116, 310, 403.7, 404.6]

101.1. When persons desire to unite with the church the pastor shall explain to them briefly the privileges of membership in the church and the requirements of the general rules, and if they are acceptable candidates, after consulting with the evangelism and church membership committee, the minister shall in a public service, using the approved form for the reception of members (Part IX, Chapter II, 688), receive them into the membership of the church. [25, 34.4, 103.3-3.4]

101.2. Members of missions, where the organization of a local church has not been effected, shall not be counted as church members nor reported as church members; however, members of a mission may, when duly received according to 101 and 101.1, hold church membership in some regularly organized local church in which they shall be counted as church members. But the members of missions shall not be reported in the annual statistics as church members. [109.12]

C. Probationary Membership

102. Any local church may, through its church board, establish a system of probationary membership; but probationers must not be counted as church members. [132.21]

102.1. Probationers shall have all the privileges of church members, with the exception of voting and holding church office.

102.2. Probationers may be received into full membership or dropped at any time, at the discretion of the pastor and evangelism and church membership committee.

D. Evangelism and Church Membership Committee

103. The church board shall provide an evangelism and church membership committee of not fewer than three persons, whose duty it shall be to act in the capacity of an advisory committee with the pastor as chairman, and it shall be the duty of this committee to promote evangelism in the local church and to conserve the fruits of our evangelism by the following means: [101-1.1, 132.22]

103.1. Study shall be made and recommendation given to the church board and church departments which will emphasize evangelistic efforts in the whole life of the church, stressing a constant search for souls, since members received by profession of faith are the true fruits of evangelism.

103.2. Serve as the local committee to implement the denominational programs, both general and district, of evangelism.

103.3. New converts shall be urged to qualify for church membership by a consistent devotional life, a study of the Bible and the Manual, individually and/or in a pastor's membership class. [24-25, 34.4]

103.4. Effort shall be made to bring new members into total fellowship and service of the church.

103.5. After new members are received, the committee shall work with the pastor in developing a continued program of spiritual guidance.

103.6. No person shall be received into full membership of the local church until the pastor first consults with the evangelism and church membership committee concerning that person's reception.

E. Change of Membership

104. Transfer. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a transfer of church membership [see form in 697.4] to any local church of the Church of the Nazarene that may be named, such transfer to be valid for three months only. When the reception of the transfer is acknowledged by the receiving local church, such person's membership in the former local church shall cease. [111, 697.5]

104.1. Commendation. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a certificate of commendation [see form in 697.2] to any evangelical church that may be named, after which such person's membership in the local church issuing the certificate shall cease immediately. [111]

F. Termination of Membership

105. Change of Residence. A member of a local church, when changing his place of residence, is required to report to his pastor at least once in six months. Should he fail to do so, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board, after which the pastor shall write opposite his name, "Removed without letter." [135]

105.1. Persistent Absence. When a member of a local church shall absent himself from all religious services of the church for six successive months without a reason deemed justifiable by the church board, his name may be removed from the church roll by action of the church board, after he has been visited and dealt with faithfully, when possible. After such action of the church board the pastor shall write opposite his name, "Removed by the church board." [135.1]

105.2. When a licensed or an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and there shall be written opposite his name, "Removed by uniting with another denomination." [403.7, 404.6]

105.3. When a member of a local church has accepted license to preach or ordination from any other religious organizations, or is engaging in independent church or missionary work, his membership in the local church shall, because of that fact, immediately cease except in case that person shall secure the annual written approval of the local church board of the church in which he holds his membership and the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board of the district in which that church is located.

105.4. Dismissal. The pastor, when requested by a member, may grant a letter of dismissal [see form in 697.3], thus terminating such person's membership immediately. [111]

G. Church Meetings

106. A meeting of the members of a local church for conference and for the transaction of any business not otherwise provided for shall be known as a church meeting. [106.5, 114, 119, 125-29, 139, 151]

106.1. Only those persons who have been received into full membership and have reached their fifteenth birthday shall be entitled to vote in church meetings. [101]

106.2. Business Transactions. Any business including elections, in harmony with the spirit and order of the church, and not otherwise specially provided for, may be transacted at any church meeting.

106.3. Comply with Civil Law. In all cases where the civil law requires a specific course of procedure in calling and conducting church meetings, that course should be strictly followed. [146]

106.4. Presiding Officer. The pastor, who shall be ex officio president of the local church, or the district superintendent, or the general superintendent having jurisdiction, or someone appointed by the district superintendent or the general superintendent, shall preside at annual or special church meetings. [113, 210.1, 310.1]

106.5. An annual church meeting of members of each local church shall be held within 60 days prior to the meeting of the District Assembly, public notice of the same always being given from the pulpit at least two Sundays preceding. [119, 139, 146.1]

ings; in his absence a secretary pro tempore shall be elected. [137.4]

106.7. Reports shall be given at the annual church meeting by the pastor [109.14], the superintendent of the Sunday school [165], the president of the Nazarene Young People's Society [171.4], the president of the local Nazarene World Missionary Society [172.2], the deaconesses [415], the local preachers [402], the stewards [142], the trustees [148], the local church school board [158], the secretary [137.2], and the treasurer [138.5] of the church board.

106.8. Elections. At the annual church meeting there shall be an election, by ballot, of the stewards [134], the trustees [144, 146.1], the Sunday school superintendent [164.1], and the members of the church school board [156] of the local church, to serve for the next church year and until their successors are elected and qualified.

106.9. Where laws permit, and in churches where such procedure is approved by a majority vote of the church members present at a duly called or annual meeting, a specific number of church members may be elected by ballot, primarily as members of the church board, it being understood that a designated proportion of these shall thereby be elected as trustees, and a further designated proportion as stewards in harmony with 139 and 144. The number to be elected shall be at least six and shall not exceed 22, the number to be decided by majority vote in the church meeting. When a church board is elected in this manner the board shall organize itself into committees to carry out assigned responsibilities.

106.10. Local churches in selecting their church officers are directed to elect only such as are clearly in the experience of entire sanctification. [See Special Rules, 35.]

106.11. A nominating committee in the election of officers, boards, and District Assembly delegates by the local church may be used, if desired. This committee may be constituted by whatever method and in whatever manner the church board shall propose. The pastor shall serve as chairman of the committee.

106.12. At the annual church meeting, there shall be an election, by ballot, of lay delegates to the District Assembly, on the basis of representation fixed by the General Assembly according to 201-1.2.

106.13. Special meetings of church members of the local church, for conference or the transaction of business, may be called at any time by the pastor or the church board after having obtained the consent of the pastor or of the district superintendent or of the general superintendent having jurisdiction. [151]

106.14. Public notice of special church meetings shall always be given from the pulpit in at least two preceding regular services, or in such manner as meets the requirements of civil law. [125-26, 128, 139, 141, 146.1-47]

H. The Church Years

107. The church year shall begin on the Monday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly of the assembly district in which the local church is situated, and shall close at twelve o'clock midnight on the Sunday immediately following the final adjournment of the District Assembly.

107.1. The statistical year shall close within 60 days prior to the opening of the District Assembly; and the new statistical year shall begin the day following its close. The exact date of the beginning and close of the statistical year within these bounds shall be set by the District Advisory Board. [222.1]

I. The Pastor

108. A pastor is an elder or a licensed minister [119] who, under the call of God and His people, has the oversight of a local church. [35, 210]

109. The duties of a pastor are:

109.1. To preach the Word. [403.5, 404]

109.2. To receive persons into membership in the local church according to 101 and 101.1.

109.3. To administer the sacraments in harmony with 403.5 and 404.

109.4. To care for the people by pastoral visitation, particularly of the sick and needy.

109.5. To comfort those who mourn.

109.6. To reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all long-suffering and doctrine.

109.7. To seek, by all means, the conversion of sinners, the sanctification of the converted, and the upbuilding of God's people in their most holy faith. [23]

109.8. To have the care of all departments of local church work.

109.9. To appoint the teachers of the Sunday school in harmony with 166.1.

109.10. To administer the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at least once a quarter. If he is a licensed minister but has failed to fully comply with provisions of 403.5 (see also 689), he shall arrange for such administration by an elder. [33.1, 140.2]

109.11. To read to the congregation the Constitution of the Church of the Nazarene and the Special Rules contained in 1-25, 32-36, both inclusive, within each church year [107], or have this section of the Manual printed and distributed annually to the members of the church.

109.12. To supervise the preparation of all statistical reports from all departments of the local church, and present promptly all such reports through the district secretary to the District Assembly. [101.2, 107.1, 168] of the local church in harmony with the district and general church promotional goals and programs; in his annual report to the local church he shall include a report on the status of the local church and its departments; he shall also outline areas of future needs with recommendations for reference by the church to any of its officers or departments for study and/or implementation in future steps for growth and progress.

109.14. To submit a report to the annual church meeting. [106.7]

109.15. To appoint an investigating committee of three in case of accusation filed against a church member. [501]

109.16. To see that all General Budget funds raised through the local missionary society are remitted promptly to the General Treasurer; and that all District Budget funds are remitted promptly to the district treasurer. [138.2]

109.17. To nominate to the church board all persons who are paid employees of the local church, and to have supervision of the same.

110. When a member or friend of a local church or any of the departments of the church moves to another locality in the same assembly district where vital association with the previous local church is impractical, the pastor shall notify the pastor of the church nearest the locality, giving the member's or friend's address if known. If the move is to a locality beyond the assembly district, the local pastor shall immediately inform the "Moving Nazarenes Services" of the Department of Evangelism, 6401 The Paseo, Kansas City, Mo. 64131, giving the name and new address if known. The Department of Evangelism shall immediately forward the information to the pastor of the new locality where the person is residing.

111. The pastor may, when requested by a member, grant a transfer of church membership [697.4], a certificate of commendation [697.2], or a letter of dismissal [104-4.1, 105.4, 697.3].

112. The pastor, together with the church board, according to plans adopted by the General Assembly and agreed to by the District Assembly, shall arrange for the raising of the apportionment of the General Budget funds and the apportionment of the District Budget funds, made to the local church of which he is pastor, and shall raise these apportionments. [32.2, 133, 173]

113. The pastor shall be, ex officio, president of the local church, chairman of the church board, and head of the church schools, the Nazarene Young People's Society, the Nazarene World Missionary Society, and all other subsidiary organizations in connection with the local church. [130, 160, 171.3, 172.1]

113.1. The pastor shall have the right to a voice in the nomination of all heads of all departments of the local church. [132.15, 164.1, 169.1, 171.4, 172.2]

114. The pastor shall not contract bills nor create financial obligations for the local church of which he is pastor, unless he be authorized and directed by vote of the church board or by vote of a church meeting; and such action shall be duly recorded in the minutes of the church board or of the church meeting respectively. [132.1]

115. The pastor shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [208, 222.2, 403.9, 404.8]

116. In case a licensed or ordained minister presenting credentials from another denomination shall, during the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, make application for membership in a local church, the pastor may not receive such applicant without first having obtained the favorable recommendation of the District Advisory Board. [101, 115, 225]

117. For the exercise of his office the pastor shall be amenable to the District Assembly, to which he shall report annually and give brief testimony to his personal Christian experience. [203.1, 403.6]

118. The pastor shall automatically become a member of the local church of which he is pastor; or, in case of more than one local church on his charge, of the church of his choice. [404.4]

J. Calling of a Pastor

119. An elder or a licensed minister [108] may be called to the pastorate of a local church by two-thirds favorable vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting at a duly called annual or special meeting of the local church, provided that such elder or licensed minister shall have been nominated to the local church by the church board, which, after having advised with the district superintendent, made such nomination by a majority vote by ballot of all its members; and provided the nomination shall have been approved by the district superintendent. [30.9, 121, 125.2, 132.2, 205.7, 208.6]

119.1. The pastor for a church that has been organized for less than two years, or has less than 25 voting members, or pays less than $50.00 per week cash salary, or is receiving regular assistance from the district, may be appointed by the district superintendent with the consent of the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the District Advisory Board.

119.2. In case of a vacancy in the pastorate in such churches in the interim between District Assemblies, such should be filled by the appointment of the district superintendent.

120. In case of disagreement between the church board and the district superintendent, the church board or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the church board or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

121. When a pastor is called during a church year, it shall be for a term including the next church year, and the call may be extended as hereinafter provided.

122. In case any local church has not called a pastor prior to the convening of the District Assembly, the general superintendent presiding at the District Assembly, the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board, in concurrence with the delegates from such local church, shall make pastoral arrangements for that local church. [222.3, 308.1]

123. When a pastor is called, the local church should specify the remuneration he may expect. The amount of this remuneration may be determined by the church board, or by vote of the local church membership on such amount as has been recommended by the church board. When agreement has been entered into between the local church or the church board and the pastor in regard to his remuneration, the payment of the pastor's salary in full shall be considered a moral obligation by the church. If, however, the church becomes unable to continue the payment of the salary agreed upon, such inability and failure shall not be considered a sufficient cause for civil action against the church by the pastor; and in no case shall the church be legally responsible in excess of funds raised during the term of the pastor's actual service, and not otherwise designated.

The local church should also make provision for his traveling and moving expenses. [32, 132.5-32.6]

124. No pastor shall resign the pastorate of a local church without giving the local church board and the district superintendent written notice at least 30 days before the termination of his pastorate; and without having his resignation accepted by the local church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent.

K. Renewing the Call of the Pastor

125. The call of a pastor may be renewed for the second year and each succeeding year of his pastorate without nomination by the church board, by two-thirds vote by ballot of all church members of voting age present and voting at a church meeting duly called for this purpose and held at least 90 days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly, provided such renewal call shall be approved by the district superintendent within 30 days after such call. His failure to disapprove shall be considered and treated as approval. [106.12, 208.7]

125.1. In case of the disapproval of the renewal call by the district superintendent within that time, either the local church or the district superintendent may submit the matter to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. From such decision either the local church or the district superintendent may appeal to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

125.2. A pastor receiving less than two-thirds but a majority vote on a renewal call shall be considered reelected for a period of one year, subject to the approval of the district superintendent; but cannot be voted on again unless nominated by the church board as in regular procedure of calling a pastor. A vote for an extended call may not be taken unless there is a favorable two-thirds vote of the church. [119]

126. Extended Call. However, it is hereby provided that the local church may, when voting to renew pastoral relations for the pastor who is an elder who has served at least 180 days prior to the vote on reelection, vote to extend the call to a total of two, three, or four years on condition that the pastoral vote for one year has been presented and a favorable vote received, and that such extended call shall have been recommended by majority vote of all members of the church board and approved in writing by the district superintendent. Such a vote must be by two-thirds vote by ballot of church members of voting age present and voting and must be taken at a church meeting duly called for that purpose at least 90 days but not more than 180 days prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. [106.13]

126.1. It shall be understood that this extended call shall include the one-year-renewal call period. In case of additional renewals of such pastorate, the procedure shall be the same as that stated herein; but each successive renewal shall not be for longer than four years.

126.2. After a minister has accepted a call for a period longer than one year, he shall not resign the pastorate of the local church without giving the local church board and district superintendent written notice. When this written notice has been accepted by the district superintendent and the local church board, termination may be any time agreed upon within 30 days.

127. In case the church meeting for the renewal call is held at a date later than 90 days prior to the convening of the next District Assembly, the procedure shall be that of calling a pastor according to 119.

128. Acceptance of a call to pastoral relations shall be given by the minister not later than 30 days from the date of the church meeting voting the call.

129. In case the district superintendent and the church board shall be of the opinion that the question of the continuance of pastoral relations beyond the close of any year of an extended pastoral term should be submitted to the local church, the district superintendent and the church board by a two-thirds majority vote of all its members together may order the question submitted for vote at a special church meeting held at least 90 days, but not more than 180 days, prior to the date of convening the next District Assembly. The question shall be submitted in the following form: "Shall the present pastoral relations be continued beyond the end of the present church year?" [106.13]

If, by a two-thirds vote by ballot of the church members of voting age present and voting, the church decides to continue its present pastoral relations, the office of the pastor shall continue as though such vote had not been taken.

If, however, the church fails to decide by such vote to continue the present pastoral relations, the term of office of the pastor shall terminate with the close of the District Assembly.

L. The Church Board

130. Membership. Every local church shall have a church board, composed of the pastor (who shall be chairman, ex officio), the Sunday school superintendent, the president of the Nazarene Young People's Society, the president of the local Nazarene World Missionary Society, the stewards, and the trustees of the local church and the members of the church school board when elected as the education committee of the church board by the annual church meeting. [35, 106.8-6.11, 113, 139, 144, 156, 171.4, 172.2]

131. Meeting Time. The church board shall have a regular meeting within the first 10 days of each calendar month, and shall meet specially when called by the pastor, the district superintendent, or the secretary when there is no pastor.

Between the annual church meeting and the District Assembly the newly elected church board may meet for organization purposes, at which time it shall elect a church secretary and a church treasurer as provided hereafter and any other officer which it shall be their duty to elect. [106.5, 132.15-32.16]

132. Business. The business of the church board shall be:

132.1. To care for the interests of the local church and its work, not otherwise provided for, in harmony with the pastor. [114, 177]

132.2. To nominate to the local church, after having consulted with the district superintendent, any elder or licensed minister whom it may deem the proper person to become pastor, provided the nomination be approved by the district superintendent. [119, 208.6]

132.3. To recommend to the local church, with the approval of the district superintendent, that the call of the pastor be renewed for a term longer than one year. [126, 129]

132.4. To arrange for pastoral supply, after conference with the district superintendent, until such time as a pastor shall be regularly called by the local church. [209]

132.5. To determine the amount of salary the pastor shall receive, and to review the salary of the pastor at least once a year. [123]

132.6. To provide ways and means for the support of the pastor, the pastoral supply, or any other paid workers of the local church. [123, 140.1]

132.7. To determine the financial support and housing allowance the evangelist should receive and notify him of such minimum support at the time of his call by the church board.

132.8. To give proper attention to the support of the district superintendent and the general superintendents, in accordance with the authorized plans.

132.9. To license as local preacher, at its discretion, any person who has been recommended by the pastor; and to renew such license, as provided in 402, 402.2.

132.10. To license as local deaconess, at its discretion, any person who has been recommended by the pastor; and to renew such license. [415, 415.3]

132.11. To recommend, at its discretion, upon nomination by the pastor, a local preacher to the District Assembly to be a licensed minister. [402.4, 203.2, 403]

132.12. To recommend, at its discretion, upon nomination by the pastor, a licensed minister to the District Assembly for renewal of license. [203.2, 403.2]

132.13. To recommend, at its discretion, upon nomination by the pastor, a local deaconess to the District Assembly to be a licensed deaconess. [415.4, 203.3, 416]

132.14. To recommend, at its discretion, upon nomination by the pastor, a licensed deaconess to the District Assembly for renewal of license [415.4, 203.3, 416.3]

132.15. To elect, upon nomination by the local church school board, the superintendent of the vacation Bible school, and the superintendent of the weekday Bible school. [159.9]

132.16. To elect a secretary at the first meeting of the new board, to serve until the close of the church year and until his successor has been elected and qualified. [106.6, 131, 137.1-37.5]

132.17. To elect a treasurer at the first meeting of the new board, to serve until the close of the church year and until his successor has been elected and qualified. [131, 138.1-38.6]

132.18. To cause careful account to be kept of all money received and disbursed by the local church, and make report of the same at its regular monthly meetings, and to the annual meeting of the local church. [138.3]

132.19. To provide a committee, no fewer than two members of which shall count and account for all moneys received by the local church. [140.1]

132.20. To appoint an auditing committee which shall audit, at least annually, the financial records of the treasurer of the local church, the Nazarene Young People's Society, the Sunday school, and any other financial records of the local church.

132.21. To establish, at its discretion, a system of probationary membership for the local church. [102]

132.22. To provide an evangelism and church membership committee of no fewer than three persons. [103]

132.23. To recommend a licensed deaconess to the District Assembly for election as a consecrated deaconess. [417]

132.24. To function, if advisable, as the church school board in local churches of no more than 50 members. [156.1]

132.25. To appoint a trial committee of five in case written charges are pending against a church member. [501]

132.26. With the written approval of the district superintendent and upon the nomination of the pastor to elect such local paid assistants as assistant pastors, directors of Christian education, directors of youth work, or directors of music. The failure of the district superintendent to disapprove within 15 days shall be considered and treated as approval. [181, 208.9]

133. The church board, together with the pastor, shall follow plans adopted by the General Assembly and agreed to by the District Assembly for raising apportionments both of General Budget funds and of District Budget funds made to the local church, and shall raise these apportionments. [32.2-32.3, 112, 173]

134. Before a local church school board has been provided in a newly organized local church, the church board and pastor shall appoint a Sunday school superintendent, and shall perform the duties of a local church school board until such board has been regularly elected. [156]

135. The church board may remove the name of a nonresident church member from the church roll upon his failure to report to the pastor at least once in six months. [105]

135.1. The church board may remove from the church roll the name of a church member who absents himself from all religious services of the church for six successive months without a reason deemed justifiable by the church board, provided that he has been visited and faithfully dealt with, when possible. [105.1]

136. The church board may suspend or revoke the license of a local deaconess in harmony with 415.3.

137. Church Secretary. The duties of the secretary of the church board shall be:

137.1. To record correctly and preserve faithfully the minutes of all church meetings and meetings of the church board, and do whatever else may pertain to his office. [132.16]

137.2. To present to the annual meeting of the local church an annual report of all the activities of the local church, including statistics concerning the membership. [106.7]

137.3. To hold in trust all papers, records, and legal documents, including deeds, abstracts, insurance policies, pertaining to the local church and turn over promptly all papers, records, and other documents to his successor in office.

137.4. To be the secretary of all annual and special church meetings; and to be custodian of the minutes and other papers of such annual and special church meetings. [106.6]

137.5. To certify in writing to the district superintendent the results of the vote for the calling of a pastor, a pastoral renewal vote, and the vote for an extended pastoral renewal call. Such certification shall be made within one week of the vote.

138. Church Treasurer. The duties of the treasurer of the church board shall be:

138.1. To receive all moneys not otherwise provided for, and disburse the same only on order of the church board. [132.18]

138.2. To make monthly remittances of all district funds to the district treasurer, and of all general funds to the General Treasurer, except as otherwise provided. [109.16]

138.3. To keep a correct book record of all funds received and disbursed. [132.18]

138.4. To present a monthly financial report to the church board. [132.18]

138.5. To present an annual financial report to the annual church meeting. [106.7, 132.18]

138.6. To deliver to the church board the complete treasurer's records at such time as he shall cease to hold the office of treasurer.

M. The Stewards

139. The stewards of the local church shall be no fewer than three nor more than 13 in number. They shall be elected by ballot, at the annual or a special church meeting, from among the members of the local church, to serve for the next church year and until their successors have been elected and qualified. [35, 106.5, 106.8, 106.12, 130]

140. The duties of the stewards are:

140.1. To give special attention, under the direction of the church board, to raising money for the support of the church, and of the pastor, that he may be free from secular care and anxiety, and may give himself wholly to the work of the ministry. [132.6]

140.2. To provide the elements for the Lord's Supper, and, when requested by the pastor, to assist in the distribution of the same. [33.1, 109.10]

140.3. To provide assistance and support for the needy and distressed.

141. A vacancy in the office of steward may be filled by the local church at a duly called church meeting. [106.13]

142. For faithfulness in the discharge of their duties the stewards shall be amenable to the local church. They shall make a report to the local church at the annual church meeting. [106.7]

N. The Local Stewardship Committee

143. The stewards shall constitute the local stewardship committee, whose duty it shall be to promote the cause of Christian stewardship in the local church in cooperation with the pastor and the General Stewardship Committee. [32-32.4, 377-77.11]

O. The Trustees

144. The trustees of the local church shall be no fewer than three nor more than nine in number. They shall be elected from among the members of the local church to serve for the next church year and until their successors have been elected and qualified. [35, 106.8, 130]

145. Where the local church is not incorporated, or where the civil law requires it, or where for other reasons it is deemed best by the district superintendent or the District Advisory Board, the trustees shall hold the title to church property and manage it as trustees of the local church subject to the guidance and the restrictions as set forth in 151 governing the handling of church property.

146. In all cases where the civil law requires a specific mode of election of church trustees, that mode shall be strictly followed. [106.3]

146.1. Where no particular mode of election is required by civil law, the trustees shall be elected by ballot, at the annual meeting of the local church, or at a special meeting duly called for that purpose. [106.5, 106.8, 106.12]

147. A vacancy in the office of trustee may be filled by the local church at a duly called church meeting. [106.13]

148. For faithfulness to their trust, the trustees shall be amenable to the local church. They shall report to the annual church meeting. In the interim of annual church meetings, they shall make reports to the church board of which they are a part. [106.7, 149, 153, 175.1-75.2]

P. Church Incorporation

149. In all places where the statutes will permit, the trustees shall have the local church incorporated and the said trustees and their successors shall be the trustees of the said corporation. Where not inconsistent with civil law, the articles of incorporation shall set forth the powers of the corporation and provide that the corporation shall be subject to the government of the Church of the Nazarene, as from time to time authorized and declared in its Manual by the General Assembly of said church. All the property of this corporation shall be managed and controlled by the trustees subject to the approval of the local church.

Where property is purchased and developed by the District Advisory Board for a local church or where a new church is formed, upon the repayment of the money invested by the District Advisory Board by the local church, it is deemed advisable that the District Advisory Board transfer the title to the local church. [235.3, 349.2] 149.1. When a local church is incorporated, all property acquired shall be deeded directly to the church in its corporate name when it is possible to do so.

Q. Property Restrictions

150. The real estate of the local church shall not be mortgaged to meet current expenses.

151. The local church may not purchase real estate, nor sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of real estate except by majority vote of the members present at an annual meeting, or at a special meeting duly called for that purpose, and except upon the written approval of the district superintendent, and the written approval of the District Board of Church Extension. [106.5, 106.13]

152. The local church contemplating the purchase of real estate, or the erection of a church building or parsonage, or a major remodeling of either, shall submit the proposition to the district superintendent and the District Board of Church Extension for their consideration, advice, and approval. No indebtedness, whether involving a mortgage or not, shall be incurred in the purchase of real estate or the erection of buildings or a major remodeling of either, without the written approval of the district superintendent and the written approval of the District Board of Church Extension.

152.1. In case agreement cannot be reached between the church board and the district superintendent and the Board of Church Extension, the issue may be submitted to the general superintendent having jurisdiction for his decision. Either the church or the district superintendent may appeal such decision to the Board of General Superintendents for a final decision.

153. Trustees and/or a local church may not divert property from the use of the Church of the Nazarene. [175.1-75.2]

R. The Church School

154. The church school is that department of the local church which promotes the Christian educational work of the local church, namely, the Sunday school, the vacation Bible school, the weekday schools, Caravan, children's church, the Christian Service Training school, and such other schools and classes as may be classified under this heading, and shall be under the general supervision of the church school board and the direct care of the pastor. [134, 156]

155. The objectives of the church school are:

155.1. To teach the doctrines of Christianity and the standards of Christian behavior as revealed in the Bible, especially as interpreted by the "Articles of Faith" in the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene.

155.2. To lay the foundation and begin the development of Christian character in young children.

155.3. To seek the salvation of the unsaved and the entire sanctification of believers.

155.4. To foster a progressive and continuous development of Christlike character, attitudes, and habits.

155.5. To lead to the discovery of the Christian philosophy of life, and the biblical interpretation of the universe.

155.6. To help the home become more effective in teaching the Christian faith.

155.7. To influence strongly in favor of church membership and to train for service in the same.

155.8. To reach the largest possible number of people for Christ and the church.

These objectives are to be accomplished through devout and diligent study and teaching of the Word of God—the Bible—and through any other contributive agencies.

S. The Church School Board

156. Every local church shall have a church school board composed of the pastor, the Sunday school superintendent, and from three to nine persons from the church membership elected by the annual church meeting to serve until the close of the next church year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The church school board shall have general supervision of the church school.

156.1. In local churches of 50 members or less, the church board may function as the church school board. [132.24]

156.2. A vacancy on the church school board may be filled at a duly called church meeting. [106]

157. Educational Committee. If desired the church school board may be elected by the annual church meeting as an integral part of the church board, thus functioning as the educational committee of the board except as the church board may reserve designated functions to itself. The NWMS president and the NYPS president may be included on the educational committee of the local church to provide for coordination.

157.1. If an educational committee is elected, the church may elect fewer stewards and trustees (though never less than the minimum established by the Manual, 139 and 144) or elect a larger church board than otherwise. [106.8, 132.24, 134]

158. The church school board shall elect a chairman, a secretary, and such other officers as may be necessary. It shall hold regular monthly or quarterly meetings for the transaction of any business pertaining to church school work. Special meetings may be called by the pastor. The church school board shall give an annual report to the annual church meeting. [106.7]

159. The duties of the church school board or educational committee shall be:

159.1. In conjunction with the pastor, to organize or cause to be organized a Sunday school in connection with the local church, and where possible one or more branch Bible schools or outreach classes, and have general supervision of the same. [160-68]

159.2. To plan the Christian education program for the local church, including decisions regarding curriculum materials to be used.

159.3. To make surveys and studies of Christian education needs of the community, and lay plans to meet those needs as fully as possible.

159.4. To nominate one or more persons for the office of Sunday school superintendent in harmony with 164.1.

159.5. To elect a Cradle Roll supervisor and department visitors upon nomination by the pastor and the Sunday school superintendent.

159.6. To elect a Home Department supervisor and visitors upon nomination by the pastor and the Sunday school superintendent.

159.7. To elect or appoint other Sunday school officers, supervisors of departments, and other workers, upon nomination by the Sunday school superintendent and the pastor, as may be necessary. [165-65.3]

159.8. To approve nominees for Sunday school teachers before their appointment by the pastor, or remove an officer or teacher. [165-65.3]

159.9. To elect a record secretary for classes and/or departments upon nomination of the Sunday school superintendent after consultation with teachers and supervisors.

159.10. To organize and promote, when practicable, with the approval of the pastor, a vacation Bible school, a weekday school, and Christian Service Training classes; to select workers for them in harmony with 159.11-59.13, and have general supervision of the same. [169]

159.11. To nominate to the church board one or more persons for superintendent of the vacation Bible school or the weekday Bible school, in case such schools are organized. [132.15]

159.12. To elect other officers and teachers of the vacation Bible school, weekday school, Christian Service Training school, or special school, when such schools are organized. [169.2]

159.13. To elect a local director of Christian Service Training, who shall promote the cause of Christian training, arrange training classes for the entire membership of the church, and have general supervision over the same; and to elect a dean or superintendent of the Christian Service Training school or special school, when such school is organized. [169-69.1]

159.14. To elect a local director of Christian family life, who shall seek to strengthen the church's ministry to its families, to help the home and the church work more closely together, to encourage parents to make their homes more truly Christian, and to challenge church families to win non-Christian families to Christ.

159.15. To elect a local director of Caravans.

159.16. To elect a local director of visitation.

159.17. To make surveys and studies of Christian educational needs of the local church and community, and lay plans to meet those needs as fully as possible.

T. The Sunday School

160. The Sunday school shall be under the general supervision of the church school board, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of the Sunday school superintendent. [113, 159.1]

161. Bylaws. Each Sunday school shall be organized and administered under the bylaws in 696.

162. Cabinet. Each Sunday school shall have a cabinet in which the administrative work of the school is vested. This cabinet shall be composed of the general officers and the department supervisors, if any, of the Sunday school. In case it shall be deemed preferable by the local church, the members of the church school board and/or the Sunday school teachers may be included in the membership of the Sunday school cabinet.

In such situations the Sunday school cabinet becomes both the administrative organization and a group of inspiration, study, and discussion of Sunday school problems. [696, Art. IV]

163. Members. There shall be four classes of members, namely, Sunday School, Outreach, Cradle Roll, and Home Department.

163.1. Sunday school members shall be persons enrolled in the regular school whose attendance at the Sunday sessions is expected.

163.2. Outreach class or school members shall include persons who meet regularly each week for not less than one-half hour of Bible study at another time or place than the regular Sunday school.

163.3. Cradle Roll members shall be children under four years of age enrolled in the Cradle Roll department who do not attend Sunday school. Children not enrolled in nursery class may remain on the Cradle Roll until they are four years of age.

163.4. Home Department members shall be persons who are enrolled in the Home Department but who are unable to attend the regular Sunday sessions.

163.5. Total enrollment shall include all Sunday school, Outreach, Home Department, and Cradle Roll members.

164. The superintendent of the Sunday school shall be a member of the local church whose church school he serves, and shall be in the experience of entire sanctification, and in full sympathy with the doctrine and polity of the Church of the Nazarene. He shall be a member ex officio of the church school board, the church board, and the District Assembly. He shall submit an annual report to the annual church meeting, and a quarterly report to the church board. [35, 106.7, 130, 239, 324.1]

164.1. The Sunday school superintendent shall be elected by ballot by the annual church meeting, from one or more nominations made by the church school board (the Sunday school superintendent not being present when the nominees are selected) with the approval of the pastor; however, the Sunday school superintendent may be reelected by a "yes" and "no" vote, when such election is ordered by the church school board and approved by the pastor. A vacancy in the office of Sunday school superintendent shall be filled by the local church at a duly called church meeting. [106.8, 113.1, 159.2]

165. The other officers and teachers shall be professing Christians, exemplary in life, and in full harmony with the doctrines and polity of the Church of the Nazarene. [159.7]

165.1. The associate superintendent of outreach shall be a member of the local church he serves, a professing Christian in the experience of entire sanctification, exemplary in life, and in full harmony with the doctrine and polity of the Church of the Nazarene. He shall be an ex officio member of the church school board but not on the church board ex officio by virtue of membership on the educational committee. He shall report to the church board through the Sunday school superintendent.

165.2. The associate superintendent of outreach shall be elected by the church board from one or more nominations made by the church school board with the approval of the pastor.

165.3. The teachers of the Sunday school shall be nominated annually by the Sunday school superintendent, approved by the church school board, and appointed by the pastor. In the case of schools having departments, the nominations shall be made by the Sunday school superintendent and the department supervisor of the department in which the teachers are to serve. [109.9, 159.7]

166. In the case of properly proved unsoundness of doctrine, imprudent conduct, or neglect of duty, the church school board shall have the right to declare the office of any officer or teacher vacant by a two-thirds vote of all members of the board. [159.8]

167. The church school year shall be the same as the church year as defined in 107.

168. At the close of the statistical year it shall be the duty of the pastor to supervise carefully the making of the annual statistical report of the Sunday school and forward it to the district secretary. [109.12]

U. Other Church Schools

169. A vacation Bible school, weekday schools, a Christian Service Training school, or special classes or schools may be organized when practicable in the local church. These schools or classes shall be under the general supervision of the church school board, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of a superintendent or dean. [159.10]

169.1. The superintendent of a vacation Bible school or weekday schools shall be elected by the church board upon the nomination of the church school board. The dean of a Christian Service Training school or a special school shall be elected by the church school board. Such officers shall be approved by the pastor. [113.1, 159.9, 159.11]

169.2. The other officers and the teachers of a vacation Bible school, weekday schools, a Christian Service Training school, or a special school shall be elected by the church school board upon the nomination of the superintendent or dean of the school, with the approval of the pastor. [159.10]

170. A Caravan may be organized when practicable in the local church. These groups shall be under the general supervision of the church school board, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of the local Caravan director. The guides for Caravan shall be elected by the church school board upon nomination of the local Caravan director with the approval of the pastor. [159.13]

V. The Local Nazarene Young People's Society

171. Young people may be organized into a Nazarene Young People's Society, and auxiliary societies, for the spiritual benefit of the young people, cooperation in seeking the salvation of other young people, and the advancement of the work of the church.

171.1. The local organization of the young people shall be perfected in harmony with the constitution of the local Nazarene Young People's Society as approved by the General Assembly. [694.1]

171.2. In order to meet the needs of the local church to better advantage, the Nazarene Young People's Society may be organized into divisions in harmony with the constitution for the local society as approved by the General Assembly. [694.1]

171.3. These societies shall be in full subordination to the Church of the Nazarene, and may inaugurate no movement contrary to the judgment of the local church, or without the consent of the pastor.

The times and places of the meetings of such societies shall be chosen under the advice of the pastor and the church board. [113]

171.4. The president of the local society shall be nominated by a nominating committee, consisting of no fewer than three nor more than seven members of the Nazarene Young People's Society, including the pastor. This committee shall be appointed by the pastor and shall submit at least two names for the office of president, provided, however, that a president may be reelected by a "yes" or "no" vote when such election is recommended by said committee and approved by the pastor. The president shall be elected by a majority vote of the members present and voting by ballot in harmony with the constitution. His election shall be subject to the approval of the church board. He shall be a member of the local church whose society he serves, and a member ex officio of the church board, to which he shall make a monthly report. He shall submit a report to the annual meeting of the local church. [106.7, 113.1, 130]

171.5. Each local organization of the Nazarene Young People's Society shall be represented in the District Assembly by its president of which District Assembly he shall be a member. He shall report the condition of the society to the District Assembly. [201]

W. The Local Nazarene World Missionary Society

172. Upon the authorization of the church board, local organizations of the Nazarene World Missionary Society may be formed within any age-group in harmony with the constitution of such local societies approved by the Department of World Missions. [695.1]

172.1. The local Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be a constituent part of the local church and subject to the supervision and direction of the pastor and the church board. [113]

172.2. The president of the local society shall be nominated by a committee of three to seven active members of the Nazarene World Missionary Society appointed by the pastor, who shall serve as chairman. This committee shall submit one or more names for the office of president. The president shall be elected by a majority vote by ballot of the active members present and voting, and this election shall be subject to the approval of the church board. The president shall be a member of the local church whose society is served, a member, ex officio, of the church board, and a member of the District Assembly. The president shall present a report to the annual meeting of the local church. [106.7, 113.1, 130, 201]

173. All funds raised by the local Nazarene World Missionary Society for the general interests of the Church of the Nazarene, except the Medical Aid and Retirement Fund and the general expense fund, shall be paid into the General Budget and be sent directly to the General Treasurer to be credited to the local church to which this society is subsidiary until the General Budget apportionments of the local church be paid in full for the year, after which all such funds may be devoted to world missions exclusively. [112, 133]

173.1. The Medical Aid and Retirement Fund is to be held in trust by the General Treasurer for the General Council of the Nazarene World Missionary Society to be used for medical aid for active missionaries, pensions and medical aid for retired missionaries, such aid to be granted by the Department of World Missions according to the established policy. Funds shall be raised by placing of names on the Memorial Roll; and by annual payment of dues by the active members.

173.2. Each member shall contribute annually to the general expense fund.

173.3. When the General Budget apportionment of the local church has been paid in full for the year, opportunities may be given to make offerings for the support of world missionary work; such contributions to be known as "specials."

174. Funds for the support of general interests shall be raised in the following manners:

174.1. From gifts and offerings designed for the General Budget and general interests.

174.2. From the Prayer and Self-denial offerings.

174.3. From special offerings such as Easter and Thanksgiving.

174.4. No part of the above funds shall be used for local or district expense or charitable purposes.

X. Disorganization of Churches

175. When it seems clear to a district superintendent that a local church organization should no longer continue as such, it may be disorganized by action and formal pronouncement of the Board of General Superintendents on recommendation of the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board.

175.1. In case a local church becomes disorganized, any church property which may exist may in no way be diverted to other purposes but title shall pass to the District Advisory Board acting as agent for said district where such has been incorporated, or other authorized agents, for the use of the Church of the Nazarene at large, as the District Assembly shall direct; and trustees holding property for the disorganized local church shall sell or dispose of the same only on the order and under the direction of the District Advisory Board, or other appointed agent of the District Assembly, either conveying said property or delivering the proceeds from the sale thereof as directed by the District Assembly or its District Advisory Board. [144-53]

175.2. No trustee or trustees of a disorganized church may divert property from the use of the Church of the Nazarene. [144-53]

175.3. Only those churches officially disorganized may be dropped from the records of the General Secretary.

Y. Withdrawal of Churches

176. No local church may withdraw as a body from the Church of the Nazarene, or in any way sever its relation thereto, except by provision of the General Assembly, and upon agreed conditions and plans.

Z. Prohibition of Financial Appeals

177. It shall not be lawful for a local church, its officers or members, to send appeals to other local churches, their officers and members, to solicit money or financial assistance for their local church needs or for the interests that they may support.

It is provided, however, that such solicitation may be made to local churches and church members located within the bounds of the assembly district in which the solicitor is located, but on condition only that the solicitation be approved in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

178. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who are not authorized by the General Board or one of its departments shall not solicit funds for missionary or kindred activities apart from the General Budget, from congregations of local churches, or from members of such churches.

AA. Use of the Church Name

179. The name of the Church of the Nazarene, any local church, or any corporation or institution which is a part of or in any manner affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene, or any part of any such name, shall not be used by any members of the Church of the Nazarene nor any one or more members thereof, or by any corporation, partnership, association, group, or other entity in connection with any activity, whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature, without the prior written approval of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and the Board of General Superintendents, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to such activities of the Church of the Nazarene as are authorized by its official Manual.

BB. Church-sponsored Corporation

180. No local church, local church board, district corporation, district board, nor any two or more members of any of them (acting individually or otherwise) shall directly or indirectly form or become members of any corporation, association, partnership, group, or other entity which promotes, sponsors, encourages, or in any manner engages in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) in which members of the Church of the Nazarene are solicited or in any manner sought as prospective participants, customers, tenants, clients, members, or associates, or in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) which directly or indirectly purports to be sponsored or operated primarily or exclusively by or for the benefit or service of members of the Church of the Nazarene, without the express prior written consent of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

CC. Paid Assistants in the Local Church

181. There may be those who feel called to prepare themselves for certain vital lay services in the church, either part time or full time. The church recognizes the place of such lay workers and yet it is basically constituted a voluntary institution, with service to God and others the duty and privilege of all its members according to their abilities. When paid assistance in the local church, whether ministerial or lay, becomes necessary for greater efficiency, it must be such as will not devitalize the spirit of free service by all its members or tax the church's financial resources. [132.26]

181.1. Such local assistants as assistant pastors, directors of Christian education, directors of youth work, or directors of music, shall be nominated by the pastor, after having secured the written approval of the district superintendent, who shall respond within 15 days after receipt of the request, and elected by the church board. [208.9]

181.2. The employment of such assistants shall be for no more than one year and may be renewed upon recommendation of the pastor, and the favorable vote of the church board. [132.26]

181.3. The duties and services of such assistants are to be determined and supervised by the pastor. [109.17]

181.4. Such assistants are ineligible for election to the church board.

181.5. Within 30 days after a new pastor assumes his pastoral duties, the paid assistant's term of service shall be considered concluded. However, the paid assistant's reemployment may be considered, provided such has received the written approval of the district superintendent, the nomination of the new pastor, and the approval of the church board. [208.9]

such activities of the Church of the Nazarene as are authorized by its official Manual.

BB. Church-sponsored Corporation

180. No local church, local church board, district corporation, district board, nor any two or more members of any of them (acting individually or otherwise) shall directly or indirectly form or become members of any corporation, association, partnership, group, or other entity which promotes, sponsors, encourages, or in any manner engages in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) in which members of the Church of the Nazarene are solicited or in any manner sought as prospective participants, customers, tenants, clients, members, or associates, or in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) which directly or indirectly purports to be sponsored or operated primarily or exclusively by or for the benefit or service of members of the Church of the Nazarene, without the express prior written consent of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

181.2. The employment of such assistants shall be for no more than one year and may be renewed upon recommendation of the pastor, and the favorable vote of the church board. [132.26]

181.3. The duties and services of such assistants are to be determined and supervised by the pastor. [109.17]

181.4. Such assistants are ineligible for election to the church board.

181.5. Within 30 days after a new pastor assumes his pastoral duties, the paid assistant's term of service shall be considered concluded. However, the paid assistant's reemployment may be considered, provided such has received the written approval of the district superintendent, the nomination of the new pastor, and the approval of the church board. [208.9]

178. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who are not authorized by the General Board or one of its departments shall not solicit funds for missionary or kindred activities apart from the General Budget, from congregations of local churches, or from members of such churches.

AA. Use of the Church Name

179. The name of the Church of the Nazarene, any local church, or any corporation or institution which is a part of or in any manner affiliated with the Church of the Nazarene, or any part of any such name, shall not be used by any members of the Church of the Nazarene nor any one or more members thereof, or by any corporation, partnership, association, group, or other entity in connection with any activity, whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature, without the prior written approval of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and the Board of General Superintendents, provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to such activities of the Church of the Nazarene as are authorized by its official Manual.

BB. Church-sponsored Corporation

180. No local church, local church board, district corporation, district board, nor any two or more members of any of them (acting individually or otherwise) shall directly or indirectly form or become members of any corporation, association, partnership, group, or other entity which promotes, sponsors, encourages, or in any manner engages in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) in which members of the Church of the Nazarene are solicited or in any manner sought as prospective participants, customers, tenants, clients, members, or associates, or in any activity (whether of a commercial, social, educational, charitable, or other nature) which directly or indirectly purports to be sponsored or operated primarily or exclusively by or for the benefit or service of members of the Church of the Nazarene, without the express prior written consent of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

181.4. Such assistants are ineligible for election to the church board.

181.5. Within 30 days after a new pastor assumes his pastoral duties, the paid assistant's term of service shall be considered concluded. However, the paid assistant's reemployment may be considered, provided such has received the written approval of the district superintendent, the nomination of the new pastor, and the approval of the church board. [208.9]

CHAPTER II

THE DISTRICT ASSEMBLY

A. Bounds and Name

200. The General Assembly shall organize the membership of the church into District Assemblies.

The bounds and name of a church assembly district shall be such as shall be declared by the General Assembly, or by the assembly district involved, with the final approval of the general superintendent or superintendents having jurisdiction. [29]

B. Membership and Time of Meeting

201. Membership. The District Assembly shall be composed of all elders [404.5, 405.3]; all the licensed ministers [403.6]; the district secretary [217]; the district treasurer [220]; the chairman of the District Church School Board [238.6]; the president of the district Nazarene Young People's Society [242.2]; the president of the district Nazarene World Missionary Society [243.3]; the superintendent of each local Sunday school [164]; the president of each local Nazarene Young People's Society [171.5]; the president of each local Nazarene World Missionary Society [172.2]; the eligible deaconesses [416.5, 417.3]; the eligible lay missionaries [363.1]; the eligible ministers of Christian education [411.7]; the lay members of the District Advisory Board [221.3]; and the lay delegates from each local church in the assembly district. [29, 106.12, 201.1]

201.1. Local churches in districts of fewer than 5,000 church members shall be entitled to representation in the District Assembly as follows: two lay delegates from each local church of 50 or fewer church members, and one additional lay delegate for each successive 50 church members and the final major part of 50 church members. [29, 106.12, 201]

201.2. Local churches in districts of 5,000 or more church members shall be entitled to representation in the District Assembly as follows: one lay delegate from each local church of 50 or fewer church members, and one additional lay delegate for each successive 50 church members and the final major part of 50 church members. [29, 106.12, 201]

202. Time. The District Assembly shall be held annually, at the time appointed by the general superintendent having jurisdiction, and in the place designated by the preceding District Assembly or arranged for by the district superintendent.

202.1. Nominating Committee. Prior to the convening of the District Assembly the general superintendent having jurisdiction may appoint a nominating committee to serve during the District Assembly; this committee may prepare nominations for the usual committees and offices in advance of the convening of the District Assembly. [309.2]

C. Business of the District Assembly

203. The business of the District Assembly shall be:

203.1. To hear reports from and consider the character of all pastors, commissioned and/or registered evangelists, and other elders and licensed ministers, all deaconesses, commissioned ministers of Christian education, licensed directors of Christian education, commissioned ministers of music, and commissioned and/or registered song evangelists; however, by vote of the District Assembly the record of written reports received by the secretary may be accepted in lieu of oral reports of ministers not engaged in active service. [117, 177, 403.6, 405.3, 410.6, 411.7, 412, 413.3, 414.1, 416.5, 417.3]

203.2. To license as licensed ministers, after careful examination, persons who have been recommended by church boards or the District Advisory Board and who may be judged to be called to the ministry and to renew such license upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [132.11-32.12, 402.4, 403, 403.2]

203.3. To license as licensed deaconesses, after careful examination, persons who have been recommended by church boards and who may be judged to be called to the office of deaconess and to renew such license, upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [132.13-32.14, 415.4, 416, 416.3]

203.4. To elect to the eldership persons who may be judged to have fulfilled all the requirements for elder's orders upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [404.1]

203.5. To recognize the orders of persons coming from other denominations who may be judged qualified and desirable for placement in the Church of the Nazarene upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [403.1, 405]

203.6. To receive, by transfer from other districts, elders, licensed ministers, ministers of Christian education, and deaconesses who have been properly recommended and who may be judged as desirable for membership in the District Assembly upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [406-6.2, 411-11.8, 418-18.3]

203.7. To issue a transfer of elders, licensed ministers, ministers of Christian education, and deaconesses who desire to transfer to another district upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [406, 406.1, 418, 418.1]

203.8. To commission elders who devote the major part of their time to evangelism to serve as evangelists for one year upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [410]

203.9. To register licensed ministers who devote full or part time to evangelism and elders who devote a portion of their time to evangelism as registered evangelists upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [410.3]

203.10. To commission or register persons whom it deems qualified to serve as song evangelists for one year upon the favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [412]

203.11. To commission persons whom it deems qualified to serve as ministers of music for one year upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations.

203.12. To commission persons whom it deems qualified to serve as ministers of Christian education and to license as directors of Christian education [411.2] for one year; each upon favorable recommendation of the Board of Orders and Relations. [411]

203.13. To elect, by two-thirds favorable vote, by ballot, an elder to the office of district superintendent, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified; however, the procedure for reelection of a district superintendent shall be by a "yes" or "no" ballot vote. No person shall be elected to the office of district superintendent who has reached the age of 70 years. [206]

203.14. After a district superintendent has served a district for at least 180 days, the District Assembly may reelect him for a period of two, three, or four years, on condition that he has first been reelected for one year, and that such an extended election shall have been recommended by majority vote by ballot of a committee composed of the District Advisory Board, chairman of the District Church School Board, president of the District NWMS, and president of the District NYPS, with the approval of the general superintendent in jurisdiction. The procedure for election to an extended term of office shall be by a two-thirds favorable "yes" or "no" ballot.

In case of additional elections to an extended term of office, the procedure shall be the same as stated herein; but each successive election shall not be for longer than four years. [206]

203.15. In case the general superintendent and the officers of the district, namely, the District Advisory Board, chairman of the District Church School Board, president of the District NWMS, and president of the District NYPS, shall be of the opinion that the services of the district superintendent should not continue beyond the current year of an extended term, the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the district officers may order the question submitted for a vote of the District Assembly. The question shall be submitted in the following form: "Shall the present district superintendent be continued in office beyond this District Assembly?"

If the District Assembly, by a two-thirds vote by ballot, decides to continue the district superintendent in office, he shall continue to serve as though such vote had not been taken.

If, however, the District Assembly fails to decide by such vote to continue the district superintendent in office, his term of office shall terminate with the close of that District Assembly. [206]

203.16. To elect a district secretary, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [216]

203.17. To elect a district treasurer, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [219]

203.18. To elect, by ballot, two elders and two laymen to the District Advisory Board, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.34, 221]

When the district has reached a total of 75 churches, or a total membership of 7,500, there may be three elders and three laymen elected.

203.19. To elect a District Board of Orders and Relations of not less than five nor more than 15 elders, one of whom shall be the district superintendent, to serve for four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. This board shall meet prior to the District Assembly to consider all matters subject to its authority and, insofar as is possible, to complete its work prior to the District Assembly. [204, 226-28]

203.20. To elect a District Board of Ministerial Studies of five or more elders, to serve for four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. [229]

203.21. To elect, at its discretion, a District Board of Church Extension of equal lay and ministerial representation of no fewer than six nor more than 12 members, not including the district superintendent, who shall be a member ex officio, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. The District Advisory Board may serve as the District Board of Church Extension in Home Mission Districts and upon favorable vote of the District Assembly. [204]

203.22. To elect, at its discretion, a District Board of Ministerial Benevolence, of as many members as the District Assembly may choose, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [204, 236]

203.23. To elect, at its discretion, either or both of the following: (1) a District Board of Evangelism of no less than five members including the district superintendent, (2) a district director of evangelism, both to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [204]

203.24. To elect a District Church School Board in harmony with the procedure stated in 238, to serve until their successors are elected and qualified. [204, 212]

203.25. To elect a District Board of Home Missions, of equal lay and ministerial membership, of no fewer than six nor more than 18, not including the district superintendent, who shall be a member ex officio, to serve until the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified; however, the District Assembly may order that the District Advisory Board may constitute the District Board of Home Missions. [233]

203.26. To elect a District Court of Appeals, consisting of five elders, including the district superintendent, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [309.1, 506]

203.27. To elect annually, at its discretion, a district colporteur, upon the recommendation of the Department of Publication of the General Board. [237]

203.28. To elect, by ballot, at a session within 18 months of the meeting of the General Assembly all of the lay delegates and all but one of the ministerial delegates, since one shall be the district superintendent. Every District Assembly shall be entitled to representation at the General Assembly by an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates. The district superintendent at the time of the General Assembly shall be one of the ministerial delegates, and the remaining ministerial delegates shall be elders. In case the district superintendent is unable to attend, or in case there has been a vacancy and the new district superintendent has not been appointed, the properly elected alternate shall be seated in the district superintendent's place. The nominating committee shall submit ballots containing at least three times the number of delegates eligible from that district, in each category, ministerial and lay. From these nominees, the allowed delegates and alternates in equal numbers shall be elected. Delegates elected are expected to attend faithfully all meetings of the General Assembly from opening to closing unless providentially prevented. [30-30.3, 301.1, 303, 329]

203.29. To present to the General Assembly, through the district secretary, a full official journal for the preceding quadrennium, bound in permanent binding. [205.4, 217.7]

203.30. To consider and care for the entire work of the Church of the Nazarene within the bounds of the assembly district.

203.31. To transact any other business pertaining to the work, not otherwise provided for, in harmony with the spirit and order of the Church of the Nazarene. [241.6]

203.32. To grant a retired relation to any minister in good standing requesting it, provided he has reached the age of 65 years.

203.33. To place in the retired relation, at its discretion, any minister in good standing who is disqualified for active ministerial labors because of physical disability or old age. [407.2]

203.34. The District Assembly may authorize, where civil law permits, the District Advisory Board to incorporate. After incorporation as above provided, the District Advisory Board shall have power, on its own resolution, to purchase, own, sell, exchange, mortgage, deed in trust, hypothecate, lease, and convey any property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of the corporation. [203.18, 222.7]

204. As far as possible membership of district boards and committees shall be equal between ministers and laymen unless specifically provided otherwise by the Manual.

D. The District Assembly Journal

205. The journal shall be the record of the regular proceedings of the District Assembly.

205.1. The journal shall be signed by the presiding officer and the district secretary.

205.2. The journal must be either written or typewritten manuscript, or printed, and substantially bound.

205.3. Separate items of business shall be placed in separate paragraphs.

205.4. The journal should be edited carefully with the view to its examination by the General Assembly. [203.29, 217.5, 217.7]

205.5. The full official journal for each quadrennium shall be bound in permanent binding, one copy being preserved in the District Assembly files and one copy in the General Assembly files. [217.7]

205.6. The journal shall be arranged as far as possible according to the table of contents prepared by the General Secretary in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents. The table of contents shall be furnished to the district secretary prior to the convening of the District Assembly.

205.7. The journal should contain not only the assignment of pastors to local churches, but also all regular and special engagements entered into by ministerial and lay members of the District Assembly who are engaged in any line of denominational service that would entitle them to consideration if applying for assistance from the Department of Pensions and Benevolence of the General Board. [119, 222.6, 351.2, 410.6]

E. The District Superintendent

206. The district superintendent, elected by the District Assembly, shall serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. In case of an extended call, the procedure provided in 203.13-3.14 shall determine his tenure of office. [203.13-3.15, 226.1, 227]

207. If for any cause a vacancy shall occur in the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, the general superintendents, jointly and severally, may fill the vacancy. [309]

208. The duties of a district superintendent shall be:

208.1. To organize, recognize, and supervise local churches within the bounds of his assembly district, subject to the approval of the general superintendent having jurisdiction. [100, 310, 404.9]

208.2. To visit the local churches in his assembly district at least once a year, insofar as is possible, and as necessary meet with the church board to consult with reference to spiritual, financial, and pastoral matters, giving such helpful advice and assistance as he may deem proper.

208.3. To have special supervision of all the missions of the Church of the Nazarene within the bounds of his assembly district.

208.4. To appoint someone to fill a vacancy, should one occur in the office of district secretary. [216.1]

208.5. To appoint someone to fill a vacancy, should one occur in the office of district treasurer. [219.1]

208.6. To advise with the church board concerning the nomination of an elder or a licensed minister to pastor a local church and to approve or disapprove such nomination. [119, 132.2]

208.7. To approve or disapprove the renewal of the call of a pastor. [125]

208.8. To approve or disapprove the granting of license to any member of the Church of the Nazarene who may request local preacher's license or renewal of local preacher's license from the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor. [402, 402.2]

208.9. To approve or disapprove in writing for nomination by the pastor to the local church board such paid local assistants as assistant pastors, ministers or directors of Christian education, directors of youth work, or directors of music. [132.26, 181.1-81.5]

208.10. With the District Advisory Board to approve or disapprove requests from local churches to operate full-time weekday Christian day school programs.

209. The district superintendent, with the consent of the church board, may appoint a pastoral supply to fill a vacancy in the office of pastor until the next District Assembly. Such appointed pastoral supply shall be subject to removal by the district superintendent, when his services are not satisfactory to the church board and the local church. [132.4, 402.5]

210. The district superintendent is authorized to perform for a local church within the bounds of his assembly district all the functions of pastor when that local church is without a pastor or pastoral supply. [108]

210.1. The district superintendent may preside at the annual, or a special, meeting of a local church, or appoint someone to represent him. [106.4]

211. If for any reason the general superintendent having jurisdiction fails to be present or to appoint a representative to be present in his stead at the District Assembly, the district superintendent shall call the District Assembly to order, and shall preside until other provision may be made by the District Assembly. [308]

212. The district superintendent may fill vacancies in the District Board of Ministerial Studies [229.1], the District Church School Board [238], and the District Board of Orders and Relations. [226.1]

213. The district superintendent shall be, ex officio, chairman of the District Advisory Board [221], and the District Board of Orders and Relations. [227.1]

213.1. The district superintendent shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Church School Board, of the council of the District Nazarene Young People's Society, and of the council of the District Nazarene World Missionary Society. [238, 242.4, 243.4]

214. The district superintendent shall be chairman of the District Advisory Council. [244]

215. All official acts of the district superintendent shall be subject to review and revision by the District Assembly, and subject to appeal. [507.3]

F. The District Secretary

216. The district secretary, elected by the District Assembly, shall serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [203.16]

216.1. If the district secretary shall cease to serve, for any cause, in the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, the district superintendent shall appoint someone to succeed him. [208.4]

216.2. The district secretary shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Assembly. [201]

217. The duties of the district secretary shall be:

217.1. To record correctly and preserve faithfully all minutes of the District Assembly.

217.2. To record correctly and preserve all statistics of the district.

217.3. To forward all statistical charts to the General Secretary to be audited before their publication in the official journal. [323.6]

217.4. To be custodian of all documents of the District Assembly, and turn them over promptly to his successor.

217.5. To cause to be bound in permanent binding for district files the full official journal for each quadrennium. [205.4]

217.6. To forward sufficient copies of the printed journal of each District Assembly to General Headquarters for distribution among the general officers and general boards of the Church of the Nazarene.

217.7. To present to the General Assembly, for the District Assembly, the full official journal for the preceding quadrennium, bound in permanent binding. [203.29, 205.4]

217.8. To do whatever else may pertain to his office.

217.9. To refer all items of business coming to him during the year to the proper assembly committee or standing board.

218. The district secretary may have as many assistants as the District Assembly shall elect.

G. The District Treasurer

219. The district treasurer, elected by the District Assembly, shall serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [203.17]

219.1. If the district treasurer shall cease to serve, for any cause, in the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, the district superintendent shall appoint someone to succeed him. [208.5]

219.2. The district treasurer shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Assembly. [201]

220. The duties of the district treasurer shall be:

220.1. To receive all such moneys from his district as may be designated by the General Assembly, or by the District Assembly, or as the needs of the Church of the Nazarene may require, and disburse the same according to the direction and policies of the District Assembly and the District Advisory Board.

220.2. To keep a correct record of all moneys received and disbursed and to render an annual report to the District Assembly, to which he shall be amenable.

H. The District Advisory Board

221. The District Advisory Board shall be composed of the district superintendent, ex officio, and two elders and two laymen elected annually by ballot by the District Assembly, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified, provided, however, that when the district has reached a total of 75 churches or a total membership of 7,500, there may be three elders and three laymen elected. [203.18, 213]

221.1. A vacancy on the District Advisory Board may be filled by the remaining members thereof.

221.2. The district superintendent shall be, ex officio, chairman of the District Advisory Board.

221.3. The two or three lay members of the District Advisory Board shall be, ex officio, members of the District Assembly. [201, 221]

222. The duties of the District Advisory Board shall be:

222.1. To set the date for the beginning and closing of the statistical year in harmony with the provisions of 107.1.

222.2. To give information to and consult with the district superintendent respecting the ministers and local churches of the assembly district. [115]

222.3. To inform and advise with the general superintendent regarding the pastoral arrangements for the coming year. [122, 308.1]

222.4. To appoint an investigating committee consisting of three or more elders in case an accusation is filed against an elder or a licensed minister. [502]

222.5. To select a trial court in case charges are made against an elder or licensed minister. [502]

222.6. To recommend to the Department of Pensions and Benevolence of the General Board the disbursement of funds for the temporal relief of aged ministers, and for the widows and orphans of ministers who have died in the work. [205.7, 351.2, 407]

222.7. To incorporate, where civil law permits and when authorized by the District Assembly. After incorporation, as above provided, the District Advisory Board shall have power, on its own resolution, to purchase, own, sell, exchange, mortgage, deed in trust, hypothecate, lease, and convey any property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of the corporation. [203.34]

222.8. In states where the civil law does not permit such incorporation, then the District Assembly may elect the District Advisory Board as district trustee with power, on its own resolution, to purchase, own, sell, exchange, mortgage, deed in trust, hypothecate, lease, and convey any property, real and personal, as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose of carrying on its work in the district. [175.1, 222.7]

222.9. The District Advisory Board, in states where it is possible for local churches to incorporate, shall, with the advice of competent legal counsel, provide pattern incorporation forms adequate for the state or states of its district. This pattern incorporation form shall always include the provision set forth in 149.

222.10. To submit to the Board of General Superintendents any plans proposed for the creation of a district center. Such plans shall require the approval in writing of the Board of General Superintendents before they are put in operation. [319]

223. The District Advisory Board may issue a transfer of membership to an elder, a licensed minister, a minister of Christian education, or a deaconess, who desires to transfer to another District Assembly, before the meeting of the District Assembly in which such person's membership is held. Such transfers may be accepted by the receiving District Advisory Board, granting to said elder, licensed minister, minister of Christian education, or deaconess full rights and privileges of membership on the district on which it is received. The receiving District Assembly shall have final approval of all such Advisory Board transfer receptions. [203.5, 406, 418.1]

224. The District Advisory Board may suspend the license of a licensed deaconess when it is required for the good of the church, after a conference with the church board of the local church of which the licensed deaconess is a member, and after giving her a fair hearing, and with the approval of the district superintendent. [416.4]

225. In case a licensed or ordained minister presenting credentials from another evangelical denomination shall, during the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, make application to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, his credentials shall be examined by the District Advisory Board. Only with the favorable recommendation of the District Advisory Board shall such applicant be received into membership in the local church. [403.1, 405]

I. The District Board of Orders and Relations

226. The District Board of Orders and Relations shall be composed of not less than five nor more than 15 elders, one of whom shall be the district superintendent. The proper proportion may be elected annually by the District Assembly to serve for a period of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.19]

226.1 A vacancy occurring in the Board of Orders and Relations, in the interim of the District Assemblies, may be filled by the district superintendent. [212]

227. Following the election of the Board of Orders and Relations the district superintendent shall call a meeting of the board for organization as follows:

227.1. The district superintendent shall serve as chairman ex officio of the board; however, upon his request the board may elect an acting chairman to serve in such relationship until the close of the next District Assembly. [213]

227.2. The board shall elect from its membership a permanent secretary who shall provide a suitable system of records, at the expense of the District Assembly, which shall be the property of the district. The secretary shall carefully record all actions of the board and faithfully preserve them along with such other records as shall be relevant to the work of the board and promptly transmit them to his successor.

228. The duties of the Board of Orders and Relations shall be:

228.1. To carefully examine and consider all persons who have been properly presented to the District Assembly for election to elder's orders, minister's license, consecrated deaconess' certificate, deaconess' license, commissioned evangelists, registered evangelists, commissioned song evangelists, registered song evangelists, directors of music, commissioned ministers of Christian education, and licensed directors of Christian education, and any other special relations provided by the Manual. The Board of Orders and Relations will report favorably to the District Assembly those candidates who, in their judgment, qualify for election. They shall also carefully consider all transfers to and from the district, except interim transfers issued by the Advisory Board, all orders presented for recognition from other denominations, all candidates for restoration of orders, and report to the assembly their recommendation for those who, in their judgment, qualify.

228.2. To carefully inquire of each candidate and make any other investigation they deem advisable concerning his personal experience of salvation, his personal experience of entire sanctification by the baptism of the Holy Spirit, his knowledge of the doctrines of the Bible, his full acceptance of the doctrines, the general and special rules, and the polity of the church, his evidence of graces, gifts, intellectual, moral, and spiritual qualifications, and general fitness for the ministry to which he feels called.

228.3. To review for approval for reappointment any local preacher who has been appointed as supply pastor if he is to continue his service after the District Assembly following his appointment. [402.5]

228.4. To investigate and review the cause of failure of an elder to report to the District Assembly for two successive years and make recommendation to the District Assembly relative to the continued listing of the name on the published roll of elders.

228.5. To investigate reports concerning any elder indicating that he has placed his church membership with any other church or that he has joined with the ministry of another denomination or group, or is participating in independent activities without duly authorized permission, and make recommendation to the District Assembly relative to his retention on the roll of elders. [105.3, 404.7]

J. The District Board of Ministerial Studies

229. The District Board of Ministerial Studies shall be composed of five or more elders, elected by the District Assembly, to serve for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.20, 402.3]

229.1. Vacancies occurring in the District Board of Ministerial Studies, in the interim of sessions of the District Assembly, may be filled by the district superintendent. [212]

230. As soon as elected, the first member chosen shall call a meeting of all the members of the District Board of Ministerial Studies (hereinafter called the board) for organization and assignment, as follows:

230.1. The board shall elect from among its members a permanent chairman and a permanent secretary, both of whom may be exempt from the direct work of examination, and who shall do faithfully the work as herein provided.

230.2. The chairman shall assign to the other members of the board the studies for which each member shall be responsible for examining candidates. Such assignments shall be for the entire term of the board, unless otherwise mutually arranged.

230.3. The chairman shall attend all meetings of the board, unless providentially prevented, and shall oversee the work of the board each year. In case of necessary absence of the chairman, the secretary shall do his work, pro tempore.

230.4. The secretary shall, at the expense of the District Assembly, provide a suitable record book of ministerial studies, which shall be the property of the District Assembly.

230.5. The secretary shall enter therein the name and address of each candidate for the ministerial and minister of Christian education courses, and the name of the local church recommending him, the date of licensing, the course of study pursued, and the record of examinations. The secretary shall provide and fill out suitable blanks, and present to each candidate a duplicate of his record as preserved in the records of the District Assembly.

231. The District Board of Ministerial Studies may establish classes or seminars in order to assist licensed ministers in the pursuit of the course of study.

232. Progress in the courses of study for licensed ministers and ministers of Christian education may be measured as herein provided: [402.3, 420]

232.1. All examinations shall be held at the meeting place of the District Assembly on the day preceding the opening meeting, unless otherwise provided by the board.

232.2. Any member of any class who fails to appear for examination as directed shall not be advanced in his studies by the District Assembly, unless his absence is satisfactorily explained in writing to the chairman, and he shall have arranged with his examiner for his examination in the studies of his year, and shall pledge to complete his entire work before the final examinations.

232.3. All examinations shall be conducted in writing.

232.4. The examiner shall furnish the candidate with a list of no fewer than 10 questions for each study and book.

232.5. All papers shall be graded as "pass with honors," "pass," or "fail."

232.6. Candidates enrolled in Home Study Programs shall be required to achieve at least a pass grade in each subject or book before being permitted to take examination for advanced work. [420.2]

232.7. When a candidate has completed the examinations, the board shall report to the District Assembly the record of examinations, and make recommendations for advancement in, or for graduation from, the course of study.

232.8. Candidates pursuing the course of study, who may be attending any of the recognized schools of the Church of the Nazarene, and pursuing the same or similar studies as those which are in the course of study, may present a school record in lieu of examination, and, if satisfactory to the board, may be recommended for advancement in those studies without further examination.

K. The District Board of Home Missions

233. The District Board of Home Missions shall be composed of equal lay and ministerial membership, of no fewer than six nor more than 18, not including the district superintendent, who shall be a member ex officio to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified; however, the District Advisory Board may constitute the District Board of Home Missions. [203.25]

233.1. The District Board of Home Missions shall seek by all means — by the diffusion of home missionary information, by the holding of local meetings and district conventions, by the employment of speakers who have the vision and spirit, by careful study of its metropolitan areas, and by any other contributive agency — to stir the people to holy zeal and devotion for, and liberality toward, the sacred cause of Home Missions.

233.2. The District Board of Home Missions, under direction of the District Assembly, and in cooperation with the district superintendent, may have charge of all home mission work conducted by the assembly district within its bounds.

L. The District Board of Church Extension

234. The District Board of Church Extension shall be composed of equal lay and ministerial representation of no fewer than six nor more than 12 members, not including the district superintendent, who shall be a member ex officio, elected by the District Assembly to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.21]

235. The duties of the District Board of Church Extension shall be:

235.1. To advance the cause of building houses of worship and parsonages within the bounds of the assembly district, in cooperation with the Department of Home Missions of the General Board. [349.1-49.3]

235.2. To verify and conserve the titles to church property. [349.2]

235.3. To assist local churches to incorporate. [149, 349.2]

235.4. To consider propositions submitted by local churches relating to the purchase of real estate or the erection of church buildings or parsonages, and to advise them concerning the propositions submitted. [152]

235.5. To approve or disapprove, in conjunction with the district superintendent, propositions submitted by local churches relative to the incurring of indebtedness in the purchase of real estate or the erection of buildings.

235.6. To do whatever else the District Assembly may direct regarding the matter of church property.

M. The District Board of Ministerial Benevolence

236. The District Board of Ministerial Benevolence shall be composed of as many members as the District Assembly may elect, to serve until the final adjournment of the next District Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.22]

236.1. The District Board of Ministerial Benevolence shall have full power to dispense local benevolence according to its judgment, subject to the approval of the District Assembly.

N. The District Colporteur

237. A district colporteur may be elected annually by the District Assembly upon the recommendation of the Department of Publication of the General Board; he shall labor under the jurisdiction of the district superintendent and shall be amenable to the District Assembly. [203.27]

237.1. The district colporteur shall cooperate with the Department of Publication in the systematic distribution of gospel literature. [353.2]

O. The District Church School Board

238. The District Church School Board shall be composed of the district superintendent, ex officio, and six other members, half of whom, as far as possible, shall be laymen, elected as follows: At the first election of the District Church School Board two members shall be elected to serve for a term of three years, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of one year. Thereafter, each year, two persons shall be elected by the District Assembly to serve for the full term of three years and until their successors are elected and qualified. [203.24, 213.1]

238.1. When the district has reached the total of 75 churches, or a total church membership of 7,500, three members may be elected to serve for a term of three years, three for a term of two years, and three for a term of one year. Thereafter, each year, three persons may be elected to serve for the full term of three years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At least four of the nine shall be laymen.

238.2. The District Church School Board shall meet within one week following the District Assembly to organize. They shall elect a chairman, a secretary, and a treasurer and appoint district directors deemed necessary as provided in 238.4.

238.3. Vacancies occurring in the District Church School Board, in the interim of the sessions of the District Assembly, may be filled by the district superintendent. [212]

238.4. There may also be appointed by the District Church School Board a director of Christian education, a director of children's work, a director of youth work, a director of adult work, a director of Christian Service Training, a director of vacation Bible schools, a director of Caravans, a director of Cradle Roll work, a director of Home Department work, a director of Christian family life, a director of visitation, a director of boys' and girls' camps, and other departmental directors as may be needed. These officers may be appointed from among the members of the District Church School Board or otherwise, but they shall be amenable to that board. The chairman shall be the ex officio director of the quadrennial program.

238.5. The District Church School Board shall hold a meeting immediately preceding or at the same time as the District Assembly to complete its work for the year, and to prepare a report to be presented to the District Assembly. Additional meetings may be held whenever necessary.

238.6. The chairman of the District Church School Board shall be, ex officio, a member of the District Assembly. [201]

239. The District Church School Board shall arrange for an annual district church school convention to be held at some time during the year or immediately preceding the meeting of the District Assembly, and to which representatives shall be elected from the local Sunday schools. These representatives must be members of the Church of the Nazarene.

239.1. At this convention the superintendents of all the local schools are expected to be present and take part as opportunity affords. The convention program shall provide for special addresses, papers, discussions, and periods for general consultation relative to the district church school interests. [164]

240. The assembly district may be divided into zones with zone leaders appointed by the District Church School Board, who shall work under the supervision of that board. Zone conventions should be held.

241. The duties of the District Church School Board, in harmony with the program of the Department of Church Schools of the General Board [337.1-37.2], shall be:

241.1. To have full supervision of all church school interests of the assembly district, not otherwise provided for.

241.2. To conduct district, zone, and/or group conventions and Christian Service Training schools.

241.3. To assist the Department of Church Schools of the General Board in securing information relating to district and local church school interests.

241.4. To promote and encourage church school work throughout the assembly district.

241.5. To present an annual report to the District Assembly which shall include (1) a statement of the work accomplished by the District Church School Board during the past year, (2) a statement of the general condition of the church school work on the assembly district, and (3) recommendations for the work for the ensuing year.

241.6. To recommend to the District Assembly the amount considered necessary to be placed in the District Budget to finance the district church school work for the ensuing year, or to make other plans for raising the same. [203.31]

P. The District Nazarene Young People's Society

242. The district Nazarene Young People's Society shall be composed of the local Nazarene Young People's Societies of the assembly district.

242.1. It shall be governed by the constitution of the district Nazarene Young People's Society approved by the General Assembly. [694.2]

242.2. The president of the district Nazarene Young People's Society shall be elected by its annual convention and shall serve without salary. When so elected and approved, he shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Assembly. [201]

242.3. The district convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society, which shall meet annually, shall be composed of the district superintendent, the members of the District Council, district zone presidents, the pastors of local churches, full-time salaried associates of NYPS age, presidents of local societies, local directors of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship, elders of the district within the Nazarene Young People's Society age limits, and two delegates from each local society of 30 or fewer members, including the total membership of the society (ages four through 40), and one additional delegate for each successive 30 members and the final major part of 30 members. One delegate may be appointed by the pastor of each local church not having a fully organized Nazarene Young People's Society. [694.2]

242.4. The District Council shall be composed of the officers of the district Nazarene Young People's Society, the district superintendent, the chairmen of standing committees, and the district zone presidents. All district officers shall be active members of a local society within the bounds of the assembly district. [213.1]

Q. The District Nazarene World Missionary Society

243. The district Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be composed of the local Nazarene World Missionary Societies within the boundaries of the assembly district. The district society shall be auxiliary to the general Nazarene World Missionary Society. [695.2-95.3]

243.1. The district Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be governed by the constitution of the district Nazarene World Missionary Society approved by the Department of World Missions. It shall be subject to the district superintendent, the District Advisory Board, and the District Assembly. [695.2]

243.2. The district convention of the Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be composed of the District Council, the district superintendent, pastors of local churches, NWMS zone chairmen, presidents of local societies; two delegates from each local society having an active membership of 25 or less and one additional delegate for each additional 25 active members (or major fraction thereof); and General Council members, retired missionaries, missionaries on furlough, and missionary appointees, who hold church membership on the district. [695.2]

243.3. The president of the district Nazarene World Missionary Society shall serve without salary and shall be a member, ex officio, of the District Assembly. [201]

243.4. The District Council shall be composed of the officers of the district Nazarene World Missionary Society and the district superintendent. [213.1, 695.2]

R. The District Advisory Council

244. The district boards shall form an advisory council over which the district superintendent shall preside, said council to meet, if possible, once each six months for counsel and advice as to the best methods of forwarding the work of the assembly district. [214]

S. Disorganization of a District

245. When it seems clear to the Board of General Superintendents that a district no longer should continue as such, it may, upon their recommendation, be disorganized by a two-thirds favorable vote of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene and a formal pronouncement thereof. [200]

245.1. In case a district becomes officially disorganized, any church property which shall exist may in no way be diverted to other purposes, but shall pass to the control of the General Board, for the use of the Church of the Nazarene at large, as the General Assembly shall direct; and trustees holding property, or corporations created to hold property, for the disorganized district shall sell or dispose of the same only on the order and under the direction of the appointed agent of the General Board, and turn the funds over to such agent. [175.1, 222.7]

CHAPTER III

A. Functions and Organization

300. The General Assembly is the supreme doctrine-formulating and lawmaking and elective authority of the Church of the Nazarene, subject to the provisions of the church constitution. [30.1-30.9]

300.1. The General Assembly shall be presided over by the general superintendents, jointly and severally. [30.6, 307.2]

300.2. The General Assembly shall elect its other officers and organize itself for the transaction of its business according to its wisdom and pleasure. [30.7]

B. Membership of the General Assembly

301. The General Assembly shall be composed of ministerial and lay delegates in equal numbers from each mission or regular district, the district superintendent serving as one of the ministerial delegates, the remaining ministerial delegates and all the lay delegates elected thereto by the District Assemblies of the Church of the Nazarene, including those defined as "mission district" and "regular district" in missions policy; the general superintendents emeritus and retired; the general superintendents; the General Secretary; the General Treasurer; the editor of the Herald of Holiness; the executive editor of church schools periodicals; the executive secretaries of the several departments of the General Board; the executive secretary of the general Nazarene World Missionary Society; the presidents of the educational institutions under the Department of Education and the Ministry; one delegate for each pioneer and national-mission district; and one delegate for the first 25 or fewer missionaries on each world missions field; and one additional delegate for the next 50 missionaries or final major fraction thereof, nominated by the District Council and elected by the Department of World Missions. In the absence of such nomination, the representative shall be elected by the Department of World Missions. [30.1-30.3, 203.28, 301.4, 306.2, 314, 322.1, 326.1, 382.2, 383.4]

301.1. Assembly districts shall be entitled to representation in the General Assembly as follows: two elders and two laymen from each assembly district of 2,250 or fewer church members, and one additional elder and one additional layman for each successive 2,250 members and the final major part of 2,250 members. [30.1-30.3, 203.28]

301.2. The right of a ministerial delegate-elect to the General Assembly to represent the District Assembly electing him shall be vacated in case he shall accept a pastoral charge or the office of district superintendent on another assembly district, or if he shall leave the active full-time ministry of the Church of the Nazarene, prior to the convening of the General Assembly.

301.3. The right of a lay delegate-elect to the General Assembly to represent the District Assembly electing him shall be vacated in case he shall remove his church membership to some local church on another assembly district prior to the convening of the General Assembly.

301.4. A pioneer or national-mission district shall be entitled to one delegate to the General Assembly provided the district arranges the financing of the trip. The district superintendent shall be the delegate. The district shall elect an alternate. Delegates and alternates must be members of the district when elected and at the time of the General Assembly.

C. The Time and Place of Meeting

302. The General Assembly shall meet in the month of June, every fourth year from the year of our Lord 1928, at such time and place as shall be determined by a General Assembly Commission composed of the general superintendents and an equal number of persons chosen by the Board of General Superintendents. The general superintendents and said commission shall also have power, in case of an emergency, to change the time and place of the meeting of the General Assembly.

302.1. The General Assembly shall open on Sunday with a full day of devotional and inspirational services. Provision shall be made for the orderly and careful transaction of business, and for such services at the close of the session as it may order. The General Assembly shall fix the time at which its session shall adjourn. [30.4]

D. Special Sessions

303. The Board of General Superintendents, or a majority thereof, by and with the written consent of two-thirds of all the district superintendents, shall have power to call a special session of the General Assembly in case of an emergency, the time and place thereof to be determined by the general superintendents and a commission chosen by the Board of General Superintendents.

303.1. In case of a special session of the General Assembly, the delegates and alternates to the last preceding General Assembly, or their duly elected and qualified successors, shall serve as delegates and alternates to the special session.

E. General Assembly Arrangements Committee

304. The General Secretary, the General Treasurer, and three persons appointed by the Board of General Superintendents at least one year before the convening of the General Assembly shall constitute the General Assembly arrangements committee.

304.1. The General Assembly arrangements committee shall have authority to arrange all necessary details regarding offices, exhibits and space, entertainment and meals, and whatever else may be needful to contribute to the comfort, convenience, and efficiency of the General Assembly, and enter into contracts necessary to provide the same.

304.2. The General Assembly arrangements committee with the general superintendents shall formulate a program for the General Assembly, including anniversaries for each of the general interests; a Communion service; and other religious services for the first three days of the General Assembly or until a committee on public worship shall have been appointed; all of which program shall be subject to approval by the General Assembly.

F. Business of the General Assembly

305. The business of the General Assembly, subject to Part Three, Article IV, Section 9, of the Church Constitution, shall be: [30.9]

305.1. To elect, by a two-thirds vote of its members present and voting, as many general superintendents as it may deem necessary, who shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided that the first ballot shall be a "yes" or "no" ballot for the general superintendents then serving and any vacancies remaining after the first ballot shall be filled by ensuing ballots until the elections are completed. No person shall be elected to the office of general superintendent who has not attained the age of 35 years, or has reached the age of 68 years. [30.5, 306, 700.1]

305.2. To elect a general superintendent to the emeritus relation when deemed advisable, provided he shall have become disabled or shall have reached his sixty-eighth birthday, and shall have served as general superintendent for three or more quadrennia. It is thereby understood that his election to emeritus relation is of life tenure. [314.1]

305.3. To place in the retired relation a general superintendent who has attained to the age of 68 years, or who, in the judgment of the General Assembly, has become disqualified by physical disability, or by old age, or by any other disqualification that would prevent him from caring adequately for the work of the general superintendency; and provided that he has served in the office of general superintendent for a reasonable term of years. The General Assembly may grant retired relation when a general superintendent who has attained the age of 65 years requests it.

Should a general superintendent who has attained the age of 65 years request retirement in the interim of General Assemblies, his request may be granted by the General Board in regular session upon recommendation of the Board of General Superintendents. [314.1]

305.4. To fix a suitable retirement pension for each retired general superintendent.

305.5. To elect a general secretary, as provided in 305.13 herein, who shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [305.13, 322, 334, 700.2]

305.6. To elect a general treasurer, as provided in 305.13 herein, who shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [305.13, 326, 334, 700.3]

305.7. To elect a General Board, as provided in 329.1-30.5, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [328, 330, 701.1]

305.8. To elect seven persons to be members of the Nazarene Publishing House Board, a corporation, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [359]

305.9. To elect a General Court of Appeals, consisting of five elders, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [30.8, 570, 701.2]

305.10. To elect a Board of Trustees for the Nazarene Theological Seminary, as provided in 384, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [701.6]

305.11. To elect a Board of Trustees for the Nazarene Bible College as provided in 383, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [701.7]

305.12. To elect an editor of the Herald of Holiness, as provided in 305.13 herein, who shall serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall be an ex officio member of the General Assembly. [301, 334, 356, 700.4]

305.13. To form a Committee on Special Nominations composed as follows: The General Assembly Committee on Nominations shall select as many persons as there are general superintendents, who jointly with the Board of General Superintendents shall constitute the Committee on Special Nominations. The Committee on Special Nominations shall nominate to the General Assembly three persons for each of the following offices: general secretary, general treasurer, and editor of Herald of Holiness. From these nominations the General Assembly shall elect one person to each office, provided, however, that an incumbent in any of these positions may be voted upon by a YES or NO vote, upon the recommendation of the Board of General Superintendents to the General Board and the approval of the General Board. [305.5-5.6, 305.12]

305.14. To do anything else, in harmony with the Holy Scriptures, that wisdom may dictate for the general welfare of the Church of the Nazarene and the holy cause of Christ, subject to the Church Constitution. [30.9]

G. The General Superintendents

306. The general superintendents, elected by the General Assembly, shall serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [305.1]

306.1. A general superintendent shall hold no other general office in the church during his term of office as general superintendent. [311]

306.2. The general superintendents shall be members, ex officio, of the General Assembly. [301]

307. The duties of the general superintendents shall be:

307.1. To have general supervision of the Church of the Nazarene, subject to the law and order as adopted by the General Assembly.

307.2. To preside over the General Assembly and over the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, jointly and severally. [300.1, 333.2]

307.3. To ordain, or appoint others to ordain, in connection with the elders present, those who have been duly elected to be elders. [404.2]

308. A general superintendent shall preside over each District Assembly; or, should he be hindered, shall make suitable arrangements for such presidency. [202, 211]

308.1. The general superintendent, presiding over a District Assembly, the district superintendent, and the District Advisory Board, in concurrence with the delegates of local churches, shall appoint pastors over such local churches as have not regularly called pastors. [122, 222.3]

309. The general superintendents, jointly and severally, may appoint district superintendents over assembly districts where vacancies occur. [207]

309.1. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall appoint an elder to fill a vacancy that may occur in a district court of appeals in the interim of sessions of the District Assembly. [203.26, 506]

309.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction may, prior to the convening of the District Assembly, appoint a nominating committee to serve during the annual session of the District Assembly. [202.1]

310. The general superintendent having jurisdiction may, after consulting with the district superintendent, organize local churches or recognize the local churches already organized, wherever there may seem to be need and providential openings. Official reports shall be filed in the Department of Home Missions. He may appoint pastors to have charge of such local churches until such time as pastors may be duly elected. [100, 208.1, 404.9]

310.1. The general superintendent having jurisdiction may preside at the annual, or a special, meeting of a local church, or appoint someone to represent him. [106.4]

311. The general superintendents shall not be members of any of the general boards of the Church of the Nazarene. [306.1]

312. All official acts of the general superintendents shall be subject to review and revision by the General Assembly.

312.1. Any official act of a general superintendent may be nullified by a unanimous vote of the remaining members of the Board of General Superintendents.

313. The office of any general superintendent may be declared vacant, for cause, by the unanimous vote of the remaining members of the Board of General Superintendents, supported by a majority vote of all the district superintendents.

H. General Superintendents Emeritus and Retired

314. All general superintendents emeritus and retired general superintendents shall be members ex officio of the General Assembly. [301]

314.1. A general superintendent who has been elected to the emeritus relation or placed in the retired relation shall not be a member of the Board of General Superintendents, and shall be relieved of all official responsibility. However, in the event that an active general superintendent should be incapacitated by illness, hospitalization, or other unavoidable emergency necessitating his absence from any assignment, the Board of General Superintendents is empowered to call into temporary assignment any retired general superintendent. [305.2-5.4]

I. The Board of General Superintendents

315. The general superintendents shall organize as a board, and arrange for and assign to the members thereof the particular work over which they shall have special jurisdiction.

316. Vacancy. If a vacancy occur, by death or otherwise, in the Board of General Superintendents, in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly, the General Secretary shall at once notify all district superintendents of the Church of the Nazarene, who shall, by two-thirds vote of all, elect some elder of the Church of the Nazarene to fill the vacancy and to perform the duties of general superintendent until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly. The question of calling for an election to fill the vacancy shall be decided by the Board of General Superintendents. [321]

316.1. The General Secretary shall report the result of the vote to the Board of General Superintendents, which shall announce the same to the Church of the Nazarene through the Herald of Holiness.

317. The duties of the Board of General Superintendents shall be:

317.1. To have supervision of the missionary work of the Church of the Nazarene in all foreign fields. These fields shall be visited as frequently as the Board of General Superintendents shall deem advisable. The responsibility for supervision may be assigned by the Board of General Superintendents to any one of their number for the period of the quadrennium. They shall approve or disapprove all nominations made by the Department of World Missions to the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene for appointment as missionaries. [360.2, 363, 367]

317.2. To recommend, in consultation with the respective executive secretaries of the Departments of World Missions and Home Missions, changes in the assignment of the areas under the administration of these departments subject to the approval of the General Board. [347.1, 362]

317.3. To have supervision of all general boards and the departments of the General Board. The policies and plans adopted by any board or department shall have the approval of the Board of General Superintendents. The Board of General Superintendents shall have the privilege of making to the General Board and to the departments thereof such recommendations as they shall deem advisable. [335.2, 337.1, 339.1, 347.1, 349.1, 351.1, 353.1, 377]

317.4. To make nominations to the General Board for filling any vacancy that may occur in the following offices during the interim of sessions of the General Assembly: general secretary, general treasurer, editor of Herald of Holiness. [322.2, 326.2, 333.18, 356]

317.5. To fill vacancies that may occur in the membership of the General Court of Appeals in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly. [508, 701.2]

317.6. To fill vacancies that may occur in any special commission or committee in the interim of General Assemblies or General Board.

317.7. To approve the appointments and elections made by the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene in filling vacancies that may occur in its membership. [331]

317.8. To fill vacancies, upon nomination made by the remaining members thereof, on the corporate board of the Nazarene Publishing House. [359]

317.9. To appoint one of the general superintendents to serve on the General Council of the Nazarene Young People's Society. [701.4]

317.10. To appoint quadrennially a general superintendent to have jurisdiction of each of the educational institutions. [340]

317.11. To appoint general superintendents to serve as sponsors of the Board of Trustees of Nazarene Theological Seminary, the Board of Trustees of Nazarene Bible College, and all departments of the General Board. [701.6]

317.12. To arrange, in conjunction with the Department of Education and the Ministry, courses of study for local preachers, licensed ministers, licensed deaconesses, song evangelists, ministers of music, and directors of Christian education. [339.10, 420-24]

317.13. The Board of General Superintendents, with the General Board, is authorized and empowered to apportion the General Budget to the several assembly districts. [333.7]

318. The Board of General Superintendents shall be the authority for the interpretation of the law and doctrine of the Church of the Nazarene, and the meaning and force of all provisions of the Manual, subject to an appeal to the General Assembly.

319. The Board of General Superintendents shall consider and pass upon plans for district centers, which plans shall not be carried out until they have been approved in writing by the Board of General Superintendents. [222.10]

320. The Board of General Superintendents shall have discretionary power in the ordaining of divorced persons to the office of elder in the Church of the Nazarene, provided such divorced persons have scriptural grounds for divorce. [401.5, 404.1]

321. The Board of General Superintendents shall have authority to do anything else in the service of the Church of the Nazarene, not otherwise provided for, according to the dictates of its wisdom, in harmony with the general church order, and subject to the Church Constitution.

J. The General Secretary

322. The General Secretary, elected by the General Assembly, as hereinbefore provided [305.13], shall serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [305.13, 700.2]

322.1. The General Secretary shall be a member, ex officio, of the General Assembly. [301]

322.2. If in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly a vacancy should occur in the office of general secretary for any cause, it shall be filled by the General Board, upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents. [317.4, 333.18]

322.3. The General Secretary shall be amenable to the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

323. The duties of the General Secretary shall be:

323.1. To record correctly and preserve the journal of the proceedings of the General Assembly.

323.2. To record correctly and preserve all general statistics of the Church of the Nazarene.

323.3. To preserve all documents belonging to the General Assembly, and promptly deliver the same to his successor.

323.4. To preserve carefully, in permanent form, all decisions rendered by the General Court of Appeals. [510]

323.5. To file and preserve all surrendered credentials of ministers and deliver them only on proper order made by the District Assembly of the assembly district from which they were received. [409.1]

323.7. To do faithfully whatever else may be necessary for the fulfillment of his office. [316-16.1]

324. The General Secretary shall be the custodian of, and hold in trust, such legal documents as belong to the general church.

324.1. The General Secretary is authorized to collect available historic material relating to the rise and development of our denomination, and shall be the custodian of all such records and material.

325. The General Secretary, in conjunction with the general superintendents, shall, prior to the opening of the General Assembly, prepare all necessary forms, including Rules of Order, Manual Abridgment for revision, and other things necessary for expediting the work of the General Assembly. The expense incurred shall be provided for out of the General Assembly expense fund.

325.1. The General Secretary may have as many assistants for his work as the General Assembly shall elect, or, in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly, the Board of General Superintendents may appoint.

K. The General Treasurer

326. The General Treasurer, elected by the General Assembly, as hereinbefore provided [305.13], shall serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until his successor is elected and qualified. [305.6, 700.3]

326.1. The General Treasurer shall be a member, ex officio, of the General Assembly. [301]

326.2. If, in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly, a vacancy should occur in the office of general treasurer, for any cause, it shall be filled by the General Board, upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents. [317.4, 333.18]

326.3. The General Treasurer shall be amenable to the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

327. The duties of the General Treasurer shall be:

327.1. To have the custody of all funds belonging to the general interests of the Church of the Nazarene.

327.2. To receive, and disburse on order, the funds of the Department of World Missions, the Department of Home Missions, the Department of Evangelism, the Department of Publication, the Department of Pensions and Benevolence, the Department of Education and the Ministry, the Department of Church Schools, and the Department of Youth, and such other funds as properly belong to the General Board, or to any of its departments; the general superintendents' fund; the general contingent fund; the General Assembly expense fund; other general benevolent church funds; the funds of the General Nazarene Young People's Society and the funds of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society. [328.3]

327.3. To give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, in a reliable surety company, in a good and sufficient sum, as the General Board may direct.

327.4. To furnish such reports to the boards and departments, for whose funds he may be custodian, as may be required by them.

327.5. To furnish to the General Board an annual report of all finances of the Church of the Nazarene, including investments. [333.12]

327.6. To safeguard annuity funds invested in real estate by proper insurance policies and to provide against the lapsing of such policies.

327.7. To secure monthly reports of receipts and disbursements from all schools, orphanages, rescue homes, and other institutions of the Church of the Nazarene.

L. The General Board

328. The General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, a religious and charitable corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of Missouri at Kansas City, Mo., shall be composed of members who shall be elected by ballot by the General Assembly from among the persons nominated as provided in 329.1-29.5. To be elected a member of the General Board as a representative of a church zone, one must be a resident on that zone as well as a member of a local church on that zone. [305.7, 331]

328.1. No one shall be eligible for election to the General Board or shall remain a member of the General Board who is an employee of the General Board, or an employee of any department or institution controlled by the General Board, or deriving a major part of its operating funds from the General Board or general church funds, or an employee of any of our educational institutions, except as provided in 329.3.

328.2. The General Secretary shall be, ex officio, secretary of the General Board.

328.3. The General Treasurer of the Church of the Nazarene shall be, ex officio, treasurer of the General Board and also of the departments thereof. [327.2]

329. Nominations for the General Board shall be made as herein provided:

329.1. After the delegates to the General Assembly have been elected, each district delegation shall meet to select candidates for nomination to the General Board in the following manner. Each district in the United States and Canada may present names of two elders and two laymen. Each district in the Intercontinental Zone may present the names of one elder and one layman. The names of these candidates shall be sent immediately to the office of the General Secretary to be placed on ballots for presentation to the General Assembly delegates from each zone. [203.27]

329.2. From the list of these candidates, the General Assembly delegates from each zone shall nominate to the General Assembly as follows:

Each zone of 25,000 members or less shall nominate two elders and two laymen and each zone with 25,000 to 75,000 members shall nominate four elders and four laymen; and two additional laymen and two additional elders for zones exceeding 75,000 members, with the following provisions:

- (1) Of the elders nominated, one half shall be pastors or evangelists; the other half shall be district superintendents.
- (2) No district shall have more than two nominees. Whenever more than two candidates from a district receive a higher number of votes than candidates from other districts on the zone, those on another district receiving the next highest number of votes shall be selected as nominees from the zone.

- (3) The Intercontinental Zone shall nominate two elders and two laymen.

329.3. The General Assembly Committee on Ministry and Education shall nominate to the General Assembly four persons from the educational institutions, two elders and two laymen. [328.1]

329.4. The General Council of the Nazarene Young People's Society shall nominate to the General Assembly two members of the General Council. [382.1]

329.5. The General Council of the Nazarene World Missionary Society shall nominate to the General Assembly two members of the General Council. [383.3]

330. Elections to the General Board shall be as herein provided:

330.1. From the nominees presented to the General Assembly by the respective zones, election shall be as follows:

On those zones of 25,000 members or less, the General Assembly shall elect one layman and one elder.

On those zones of more than 25,000 but less than 75,000 members the General Assembly shall elect two laymen and two elders. One elder shall be a pastor or evangelist and the other shall be a district superintendent.

On those zones whose membership is in excess of 75,000 the General Assembly shall elect three laymen and three elders. One elder shall be a pastor or evangelist; another shall be a district superintendent; and the other elder may be in either category.

In each zone the two laymen, the pastor or evangelist, and the district superintendent who receive the highest number of votes in their respective classifications shall be declared elected to the General Board. In the instance of the larger zones where six members are to be elected, the layman and the elder who receive the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

No district shall be entitled to more than two members on the General Board and no zone shall be entitled to more than six members (with the exception of department representatives and ex officio members). [305.7, 701.1]

330.2. From the nominees presented by the Intercontinental Zone, the General Assembly shall elect one elder and one layman. [305.7, 701.1]

330.3. From the nominees presented by the General Assembly Committee on Ministry and Education, the General Assembly shall elect two, one of whom shall be an elder and one a layman.

330.4. From the nominees presented by the General Council of the Nazarene Young People's Society, the General Assembly shall elect one. [382.1, 700.1]

330.5. From the nominees presented by the General Council of the Nazarene World Missionary Society, the General Assembly shall elect one. [383.3, 700.1]

331. The members of the General Board shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [305.7] In the event that a member of the General Board shall move his church membership or residence during the quadrennium from the zone which he represents, his membership shall be terminated immediately. The vacancy so created shall be filled promptly. However, if his move or change occurs after the second annual meeting of the quadrennium, he may complete the term for which he was elected. [328]

331.1. Vacancies occurring in the membership of the General Board, and also the departments thereof, shall be filled upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents, who shall present to the General Secretary, as soon as feasible, the names of two eligible persons from whom the General Board shall elect one by a majority vote by mail.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE GENERAL BOARD

333. The General Board shall promote the financial and material affairs of all the departments of the Church of the Nazarene, subject to such instructions as may be given by the General Assembly. It shall coordinate, correlate, and unify the plans and activities of the several constituent departments so that a unified policy may be established by and in all the activities of the Church of the Nazarene. It shall have the power to direct the auditing of the accounts of all departments and institutions relating to or associated with the Church of the Nazarene, with a view to securing such uniformity of method and completeness of form as shall be most efficient; and it shall be an advisory body in the business and administrative affairs of the several departments of the General Board and of all the organizations and institutions that are a part of, related to, or associated with this denomination. These departments, organizations, and institutions shall give due consideration to the advice and recommendations of the General Board.

333.1. The General Board shall have power to buy, own, hold, manage, mortgage, sell and convey and donate, or otherwise acquire, encumber, and dispose of both real and personal property, sold, devised, bequeathed, donated, or otherwise conveyed to it in trust for any lawful purpose, and to execute such trust; to borrow and to loan money in the execution of its lawful purposes.

333.2. The General Board shall meet before or immediately following the final adjournment of the General Assembly and shall organize by electing officers and committees, and members to departments as required by its articles of incorporation and bylaws, to serve until the next annual meeting of the General Board and until their successors are elected and qualified. The general superintendents, jointly and severally, shall preside over the meetings of the General Board.

333.3. Meetings. The General Board shall meet in annual session, at a time specified by the bylaws of the said board, at Kansas City, Mo.; however the hour, date, and place of the annual meeting may, by resolution unanimously adopted at any regular or special meeting, be changed to suit the best interests of the General Board and its departments. [Art. VII, § 1, Bylaws, General Board]

333.4. Special meetings of the General Board may be called by the chairman, the president, or the secretary.

333.5. Finance Committee. The General Board shall choose a Finance Committee consisting of one member from each department. For this Finance Committee each department shall have the right to nominate one of its own members. The Finance Committee shall have charge of the proper investment of trust funds. The General Board, after first referring to this committee all budget askings submitted by the several departments for the ensuing year, shall receive from the committee a report of its recommendations concerning each request. This committee shall perform any other work assigned to it by the General Board. It shall keep accurate minutes of all its meetings and submit them to the General Board for approval.

333.6. General Budget. The General Budget shall be the grand total of all department budgets and other funds to be raised by the whole denomination for the support, maintenance, and promotion of its general activities.

From the statements of budget requests submitted by the various departments and agencies of the church, and from the statements of the General Treasurer, the General Board shall determine the amount to be allotted from the General Budget to each department and fund. When the General Budget with its proposed allotment to each department shall have been agreed upon, it shall be submitted to the Board of General Superintendents for its consideration, suggestions, or amendments before final adoption by the General Board.

333.7. When the total amount of the General Budget has been fixed for the next fiscal year by the General Board, the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents are authorized and empowered to apportion the General Budget to the several assembly districts on a basis of equity to both the district and general interests affected. [317.13]

333.8. The General Board shall have authority to increase or diminish the amount requested by any department or fund. Items of finance adopted by the General Assembly shall be referred to the General Board, who shall be authorized to adjust proportionately with existing economic conditions the annual allocation of any institution or agency of the church, in keeping with the total financial commitment of the general church.

333.9. The General Board shall approve appropriations from the General Budget for Nazarene Theological Seminary and the Nazarene Bible College as it may deem advisable in line with the availability of funds.

333.10. The General Board shall review and make necessary adjustments in the salaries and related benefits of the general superintendents in the interim of General Assemblies.

333.11. Reports. The General Board shall, at its annual meeting, receive a detailed report of the activities of the departments for the past year, including a financial report. Each department shall also submit a proposed expenditures budget for the ensuing year.

333.12. The General Treasurer shall annually present to the General Board a detailed financial report of receipts and disbursements of all funds of which he has been custodian during the past year, including trust funds and investments, together with a detailed statement of the proposed expenditures for the ensuing year of funds not included in the budgets of departments of the General Board. The General Treasurer shall be responsible to the General Board for the faithful performance of his duties. [327.5]

333.13. The General Board shall elect three persons residing within convenient distance of Kansas City, Mo., to serve as members-at-large on the General Stewardship Commission until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [377]

333.14. The General Board shall elect a Board of Pensions following each General Assembly, who shall serve until the adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. [377]

333.15. The General Board shall properly relate any commission or committee authorized by the General Assembly or General Board to some department or departments, or the Board as a whole, and assign its work, responsibility, and budget.

333.16. Department Executives. The General Board shall elect an executive secretary, by ballot, for each of its several departments; an executive editor of church school periodicals, a manager of the Nazarene Publishing House, nominated respectively by the Department of Church Schools and the Department of Publication, and executive directors for the various commissions according to the following processes, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified, unless removed from office for cause by a two-thirds vote of all the members of the General Board, and with the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents. If there is no incumbent officer, the department or commission shall select as many persons as there are general superintendents, who jointly with the Board of General Superintendents shall constitute a nominating committee to present two or more nominations to the General Board. When there is an incumbent officer, the respective department or commission shall present one or more nominations which shall have the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents. [334, 339.5, 345.5, 347.4, 351.4, 353.5, 361]

333.17. Executives' Salaries. The General Board shall fix the salary of these executive secretaries, the executive editor of church school periodicals, the manager of the Nazarene Publishing House, the executive directors and directors of the commissions of the General Board, and such other officers as may be authorized and elected by the General Board.

333.18. The General Board, during the interim of sessions of the General Assembly, and/or General Board, upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents, shall fill any vacancy which may occur in the offices listed in 305.5-5.6, 305.12, 333.16, and any other executive offices created by the General Assembly, General Board, or their elected departments or commissions.

334. The retirement age for all executives, listed in 305.5-5.6, 305.12, 333.16, and 371.2, and any other executive secretaries and/or executive directors employed by the General Assembly or its elected commissions, the General Board and its departments, shall be at the time of the General Board meeting following their seventieth birthday; and where there are vacancies they shall be filled in accordance with Manual procedures.

M. Departments of the General Board

335. The General Board shall have the following departments, whose members are designated by vote of the General Board, provided only that no department shall have more than one-third of the membership of said board:

1. Department of Church Schools [336]
2. Department of Education and the Ministry [338]
3. Department of Evangelism [344]
4. Department of Home Missions [346]
5. Department of Pensions and Benevolence [350]
6. Department of Publication [352]
7. Department of World Missions [360]
8. Department of Youth [368]

All business transacted by said departments shall be subject to the approval of the General Board as hereinafter provided. [337, 339, 345, 347, 349, 351, 353, 360]

335.1. Each department shall meet before or immediately following the final adjournment of the General Assembly and organize by choosing a department chairman, a vice-chairman, and a recording secretary. The officers shall serve in the usual capacity of their respective offices. Department committees may be provided at the pleasure of each department.

335.2. Each department shall meet as many days prior to the convening of the General Board as may be necessary to transact its business. Each department may hold special meetings when called by the chairman or by the recording secretary.

335.3. Each department shall meet separately for the purpose of considering the business pertaining to that department. It shall formulate its plans and policies, prepare its budget, and submit a comprehensive report of the business transacted for the information and approval of the General Board. Any department shall on request furnish to the General Board any other information required.

335.4. Each department shall file with the secretary of the General Board complete minutes of each meeting of the department.

335.5. Each department may employ such help as it may deem necessary, provided it keeps within its disbursing budget.

335.6. Each department shall prepare a report of all work done during the preceding four years, including funds received from all sources and the amounts and purposes for which disbursed, and a program of activities for the next succeeding quadrennium, and this report when approved shall become a part of the report of the General Board to the General Assembly.

335.7. No department, organization, or institution that is a part of, related to, or associated with the Church of the Nazarene shall issue annuity bonds, life notes, or other similar financial contracts contrary to the advice of the General Board.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CHURCH SCHOOLS

336. The Department of Church Schools shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

337. It shall be the duty of the Department of Church Schools:

337.1. To perform the work of promoting Christian education and the training of church school workers in the local churches of the Church of the Nazarene. It shall have full supervision of the work of the church school in harmony with the doctrines of the Church of the Nazarene and the program of the General Assembly and the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [160, 241, 317.3]

337.2. To promote the organization and work of Sunday schools, vacation Bible schools, Caravans, and weekday Bible schools, and provide courses of study and lesson helps therefor; to promote interest in Bible study and mission study (mission study policies, program, and materials subject to the approval of the Department of World Missions), and provide materials for the same; to arrange for such expressional activities as are in harmony with the spirit and teaching of the Church of the Nazarene; in cooperation with the Christian Service Training Commission to promote the work of Christian Service Training as it relates to the preparation of workers for their tasks in the church schools, provide courses of study, texts, and instructions for the same; to arrange for and conduct, and to assist district church school boards in arranging and conducting, conventions and Christian Service Training institutes and schools; to provide standards of efficiency; to arrange for the publishing of such papers, periodicals, and pamphlets as may be needed for the successful prosecution of these objects, and employ the necessary office and field workers.

337.3. To plan and provide for a general church schools convention to be constituted with representatives elected from the districts by the district church schools conventions in such manner and at such a time as the department shall determine. [239]

337.4. To meet annually as a Curriculum Committee in consultation with the sponsoring general superintendent. This committee shall be responsible for reviewing carefully, modifying as seems desirable, and giving final approval to all curricular materials which are provided for the use of our church schools. Publication plans shall be in harmony with the editorial policy agreed upon by the Department of Church Schools and the Department of Publication. [317.11, 357]

337.5. To prepare an annual detailed report of its activities for the past year, including a financial report, together with a more or less detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; however, no budget shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this department.

337.6. To recommend to the General Board an amount to be placed in the General Budget for the purpose of carrying on the work of this department, the amount to be within the limits of any goal that may be set by the General Assembly for this department. All actual disbursements shall not exceed the amount received for this department.

337.7. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive secretary of the department shall be elected according to 333.16.

337.8. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive editor of church schools periodicals shall be elected according to 333.16.

THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND THE MINISTRY

338. The Department of Education and the Ministry shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

339. It shall be the duty of the Department of Education and the Ministry:

339.1. To promote the cause of education and the work of the ministry, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [317.3]

339.2. To sustain an advisory relationship to all educational institutions now and hereafter related to or associated with the Church of the Nazarene in matters of courses of study, of buildings, location, general business and administrative policy.

339.3. To awaken proper interest in education; to encourage the schools and colleges to attain higher standards and greater efficiency; to determine the number of schools and colleges that may receive financial support from this department; and to declare their classification and standards, and the supporting territory of each.

339.4. To prepare an annual report of (1) its own activities for the past year, including a financial statement, and (2) a general report of the activities and finances of each educational institution, together with (3) a more or less detailed statement of the proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year of the department, and also (4) a more or less detailed statement of the proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year of each school or college, and (5) of the amount proposed to be allotted to each institution, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval. No budget shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly.

339.5. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive secretary of the department shall be elected according to 333.16.

339.6. To create and maintain an educational fund for the expense of the department and the promotion of its work, and also for the purpose of assisting the educational institutions under its supervision. It shall receive such funds as may be contributed to it for educational purposes through gifts and donations, or through the General Budget funds of the church, and shall annually appropriate to each educational institution such an amount as the department may determine for the purpose of assisting such institutions to meet their current operating expenses.

The department shall also have power to administer any and all other funds, gifts, donations, or bequests that may be committed to it for educational purposes; and to solicit and create special funds for scholarships, endowments, or other purposes of the department, and to administer these funds under such rules and regulations as it may adopt.

339.7. To make such recommendations to the management of each educational institution as in its judgment will serve to increase its efficiency.

339.8. To determine, and advise at least quadrennially, the minimum requirements to be maintained for admission, for graduation, for promotion to baccalaureate or other degrees in the educational institutions recognized by the Church of the Nazarene. The requirements thus established shall provide in all cases for the historical, literary, practical, and devotional study of the Bible.

339.9. To have charge of all matters pertaining to general moral education. This department shall provide that a brief course in moral education be given annually in schools under the supervision of the Church of the Nazarene, and that as many local churches as possible be reached with moral instruction.

339.10. To be responsible for setting standards for ministerial education and training by arranging courses of study for local preachers, licensed ministers, licensed deaconesses, song evangelists, ministers of music, and directors of Christian education in conjunction with the Board of General Superintendents. The department shall also develop programs of continuing education for ministers in active service. [317.12, 420-24]

339.11. To provide guidance in matters relating to multiple-staff ministries in local churches, such as the training and availability of personnel. [181-81.5]

339.12. To give special consideration to the ministerial training programs provided in the educational institutions of the Church of the Nazarene. [420.1]

340. The educational institutions now and hereby recognized as under the auspices of this department of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene, and the zones for educational purposes sanctioned by the General Assembly, are:

1. Eastern Nazarene College, Eastern Zone [677]
2. Trevecca Nazarene College, Southeast Zone [678]
3. Mount Vernon Nazarene College, East Central Zone [679]
4. Olivet Nazarene College, Central Zone [680]
5. Mid-America Nazarene College, North Central Zone [681]
6. Bethany Nazarene College, South Central Zone [682]

7. Pasadena College, Southwest Zone [683]
8. Northwest Nazarene College, Northwest Zone [684]
9. Canadian Nazarene College, Canadian Zone [685]
10. British Isles Nazarene College
11. Nazarene Theological Seminary
12. Nazarene Bible College

341. There shall be a General Council of Education composed of one representative from each recognized institution; ordinarily the representative would be the president or someone designated by him. It shall meet annually at the time of the General Board meeting, with at least one of its meetings to be held jointly with the Department of Education and the Ministry at the latter's discretion. Its function shall be to encourage stronger relationship with each other and with the denomination through greater understanding and cooperation.

342. Each educational institution shall prepare an annual detailed report of its activities during the past year, including a financial report duly audited by a public accountant, and a detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures together with a statement of probable income, as its budget for the ensuing year, and shall forward this report to the Department of Education and the Ministry.

342.1. No educational institution shall employ or retain permanently in its employment any faculty member who is not in full accord with the doctrine of, and in the experience of, entire sanctification, and who is not in full agreement and sympathy with the Bible doctrines and usages held by the Church of the Nazarene as set forth in the Church Constitution and the Manual of government of said church.

342.2. No educational institution of the Church of the Nazarene shall hereafter be established or receive support from the funds of the department unless its plans and organization have first been submitted to the Department of Education and the Ministry for approval; and no institution shall continue to receive regular support unless its educational standards, plan of organization, and financial methods are approved by the Department of Education and the Ministry.

343. The Department of Education and the Ministry may recommend to the General Board and to the Board of General Superintendents, and to the trustees of the schools affected thereby, that two or more schools be merged or otherwise disposed of, whenever in its judgment the highest educational interests of the denomination will be conserved by so doing.

THE DEPARTMENT OF EVANGELISM

344. The Department of Evangelism shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

345. It shall be the duty of the Department of Evangelism:

345.1. To promote an aggressive evangelism throughout the Church of the Nazarene and to cooperate in every way with the general superintendents, the district superintendents, the pastors, and the evangelists in the work of evangelism; to inspire members of our local churches to zeal in soul winning through intercessory prayer, personal evangelism, and the distribution of gospel literature.

345.2. To conduct studies, devise plans and programs for the local church as related to concepts of growth and the pastoral ministry.

345.3. To prepare an annual detailed report of its activities for the past year including a financial report, together with a more or less detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this division of work.

345.4. To perform all other duties relative to evangelism as may be assigned by the General Board.

THE DEPARTMENT OF HOME MISSIONS

346. The Department of Home Missions shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto; and shall function clearly in the two distinct divisions of its work, namely, home missions and church extension. [335]

HOME MISSIONS

347. It shall be the duty of the Department of Home Missions in the division of Home Missions:

347.1. To perform the work of Christianity more generally by supporting, maintaining, and promoting all phases of church work and missionary activity conducted by the Church of the Nazarene in the home territory, including work among ethnic groups excepting work that is assigned to the Department of World Missions, and all work, in whatever country carried on, as may be assigned to it by the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents, with all such activities subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [317.1-17.3]

347.2. To encourage the organization of churches and otherwise to extend Christianity and the Church of the Nazarene.

347.3. To prepare an annual detailed report of its activities for the past year including a financial report, together with a more or less detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this division of work.

347.4. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive secretary shall be elected according to 333.16.

348. Districts administratively related to the Department of Home Missions in the Church of the Nazarene shall be developed according to the four-stage plan described in 600. A stated objective of the Department of Home Missions shall be to increase the decision-making involvement by nationals so that regular districts may emerge as quickly as possible. The executive secretary of the Department of Home Missions and the general superintendent in jurisdiction, in consultation with the District Advisory Board, may determine when sufficient support level in finance and government shall have been achieved so that change in district designation may be made. At all levels of development, the district will maintain a relationship to the Department of Home Missions in matters pertaining to financial subsidy for buildings, institutions, and such personnel as may be requested or required.

348.1. The district superintendent of the pioneer district and the national-mission district shall be appointed by the Board of General Superintendents and approved by the Department of Home Missions.

348.2. The district superintendent of the mission district shall be nominated by the Board of General Superintendents and elected by vote of the District Assembly. In case the nomination be rejected by the vote of the District Assembly, the general superintendent presiding shall continue submitting nominations until there is an election.

348.3. An assembly district having home missionary needs it is unable to supply with its own resources may be eligible to consideration for assistance from the Department of Home Missions in its division of home missions.

348.4. All requests for grants of home mission funds shall be accompanied by reasons therefor, and shall be filed in writing with the secretary of the Department of Home Missions. Such requests shall be submitted to the Board of General Superintendents for review. No appropriation shall be made by the Department of Home Missions without the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents.

348.5. The distribution of home missionary funds, whether for work among other nationalities in the homeland or for home missionary activities in recognized assembly districts, shall be made through the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which the work is being conducted, with the exception of work assigned to the Department of World Missions.

CHURCH EXTENSION

349. It shall be the duty of the Department of Home Missions in the division of Church Extension:

349.1. To perform the work of promoting the cause of providing and constructing suitable church buildings for local congregations of the Church of the Nazarene, and of suitable parsonages for the use of its pastors, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [235.1, 317.3]

349.2. To devise means by which funds may be secured, held, and managed for its purpose; to make loans from its loan funds and grants from its gift funds under regulations approved by the General Board; to give careful study to proposed church locations and building sites and to make such recommendations therein as it may deem advisable when requested by district or general leaders to furnish such assistance in devising building plans and to supply such architectural service as its facilities and means may provide; to assist local churches in raising funds for new buildings and for liquidating indebtedness on church property; and to assist local churches to incorporate and establish valid titles to church property. [149, 152, 235.1-35.5]

detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this division of work.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PENSIONS AND BENEVOLENCE

350. The Department of Pensions and Benevolence shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

351. It shall be the duty of the Department of Pensions and Benevolence:

351.1. To perform the work of providing for the temporal support of disabled ministers, aged ministers and their needy dependents, and the widows and orphans of ministers of the Church of the Nazarene, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [317.3]

351.2. To devise means by which funds may be secured, held, and managed for its purposes, to make appropriations from its funds for the aid of needy and disabled ministers and the needy and disabled members of the ministers' families, under regulations approved by the General Board; to carry out such plans for funds, relief, support, and pensions as may be authorized by the General Assembly or by the General Board; to control, manage, and super-wise such old people's homes as may be established or approved by the General Assembly or by the General Board. [205.7, 222.6, 403.10, 404.10, 407.4]

351.3. To prepare an annual detailed report of its activities for the past year including a financial report, together with a more or less detailed statement of the proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this department.

351.4. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive secretary of the department shall be elected according to 333.16.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICATION

352. The Department of Publication shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

353. It shall be the duty of the Department of Publication:

353.1. To perform the work of spreading Christianity, by the publication, sale, and distribution of moral and religious literature, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [317.3]

353.2. To have the general supervision and management of all publications affecting the interests of the Church of the Nazarene, to conduct a systematic distribution of Bibles, books, tracts, and gospel literature; and to provide such literature and other materials as may be deemed necessary for the interests of the denomination, except as otherwise authorized in 354. [237]

353.3. To provide the church with an attractive and varied line of tracts and to promote the work of tract distribution.

Policy regarding types of tracts, format, number of items to be carried, and plans for programs of distribution shall be supervised by a committee including one member from the Nazarene Publishing House (chairman ex officio) and one member each from the staffs of the Departments of Home Missions, Evangelism, World Missions, Church Schools, and Youth, the Christian Service Training Commission, and one representative from the General Stewardship Commission.

Before publication, all tracts shall have the approval of the Book Committee. [354]

Tracts shall be published by the Nazarene Publishing House under its own imprint or under one of its trade imprints. Establishment of tract prices shall rest with the Nazarene Publishing House.

353.4. To prepare an annual detailed report of its activities for the past year including a financial report, together with a more or less detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this department. Upon the basis of such reports and statements the Department of Publication shall determine and reserve that portion of the net profits of the Nazarene Publishing House for the preceding year necessary to meet its financial obligations and finance its business of the current year. The entire balance of the net profits, if any, shall be applied to the benevolent work of the Church of the Nazarene as directed by the General Assembly.

353.5. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which an executive secretary of the department shall be elected according to 333.16.

353.6. To submit to the General Board one or more nominations from which a manager of the Nazarene Publishing House shall be elected according to 333.16.

354. There shall be a Nazarene Book Committee composed of seven members who are available for regular meetings in Kansas City, one of whom shall be a representative of the Nazarene Publishing House, to serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. The members of this committee shall be nominated by the Department of Publication and elected by the General Board.

354.1. In conjunction with the management of the Nazarene Publishing House, the Book Committee shall arrange for books and tracts deemed advisable for publication.

354.2. No book or tract, or taped book or tract, except music, shall be published or produced with the sanction of the Church of the Nazarene or the Nazarene Publishing House or any of its trade names, unless approved in writing by a majority of the members of the Book Committee, and by them recommended for publication or production; and no book, tract, or taped book or tract, other than music, from other sources may be advertised in any of our periodicals unless such advertisement has been authorized by the Book Committee.

354.3. There shall be an advisory committee to the Book Committee composed of a general superintendent and the executive officers of all departments, committees, or commissions which initiate and are responsible for the publication of books or tracts. The Book Committee may also invite to this advisory group other persons who, because of their specialization in biblical, theological, or other fields, may give valuable counsel in planning the permanent literature of the church.

354.4. Where books are being printed for use on any of our mission fields, the following policy shall apply: Translations of books already approved by the Book Committee may be printed without further approval; any new manuscript planned for publication shall be first approved by a field committee of not fewer than three members and submitted to the secretary of the respective department and the manager of the Nazarene Publishing House for their approval and then submitted to the Book Committee for final action.

355. There shall be a permanent Music Committee. It shall be composed of five members who are nominated by the Department of Publication, and elected by the General Board. The committee shall be amenable to the General Board, and shall be related organizationally to the Department of Publication, to which it shall make annual report, and submit its programs for endorsement and budget.

356. The editor of the Herald of Holiness shall perform such duties as generally belong to the editorial office, and in such a manner as the interests of the Church of the Nazarene may require, and in harmony with the editorial policy agreed upon between the editor and the Department of Publication. In matters of denominational polity and doctrine he shall be governed by the recommendations of the Board of General Superintendents. [305.12, 700.4]

He shall be amenable to the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

356.1. If, in the interim of sessions of the General Assembly, a vacancy should occur in the editorship of the Herald of Holiness, it shall be filled by the General Board, upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents. [317.4, 333.18]

357. The executive editor of church school periodicals shall perform such duties as generally belong to that office, in such a manner as the interests of the Church of the Nazarene may require, and in harmony with the editorial policy agreed upon by the Department of Church Schools and the Department of Publication. In matters of denominational polity and doctrine he shall be governed by the recommendations of the Board of General Superintendents. [333.16]

He shall be amenable to the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

358. The manager of the Nazarene Publishing House, elected according to 333.16, shall conduct the business of the Nazarene Publishing House in agreement with the bylaws of the General Board and the policies adopted by the Department of Publication and the Board of General Superintendents.

359. The Nazarene Publishing House, a corporation of Kansas City, Mo., shall be composed of seven members elected by the General Assembly, who shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are elected and qualified. Vacancies therein shall be filled by the Board of General Superintendents from nominations made by the remaining members of the corporation. [305.8, 317.8]

THE DEPARTMENT OF WORLD MISSIONS

360. The Department of World Missions shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto. [335]

It shall be the duty of the Department of World Missions:

360.1. To correlate and sustain the ministries of the Church of the Nazarene in extending the gospel of Christ through initiating, supporting, and promoting mission action and evangelism in areas of the work so assigned.

360.2. To supervise and administer the work of organizing and supporting churches, districts, dispensaries, hospitals, mission schools, and such other compassionate ministries as may be deemed advisable in the context of a total evangelistic ministry, recognizing that those engaged in the compassionate ministries are also a part of the total evangelistic program. The Department of World Missions is to provide necessary building, equipment, and personnel for the same while encouraging maximum local leadership and financing; and to do whatever else may be proper and necessary for the welfare and progress of the world mission of the church, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [317.1-17.3]

detailed statement of its proposed activities and expenditures as its budget for the ensuing year, and submit the same to the General Board at its annual meeting for approval; no budget, however, shall be in excess of the goal set by the General Assembly for this department.

360.4. To approve or disapprove nominations for membership on the General Council of the Nazarene World Missionary Society. [383, 695.3]

361. The executive secretary of the Department of World Missions, elected according to 333.16 shall give his undivided attention to such duties as properly belong to his office, and in such manner as the interests of the Church of the Nazarene may require in agreement with the bylaws of the General Board and the policies adopted by the Department of World Missions and the General Board. [366]

362. World mission territory shall consist of those countries considered advisable by the General Board for world missionary work. [317.2]

362.1. District boundaries within a world mission territory shall be determined by the Board of General Superintendents upon recommendation of the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the executive secretary of the Department of World Missions upon prior consultation with the mission council executive committee and District Assembly or Assemblies. [317.12]

363. Missionaries to world mission territory, both lay and ministerial, shall be appointed and commissioned by the General Board from nominations made by the Department of World Missions, provided all such nominations shall have first been duly approved in writing by the Board of General Superintendents. [317.1]

363.1. All lay missionaries appointed and commissioned by the General Board shall, by virtue thereof, be members of the District Assembly of their choice. [201]

364. The General Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be an auxiliary of the Department of World Missions and subject to its direction. [383]

365. A Missionary Study Committee shall be provided whose duty it shall be to authorize, supervise, and correlate all missionary study programs and material for the Church of the Nazarene, including study courses, missionary themes, topics and lines of study, to be used in whole or in part by any department or auxiliary. In case any phase of this study literature is not found adaptable to any department, that department may provide such additional study material as shall be approved by the committee.

365.1. Membership of the committee shall be composed of one member of each of the following departments of the General Board: World Missions, Home Missions, Church Schools, Publication, and Youth. The Executive Committee of the General Council of the Nazarene World Missionary Society shall also name one member and these names shall be submitted to the General Board by the Department of World Missions. The executive secretary of the Department of World Missions and the executive director of the Latin Publications Division shall be members ex officio of the committee.

365.2. There shall also be a Junior Missionary Reading Committee composed of the Junior Fellowship director of the NYPS, the executive secretary of the NWMS, the book editor of the Nazarene Publishing House, an age-group representative from, and named by, the Department of Church Schools, a representative from the Department of World Missions, and a representative from the Latin Publications Division, the last two to be named by the Department of World Missions. This committee shall be amenable to the Missionary Study Committee.

366. A publication known as the Statement of Policy of the Department of World Missions shall regulate various aspects and programs of the Department of World Missions.

366.1. The Statement of Policy of the Department of World Missions shall be adopted by the General Board and shall be subject to amendment from time to time by the General Board.

366.2. National local churches and missionary districts may be organized in harmony with the Statement of Policy of the Department of World Missions Relating to the Operation of the National Church and shall be subject to the provisions and requirements of said policy.

366.3. Both national churches and licensed and ordained national ministers shall be subject to the provisions and requirements of the Statement of Policy of the Department of World Missions relating to the operation of the national church until the pioneer field or national-mission district shall have been organized into a regular assembly district.

367. A national-mission district operating under provisions of the Statement of Policy of the Department of World Missions may become a regular assembly district at such time as sufficient supportive level in finance and government shall have been achieved. The executive secretary of the Department of World Missions and the general superintendent in jurisdiction, in consultation with the mission council or executive committee and the District Advisory Board, may determine such a status in agreement with the church constitution and the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene, within legal provisions of the country involved, and with the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. Such a district will maintain a relationship to the Department of World Missions in matters pertaining to financial subsidy for buildings, institutions, and such personnel as may be requested or required. An assembly district so constituted and local churches of this district shall thereafter in all respects be subject to and governed by the provisions of the church constitution and the Manual.

THE DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH

368. The Department of Youth shall be composed of those members of the General Board assigned thereto.

369. It shall be the duty of the Department of Youth:

369.1. To promote the cause of an active ministry to and by youth throughout the Church of the Nazarene, and to have general supervision in the development, evaluation, and revision of youth programs and materials offered to the church for local, district, and general use, including the Nazarene Young People's Society—subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents.

369.2. To sustain an active relationship to the youth organization through the General NYPS Council, especially through the executive secretary of the Department of Youth, who will be an ex officio member of the General NYPS Council.

369.3. To provide means by which appropriate services will be offered to those in the armed forces.

The commission shall:

372.1. Operate as an interdepartmental service organization for all agencies of the general church which develop training courses for use in the local church.

372.2. Be responsible (1) for approval and publication of all courses in the area of leadership education; (2) for such other elective courses as may be assigned to it by any of the established departments or agencies of the church; (3) for initiating such training courses as are needed by the local church or other groups which are not clearly within the jurisdiction of other agencies of the general church.

372.3. Be responsible for promoting the work of Christian Service Training throughout the church and for its entire membership; for providing courses of study, texts, and teacher guides for the same, and for issuing certificates of progress; for arranging for local classes, correspondence work, and area and district schools for Christian Service Training.

372.4. The operating budget shall be prepared annually by the executive director, approved by the commission, and recommended to the General Board for adoption.

COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

373. The Communications Commission shall be composed of the General Secretary, the executive secretaries of the Departments of World Missions, Home Missions, Evangelism, Publication, and one additional member nominated by each of these departments and elected by the General Board. [370-71.3]

The duties of the commission shall be:

373.1. To be concerned with propagating the gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world by means of mass communication media, including radio and television, audiovisuals, and the public press, and publicizing the Church of the Nazarene and its ministries through the several departments.

373.2. The executive director shall report annually to the General Board for all divisions of the commission work.

373.3. To nominate one or more persons as director of each of the areas of special services assigned to the commission, in harmony with 333.16; and each of these directors shall be elected by the General Board, and shall be amenable to the commission and its executive director.

373.4. To approve and recommend to the General Board the annual budget prepared by the executive director.

373.5. To assign its responsibilities into as many divisions as necessary, such as radio and television, Nazarene Information Service, audiovisual, and such other areas of communications service as may be assigned to it by the General Board.

373.6. To hear the annual reports of the directors of Nazarene Information Service and Nazarene Audiovisual Committee and suchlike divisions of the commission, and to approve and recommend to the General Board the annual budgets prepared by these directors, in coordination with the executive director of the commission.

The Nazarene Audiovisual Committee

374. There shall be a Nazarene Audiovisual Committee composed of the executive secretary of each of the General Board departments; the manager of the Nazarene Publishing House; the executive directors of the General Board commissions; the executive director of the Latin Publications Division; the General Secretary and the General Treasurer.

The duties of the committee shall be:

374.1. To convene at the call of the executive director of the Communications Commission within 30 days after the close of the General Assembly. To elect the chairman and the secretary of the committee to serve until the close of the quadrennium or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

374.2. To provide audiovisual materials to help serve the instructional and communication needs and programs of the several departments and agencies of the church.

374.3. To review and approve all projected audiovisuals, including those produced by the departments and agencies of the church, before they are used in any department program, or released to the churches.

375. The Nazarene Audiovisual Committee director shall supervise the work of the committee, report annually to the Communications Commission, prepare the annual operating budget for approval by the Communications Commission and recommendation to the General Board.

Nazarene Information Service

376. The Nazarene Information Service shall cultivate good communications relations between the Church of the Nazarene and the various services of the public press and religious press, including the wire service and the key religious writers and people in the newspapers' news media. It shall be the further duty of the Nazarene Information Service:

376.1. To disseminate general Nazarene news stories, especially year-end information, to Nazarene periodicals, including district and local papers, and also the secular media, by direct mailings to newspapers and to radio and television media.

376.2. To prepare and distribute advance publicity for all district assemblies, district church school conventions, and other department conventions, including pastors' conferences and meetings.

376.3. To release news of special denominational programs and Nazarene interest to district superintendents, General Board members, and the Herald of Holiness;

376.4. To give due consideration to the effect throughout the church, or in relation to the public, of stories and releases, and to submit copy to the executive of any affected department or office before the release.

In view of the obvious overlapping between news service and the public-relations work, the director of Nazarene Information Service shall consult with the General Secretary on all news items involving, to any major degree, the public relations of the church.

376.5. To report annually to the Communications Commission, and prepare an annual operating budget for approval of the Communications Commission and recommendation to the General Board.

GENERAL STEWARDSHIP COMMISSION

377. There shall be a General Stewardship Commission composed of the executive secretaries of each of the departments of the General Board, the executive secretary of the General

Nazarene World Missionary Society, the manager of the Nazarene Publishing House, the editor of the Herald of Holiness, the executive editor of church school periodicals, the executive directors of General Board commissions and Latin Publications Division, the executive consultant of Life Income Gifts and Bequests, the director of Nazarene Information Service, the General Secretary, the General Treasurer, and the three members-at-large residing within convenient distance of Kansas City, Mo., elected by the General Board. [32-32.4, 143, 370-71.3]

The duties of the General Stewardship Commission shall be:

377.1. To promote the whole cause of Christian stewardship in the Church of the Nazarene, subject to the approval of the General Board and the Board of General Superintendents. [37, 143, 317.2]

377.2. To promote and raise the General Budget.

377.3. To have charge of financial publicity.

377.4. To secure endowments, annuities, and other funds.

377.5. To promote financial campaigns and provide inspirational speakers.

377.6. To arrange stewardship campaigns for the purpose of presenting to the entire membership of the Church of the Nazarene the claims of Christian stewardship.

377.7. To prepare promotional and stewardship literature.

377.8. To collect and disseminate information designed to promote interest in the work of the kingdom of God.

377.9. To cooperate with the several departments of the General Board in promoting their work.

377.10. To do any other work that the General Board may direct.

377.11. To keep accurate minutes of all its meetings and submit a comprehensive report of its work to the annual meeting of the General Board.

O. General Committees and Agencies

See Paragraph 354.

BOUNDARIES COMMITTEE

378. Following the General Assembly, the Board of General Superintendents shall appoint a Committee on Boundaries, composed of seven members, to serve for the ensuing quadrennium. It shall be the duty of this committee:

378.1. To work in cooperation with any district committees or commissions on division or boundary adjustments prior to vote of the District Assemblies involved. The written approval of the Board of General Superintendents shall be required before such votes are taken by the District Assemblies.

378.2. To study the needs of any divisions or boundary adjustments which may be brought to its attention, and upon the approval of the Board of General Superintendents, make recommendations to the district involved for consideration. When such recommendation involves more than one district, each District Assembly shall have opportunity to consider and act on the recommendation. If any or all the District Assemblies involved fail to act, or if the actions of the several District Assemblies are in disagreement, the recommendation shall be submitted to the next General Assembly for action.

CHRISTIAN ACTION COMMITTEE

379. There shall be a Christian Action Committee composed of a secretary and three members residing in Kansas City, Mo., or within convenient distance thereof, one of whom shall be the general secretary, who shall give report of this work to the General Board.

The members of the committee shall be appointed by the Board of General Superintendents at the beginning of the quadrennium, and shall serve until the final adjournment of the next General Assembly and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

The duties of the Christian Action Committee shall be:

379.1. To provide for our people constructive information on such matters as alcohol, tobacco, narcotics, and gambling.

379.2. To emphasize the sanctity of marriage and the sacredness of the Christian home and to point out the problems and evils of divorce.

379.3. To lend encouragement to our people who are serving in places of leadership in temperance organizations and in similar organizations working for civic righteousness.

379.4. To alert our people regarding Sabbath observance, oath-bound secret orders, the theater, including the movies, worldliness of other types, and such related subjects as may need emphasis.

LIFE INCOME GIFTS AND BEQUESTS, DIVISION OF

380. There shall be a Division of Life Income Gifts and Bequests which shall promote, independently and through the General Stewardship Commission, and receive various types of deferred and special gifts such as (1) charitable remainder unitrusts, (2) charitable remainder annuity trusts, (3) pooled income fund trust gifts, (4) charitable gift annuities, (5) bequests, (6) life insurance gifts, (7) gifts of personal residences and farms with retained life estate, (8) gifts of all types of real property, (9) short-term charitable income trusts, and (10) any other special gifts, all in compliance with state and federal regulations pertaining to such special gifts and bequests. [32.4]

380.1. Deferred gifts and bequests received by this division shall be administered by the Finance Committee and Investment Committee of the General Board, in conformity with the financial policy of the General Board.

380.2. An executive consultant to manage the office of the division and give consultation to the people in matters of deferred life income gifts and bequests shall be nominated by the Board of General Superintendents and elected by the General Board. As many associate consultants as may be necessary to serve the Nazarene constituency may be elected by the General Board upon nomination by the Board of General Superintendents.

380.3. The executive consultant shall be amenable to the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

380.4. The executive consultant shall report annually to the General Board through its Finance Committee.

MISSIONARY STUDY COMMITTEE

See Paragraph 365.

MUSIC COMMITTEE

See Paragraph 355.

NAZARENE SERVICEMEN'S COMMITTEE

381. There shall be a Nazarene Servicemen's Committee whose membership shall be the same as the Department of Youth. Its director shall be the executive secretary of the Department of Youth.

The duties of the committee shall be:

381.1. To maintain contact with and service to ministers seeking to serve as chaplains in the military organizations by making information on chaplain requirement and appointment available, by processing applications for ecclesiastical endorsement, and by literature and information dissemination.

381.2. To foster and strengthen ties between the church and people serving in the armed forces by literature and information distribution from all levels of the church, by a program of "post pastors" near military bases, and by such other measures as the committee may devise.

381.3. The budget for this committee shall be prepared annually by the director and approved by the committee, and recommended to the General Board for adoption.

P. The General Nazarene Young People's Society

382. The General Nazarene Young People's Society shall be composed of all district and local Nazarene Young People's Societies.

It shall be governed by the constitution of the General Nazarene Young People's Society approved by the General Assembly. [See Constitution, 694.]

382.1. The General Nazarene Young People's Society shall be represented on the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene by one member elected thereto by the General Assembly from nominations made by the General Council of the General Nazarene Young People's Society. [329.4]

382.2. There shall be a General Quadrennial Convention, which shall meet at a time fixed by the General Council in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents. The General Quadrennial Convention shall be composed of such members as are designated in 694.3.

Q. The General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society

383. The General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be composed of the general president, executive secretary, and of that number of members prescribed by the constitution of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society and elected in accordance therewith. [360.4, 695.3]

383.1. The General Council shall be governed by the constitution of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society. This organization shall be auxiliary to the Department of World Missions. [364, 695.3]

383.2. The General Council shall elect by a two-thirds vote by ballot an executive secretary, who shall be an ex officio member of the council and of the General Assembly. [301]

383.3. The General Nazarene World Missionary Society shall be represented on the General Board by one member elected thereto by the General Assembly from nominations made by the General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society. [330.5]

383.4. There shall be a quadrennial convention held under the direction of the General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society at the same time as, or immediately preceding, the regular meeting of the General Assembly. This convention shall elect the General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society in harmony with the constitution. The convention shall elect a general president, who shall be a member ex officio of the General Council of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society. [301, 360.4, 695.3]

R. The Executive Board in Canada

384. The Executive Board in Canada, incorporated in 1946 under the title "The Executive Board of the Church of the Nazarene, Dominion of Canada," shall be recognized as the lawful authority of the Church of the Nazarene in Canada in all matters relative to the acquiring, holding, selling, and conveying of property within the Dominion, as outlined in the Articles of Incorporation.

The Executive Board shall be composed of the duly elected district superintendents of the assembly districts of the Church of the Nazarene in Canada. Minutes of the annual meetings of the Executive Board shall be read and approved by the General Board.

S. British Isles Executive Council

385. There may be set up in Britain a permanent organization to be known as the British Isles Executive Council; such council to be composed of the district superintendents and the Advisory Boards of the Church of the Nazarene in the British Isles.

Subject to the approval of the Board of General Superintendents, this council is authorized to transact business relative to the Church of the Nazarene for which no other provision is made in the Manual.

T. Board of Trustees—Nazarene Bible College

386. The board of trustees of Nazarene Bible College shall consist of the president of the college and two members from each of the eight zones within the continental United States. Of these members, there shall be one district superintendent elected from each zone, and eight other members composed of four laymen and four pastors.

Members of the board shall be elected by ballot by the General Assembly for a term of four years, or until their successors are elected and qualified. The nominating committee of each General Assembly shall nominate twice the number of persons to be elected by the General Assembly.

No officer, teacher, or employee of any Nazarene educational institution shall be eligible for election to the board of trustees of the Nazarene Bible College.

Any vacancy occurring in the board shall be filled by the Board of General Superintendents.

U. Board of Trustees – Nazarene Theological Seminary

387. The board of trustees of the Nazarene Theological Seminary shall be composed of the president of the seminary, who shall be ex officio, one district superintendent from each of the nine zones, and six members-at-large, three of whom shall be pastors and three of whom shall be laymen. Members of the board of trustees shall be elected by ballot by the General Assembly for a term of four years or until their successors are elected and qualified. The nominating committee of the General Assembly shall nominate twice the number of persons to be elected by the General Assembly. No officer, teacher, or employee of any Nazarene educational institution shall be eligible for election to the board of trustees of the Nazarene Theological Seminary.

V. The Fiscal Year

388. The fiscal year for all general interests of the Church of the Nazarene shall end at a time specified in the bylaws of the General Board.

CHAPTER I

THE MINISTER AND THE MINISTRY

A. Qualifications and Call of the Minister

400. While we recognize and insist that all believers have committed unto them a dispensation of the gospel which they are to minister unto all men, we also recognize and hold that the Head of the Church calls some to the more official and public work of the ministry.

As our Lord called unto Him whom He would, and chose and ordained His 12 apostles "that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach," so He still calls and sends forth messengers of the gospel. The church, illuminated by the Holy Spirit, will recognize the Lord's call.

When the church discovers this divine call, the proper steps should be taken for its recognition and endorsement, and all suitable help should be given to open the way for the candidate to enter the ministry.

401. The perpetuity and the efficiency of the Church of the Nazarene depend largely upon the spiritual qualifications, the character, and the manner of life of its ministers.

401.1. The minister of Christ is to be in all things a pattern to the flock — in punctuality, discretion, diligence, earnestness. "By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, by the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left" (II Corinthians 6:6-7).

401.2. The minister of the gospel in the Church of the Nazarene must know that he has peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and that he is sanctified wholly by the baptism with the Holy Spirit. He must have a deep sense of the fact that souls for whom Christ died are perishing, and that he is called of God to proclaim to them the glad tidings of salvation.

401.3. The minister must likewise have a deep sense of the necessity of believers going on unto perfection and developing the Christian graces in practical living, that their "love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment." He must have a strong appreciation of both salvation and Christian ethics.

401.4. The minister must have gifts, as well as grace, for the work. He will have a thirst for knowledge, especially of the Word of God; sound judgment and good understanding; clear views concerning the plan of redemption and salvation as revealed in the Scriptures. Saints will be edified and sinners converted through his ministry. He must be an example in prayer.

401.5. Persons who obtain divorce under the civil law where the scriptural ground for di-voice, namely, adultery, does not exist and who subsequently remarry are ineligible for the office of the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene. [320, 403, 404.1, 405]

B. The Local Preacher

402. Any member of the Church of the Nazarene who feels called of God to preach and to conduct special meetings in the interest of salvation may be licensed as a local preacher for one year by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the pastor's recommendation; or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, if the granting of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. The candidate must first be examined as to his personal experience of salvation, his knowledge of the doctrines of the Bible, and the order of the church; he must also demonstrate that his call is evidenced by grace, gifts, and usefulness. A local preacher shall make a report to the local church at its annual church meeting. [106.7, 132.9, 208.8]

402.1. The church board shall issue to each local preacher a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board.

402.2. The license of a local preacher may be renewed by the church board of a local church having an elder as pastor, upon the recommendation of the pastor, or by the church board of a local church not having an elder as pastor, provided that this renewal of license is recommended by the pastor and approved by the district superintendent. [132.9, 208.8]

402.3. Local preachers shall pursue the course of study for ministers and take examinations therein under the direction of the District Board of Ministerial Studies. [229, 232, 420]

402.4. A local preacher, having served in that relation for at least one full year, and having passed the complete first-year course of study for ministers, may be recommended by the church board to the District Assembly for minister's license; but, if not received, he shall sustain his former relation. [132.11, 205, 403, 420]

402.5. A local preacher who has been appointed as supply pastor must be approved by the Board of Orders and Relations if he continues his service after the District Assembly following his appointment. [209, 228.3]

C. The Licensed Minister

403. When there are members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry, they may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly and enrolled as members of the District Assembly, provided they (1) have held local preacher's license for one full year; (2) have passed the complete first-year course of study for ministers; (3) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members, to which recommendation shall be attached the Application for Minister's License carefully filled out; (4) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (5) have been carefully examined, under the direction of the District Assembly of the district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; (6) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination; and (7) have had any disqualification, which may have been imposed by a District Assembly, removed by an explanation in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed; and provided further that their marriage relationship does not render them ineligible [401.5] for the office of the ministry. [132.11, 205, 402.4]

403.1. Licensed ministers from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, may be licensed as ministers by the District Assembly, provided they present the credentials issued to them by the denomination in which they formerly held their membership; and further provided that they (1) have passed a course of study equivalent at least to the course of study prescribed by the Church of the Nazarene for local preachers; (2) have been recommended by the church board of the local Church of the Nazarene of which they are members; (3) have given evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (4) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly regarding their spiritual, intellectual, and other fitness for such work; and (5) have promised to pursue immediately the course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination. [203.5, 401.5]

403.2. A minister's license shall terminate with the close of the next District Assembly. It may be renewed by vote of the District Assembly, provided (1) that the candidate for renewal shall file with the District Assembly the Application for Minister's License carefully filled out; and provided (2) that the candidate shall have completed at least two subjects in the year's course of study required, not including subjects in the reading course; and provided (3) that he has been recommended for the renewal of license by the church board of the local church of which he is a member. In case, however, he shall not have passed the course of study required, his license may be renewed by the District Assembly only upon his submitting a written explanation for this failure. Such explanation shall be satisfactory to the Committee on Orders and Relations and approved by the general superintendent presiding. [132.12, 205, 232.1-32.8]

403.3. In the case of licensed ministers who are serving as pastors, the recommendation for the renewal of minister's license shall be made by the District Advisory Board rather than by the local church board. [118]

403.4. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each licensed minister a minister's license signed by himself and the district secretary. [698.4]

403.5. Such licensed ministers shall be vested with authority to preach the Word; and, provided they pass annually the required studies of the course of study and are acting as pastors, they shall also be vested with authority to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper in their own congregations, and to officiate at marriages where the laws of the state do not prohibit. [33.1, 109, 109.3, 689, 690]

403.6. All licensed ministers shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district wherein their church membership is held, and shall report to this body annually. [117, 201, 204]

403.7. In case a licensed minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [101, 105.2]

403.8. In case a licensed minister shall, without the written approval of the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which he holds his ministerial membership or the written approval of the Board of General Superintendents, regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group, he shall be subject to trial under the law dealing with the discipline of a minister. [404.7, 502]

403.9. The licensed minister shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [115]

403.10. Any claim to participation by a licensed minister and/or his dependents in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the minister in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [404.10]

D. The Ordained Minister

404. We recognize but one order of official ministry — that of elder. This is a permanent order in the Church. The elder is to rule well in the Church, to preach the Word, to administer the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's Supper, and to solemnize matrimony, all in the name of and in subjection to Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church. [33.1, 108, 109, 109.3, 404.9]

404.1. One who is called of God to this ministry, and who has fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the same, who has successfully completed the full course of study prescribed for licensed ministers and candidates for ordination, who has been recommended for renewal of district license by the church board of the local church in which he holds his membership or by the District Advisory Board [403.2], and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be elected to elder's orders by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided he has been in the active ministry not less than two consecutive years either as a regularly established pastor or as a registered evangelist, and has spent the major portion of that time actively in the field; provided further that any disqualification which may have been imposed by a District Assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed; and provided further that his marriage relationship does not render him ineligible [401.5] for ordination. No person shall be ordained after passing the fiftieth birthday. [132.12, 203.5, 320, 421]

404.2. The candidate thus elected shall be ordained by the laying on of the hands of the elders, and other religious exercises, under the direction of the presiding general superintendent. [307.3]

404.3. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the person so ordained a certificate of ordination signed by himself and the district secretary. [405.1, 698.1]

404.4. All elders shall hold church membership in some local church. [118]

404.5. All elders shall hold their ministerial membership in the District Assembly of the district wherein their church membership is held, to which body they shall report annually. Any elder who for two consecutive years does not report to his District Assembly either in person or by letter shall, if the District Assembly so elect, cease to be a member thereof. [29, 117, 201, 203.1, 407.3]

404.6. In case an ordained minister has united with the church membership or ministry of another denomination, his church membership and ministerial membership in the Church of the Nazarene shall, because of that fact, immediately cease, and the District Assembly shall cause to be entered into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the membership and ministry of the Church of the Nazarene by uniting with another denomination." [101, 105.2]

404.7. In case an ordained minister shall, without the annual written approval of the District Advisory Board of the assembly district in which he holds his ministerial membership or the annual written approval of the Board of General Superintendents, regularly conduct independent church activities which are not under the direction of the Church of the Nazarene, or be connected with the operating staff of an independent church or other religious group, or be carrying on independent missions or church activities, he may, on recommendation by a two-thirds vote of the entire membership of the Board of Orders and Relations and by action of the District Assembly, be dropped from the roll of the District Assembly and from the membership of the Church of the Nazarene. Because of this fact the District Assembly shall enter into its minute record the following statement: "Removed from the roll of elders of the District Assembly and from the membership of the Church of the Nazarene because of unauthorized independent activities."

The final determination as to whether any specific activity constitutes "an independent mission" or "unauthorized church activity" shall rest with the Board of General Superintendents. [105.3, 228.5]

404.8. The elder shall always show due regard for the united advice of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board. [115]

404.9. An elder may organize a local church when authorized to do so by the district superintendent or the general superintendent having jurisdiction. Official reports are to be filed in the Department of Home Missions. [100, 208.1, 310, 404]

404.10. Any claim to participation by an elder and/or his dependents in any plan or fund that the church may have now or hereafter for the assistance or support of its disabled or aged ministers shall be based only upon regular, full-time, active service rendered by the elder in the pastoral or evangelistic office or other recognized relation, under the sanction of the District Assembly. This rule shall exclude from such participation all those in part-time and occasional service. [351.2, 403.10]

E. The Recognition of Elder's Orders

405. Elders from other evangelical denominations, desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene and presenting their ordination papers, may have their orders recognized by the District Assembly, after satisfactory examination as to personal experience and doctrine, provided that: (1) they be required to take an examination on the Manual and on the history of the Church of the Nazarene; (2) they shall file with the District Assembly the Questionnaire for Ordained Ministers Desiring to Join the Church of the Nazarene, carefully filled out; and (3) their marriage relationship shall be in accordance with that required for ordination in the Church of the Nazarene. [34, 34.1, 203.5, 225, 401.5, 420]

405.1. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the elder so recognized a certificate of recognition signed by himself and the district secretary. [404.3, 698.2]

405.2. When the orders of an elder from another church shall have been duly recognized, his credentials issued by said church shall be returned to him inscribed in writing or stamped across the face as follows:

Accredited by the _____ District Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene this _____ day of _____, 19_____, as the basis of the new credentials.

_____ General Superintendent
_____ District Secretary

405.3. The elder so recognized shall have his name enrolled as a ministerial member of the District Assembly. [201, 203.1]

F. The Transfer of Ministers

406. When an elder or a licensed minister desires to transfer to another district, transfer of ministerial membership may be issued by vote of the District Assembly, or by the District Advisory Board in the interim of assemblies, in which his ministerial membership is held. Such transfer of an elder or licensed minister may be received by the District Advisory Board in the interim before the District Assembly meets, granting to said elder or licensed minister full rights and privileges of membership on the district on which it is received, subject to final approval of the Board of Orders and Relations and the District Assembly. [203.6, 203.7, 223, 698.13]

406.1. The transfer of a licensed minister shall be valid only when accompanied by a detailed record of his grades in the course of study for licensed ministers, properly certified by the secretary of the District Board of Ministerial Studies of the issuing District Assembly. The minister being transferred shall actively pursue the matter of the reporting of his grades in the course of study to the receiving district. [698.13]

406.2. All transfers shall be sent direct to the District Assembly to which addressed. The receiving District Assembly shall notify the issuing District Assembly of the reception of the transferred person's membership. Until the transfer is received by vote of the District Assembly to which addressed, the person thus transferred shall be a member of the issuing District Assembly. Such transfer is valid only until the close of the next session following date of issue of the District Assembly to which addressed. [203.6, 698.13]

G. The Retired Minister

407. A retired minister is one who has been placed in the retired relation by the District Assembly in which he holds his ministerial membership. [203.32-3.33, 222.6]

407.1. Any minister who is in good standing and has reached the age of 65 years may request a retired relation, and, at his request, shall be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly. [203.31]

407.2. Any minister who is in good standing, but who is disqualified by physical disability or old age from engaging in such active ministerial labors as will afford him sufficient income for support, may, upon recommendation of the Committee on Orders and Relations, be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly. [203.33]

407.3. Retirement shall not compel cessation from ministerial labors nor deprive of membership in the District Assembly. [201, 404.5]

407.4. As a condition to receiving, or continuing to receive, financial assistance from the Department of Pensions and Benevolence, it shall be required that the minister applying for such assistance be placed in the retired relation by his District Assembly, after having passed his sixty-fifth birthday. [351.1-51.2]

H. The Restoration of Church Membership of Ministers

408. Any minister who is expelled or withdraws under charges may reunite with the Church of the Nazarene only with the consent of the District Assembly of the assembly district from which he withdrew or was expelled.

I. The Restoration of District Assembly Membership of Elders

409. If for any reason the name of an elder shall be removed from a District Assembly roll, such elder shall not be recognized in any other District Assembly without having secured the written consent of the District Assembly from whose roll his name was removed.

409.1. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials for any reason, such credentials shall be sent to the General Secretary to be filed and preserved subject to the order of his District Assembly.
[323.5]

409.2. When an elder in good standing surrenders his credentials for any reason, such surrendered credentials may, at any subsequent time, be restored to the elder upon order of the District Assembly to which they were surrendered, provided that the restoration of his credentials shall have been recommended by the local church of which he is a member and by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

409.3. When an elder has been deprived of his credentials by expulsion or other disciplinary action, or has surrendered his credentials, except as provided in 409.2, his District Assembly may restore such credentials at any future time, provided that (1) the elder shall have given satisfactory evidence of amendment of life and conduct; and that (2) the church board of the local church of which he is a member shall recommend the restoration of his credentials and the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board shall endorse that recommendation. In case of a question of adultery or other sex immorality, however, his credentials shall not be restored in less than two years from the date of their surrender, and then only with the additional written approval of the Board of General Superintendents.

409.4. Pastors and local church boards are advised not to engage a person who has lost his credentials as an elder or licensed minister by the action of a board of discipline in any official capacity such as a supply minister, song director, Sunday school teacher, or other, until his credentials are restored, except on written approval of both the district superintendent where such credentials were lost and the general superintendent in jurisdiction of that district.

409.5. In case the credentials of an elder have been misplaced, mutilated, or destroyed, a duplicate certificate may be issued upon the recommendation of the District Advisory Board. Such recommendation shall be made directly to the general superintendent in jurisdiction and upon his approval shall be issued by the office of the General Secretary. If the general superintendent signing the original certificate is not available, the general superintendent having jurisdiction shall sign the certificate, with notation on the back for the reason for issuing the new certificate. On the reverse side thereof shall be the following statement inscribed in writing or printing or both writing and printing, and signed by the general superintendent having jurisdiction and the district secretary:

This certificate is given to take the place of former certificate of ordination given to [name], on the _____ day of [month], A.D. 19_____, by the [ordaining organization], at which date _____ he was ordained and his _____ former ordination certificate was signed by _____ and _____.

The former certificate was [misplaced — mutilated — destroyed].

_____ General Superintendent
 _____ District Secretary

409.6. When an elder ceases from the active ministry and takes full-time secular employment, after a period of two years his credentials shall, if the Board of Orders and Relations so requests, be filed with the General Secretary. His name shall then be recorded in the district minutes as one who has filed his credentials with the General Secretary.

When, and if, such elder wishes to reenter the active ministry, he shall be able to do so by complying with the provision in 409.2, which relates to an elder in good standing.

This action should be considered non-prejudicial to his character and standing as an elder.

CHAPTER II

THE EVANGELIST

410. While we recognize but one order of the official ministry, that of elder, we also recognize and hold that God calls some to be evangelists in the specialized work of holiness evangelism. "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers" (Ephesians 4:11).

410.1. An elder who is called of God to the specialized ministry of an evangelist, who writes his district superintendent requesting an evangelist's commission, and who has been recommended by the District Advisory Board and has been carefully considered and favorably reported upon by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be granted an evangelist's commission by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided that it is his intention to devote the major portion of his time to the field of evangelism in the Church of the Nazarene. Such commission shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

410.2. A licensed minister who has completed at least one year of the course of study for licensed ministers may, upon written request to his district superintendent, be registered to do the work of an evangelist by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided that it is his intention to devote the major portion of his time to the field of evangelism in the Church of the Nazarene. Such registration shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

410.3. An elder or a licensed minister who devotes a portion of his time to evangelism may, upon written request, be registered to do the work of an evangelist by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly. Such registration shall expire at the close of the next District Assembly.

410.4. An elder or a licensed minister who desires to enter the field of evangelism prior to or following his District Assembly may secure proper recognition by being registered with the Department of Evangelism upon the recommendation of his district superintendent pending action of the next District Assembly.

410.5. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each commissioned evangelist an evangelist's commission and each registered evangelist an appropriate certificate signed by himself and the district secretary. [698.6]

410.6. The commissioned and/or registered evangelist shall report annually to the District Assembly of which he is a member, and shall attend the District Assembly in person, unless he can give a satisfactory reason for his absence. Should he fail to report, his commission or registration to evangelize shall not be renewed. [203.1]

CHAPTER III

THE MINISTER OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

411. While we recognize but one order of the official ministry, that of elder, we also recognize that the Lord has always called to full-time service those who may not be called to a preaching ministry. The New Testament Church recognized the response of laymen to such a divine call. As local churches grow, such individuals become increasingly important, especially in the field of Christian education.

To encourage such persons to respond to the divine call, the church officially recognizes and endorses it, giving all suitable help to open the way for the candidate to enter this ministry. Such a person may prepare for and be commissioned a minister of Christian education. [203.12, 421]

411.1. The church expects of such persons the same spiritual qualifications, character, and manner of life as is expected of the elder as stated in 401.1-1.5.

411.2. One who is called of God to full-time service as minister of Christian education, and who has fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the same, who has successfully completed the full course of study prescribed for ministers of Christian education, who has been granted a district license as director of Christian education, and, since the granting of the district license, has served for two years in full-time capacity as director of Christian education in a local church, and has been carefully considered and favorably reported by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, may be elected as commissioned minister of Christian education by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly; provided that any disqualification which may have been imposed by a District Assembly has been removed in writing by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board of the district where the disqualification was imposed and provided further that his marriage relationship does not render him ineligible [401.5].

411.3. No person shall be eligible to be elected as commissioned minister of Christian education after passing his fiftieth birthday.

411.4. A candidate thus elected shall be commissioned by the presiding general superintendent, upon the candidate's public avowal of his willingness to surrender the certificate of commission if he ever finds himself out of harmony with the official doctrine and practices of the Church of the Nazarene, or upon the request of the Board of Orders and Relations for cause.

411.5. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the person so commissioned a "Certificate of Commission as a Minister of Christian Education," signed by himself and the district secretary. [698.11]

411.6. No person shall be elected both as elder and as a commissioned minister of Christian education.

411.7. Each commissioned minister of Christian education shall report annually to the District Assembly of which he is a member. Those serving in full-time relationship shall be members of the assembly.

411.8. For the exercise of his office, the minister of Christian education shall be amenable to the local pastor under whom he serves, and/or the district superintendent and the District Assembly.

CHAPTER IV

THE SONG EVANGELIST

412. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the special ministry of song evangelism, and whose intention it is to devote the major portion of their time to this ministry, and who have fulfilled all the requirements of the church for the registered song evangelist, may, upon their request in writing to their district superintendent, be recommended by the District Advisory Board, and if carefully and favorably considered by the Board of Orders and Relations of the District Assembly, be granted a song evangelist's commission, by a two-thirds vote of the District Assembly. Such commission shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly.

412.1. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry of song evangelism, and who devote a portion of their time to song evangelism, may become registered song evangelists by two-thirds vote of the District Assembly, provided they: (1) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members; (2) give evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (3) have had not less than one year of vocal study under an accredited teacher and are pursuing the course of study prescribed for the song evangelists or have completed the same; (4) have been carefully examined, under the direction of the District Assembly of the assembly district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their intellectual and spiritual qualifications and general fitness for such work; (5) have stated a willingness to surrender the certificate of commission or registration if they find themselves out of harmony with the doctrine and practices of the Church of the Nazarene, or for cause, upon the request of the Board of Orders and Relations. Such registration shall continue only until the close of the next District Assembly. [422]

412.2. Those who desire to enter this field of song evangelism prior to or following their District Assembly may secure proper recognition by being registered with the Department of Evangelism upon the recommendation of their district superintendent pending action of the next District Assembly.

412.3. Each song evangelist, commissioned and registered, shall report annually to the District Assembly from which he receives recognition. Should he fail to report, his commission, or registration, shall not be renewed.

412.4. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each song evangelist a commission, or a certificate of registration, signed by himself and the district secretary. [696.8-96.9]

CHAPTER V

THE MINISTER OF MUSIC

414. Members of the Church of the Nazarene who feel called to the ministry of music may be commissioned as ministers of music for one year by the District Assembly, provided they (1) have been recommended for such work by the church board of the local church of which they are members; (2) give evidence of grace, gifts, and usefulness; (3) have had at least one year of experience in music ministry; (4) have had not less than one year of vocal study under an accredited teacher and are pursuing the course of study or its equivalent prescribed for ministers of music or have completed the same; (5) are regularly engaged as ministers of music; (6) have been carefully examined under the direction of the District Assembly of the assembly district within the bounds of which they hold their church membership, regarding their intellectual and spiritual qualifications and general fitness for such work. [203.11, 423]

414.1. All ministers of music shall report annually to the District Assembly from which they receive their commissions. [203.1]

414.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each minister of music a commission signed by himself and the district secretary. [698.10]

CHAPTER VI

THE DEACONESS

A. The Local Deaconess

415. A woman who is a member of the Church of the Nazarene and believes that she is divinely led to engage in ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, and doing other works of Christian benevolence, and who gives evidence in her life of ability, grace, and usefulness, may be licensed as a local deaconess for one year by the church board of the local church upon recommendation of the pastor after proper examination by the church board as to her qualifications for that work. She shall be a member of the local church where she is engaged. She shall make a report to the local church at the annual church meeting. [106.7, 132.10, 140.3]

415.1. The church board shall issue to each local deaconess a license signed by the pastor and the secretary of the church board.

415.2. The local deaconess shall work under the direction of the pastor at all times, and should be accorded respect and careful pastoral guidance in this holy calling for her very work's sake.

415.3. The license of the local deaconess may be renewed annually by the church board upon the recommendation of the pastor. The license may be suspended or revoked by the church board upon recommendation of the pastor, after giving her a fair hearing. [132.10, 136]

415.4. After serving for one year, the local deaconess may be recommended by her own local church board to the District Assembly for district deaconess' license upon recommendation of the pastor. [132.13, 203.3, 416]

B. The Licensed Deaconess

416. A local deaconess in good standing in the Church of the Nazarene who feels divinely led to advance the cause of Christ by ministering to the sick and the needy, comforting the sorrowing, praying with the dying and pointing them to the Saviour, seeking the lost and wandering and endeavoring by all means to lead them to Jesus Christ and salvation, may be licensed as deaconess for one year by the District Assembly.

416.1. Qualifications for being licensed as a deaconess by the District Assembly are that the candidate (1) shall be at least 21 years of age, (2) shall have served as local deaconess in a satisfactory manner for at least one year, (3) shall have been recommended for such license by the church board of the local church of which she is a member, (4) shall have given evidence of ability, grace, and usefulness, (5) shall have passed a satisfactory examination before the District Board of Ministerial Studies in Bible doctrine, in government of the Church of the Nazarene, and in domestic qualifications, and (6) shall declare her purpose to pursue immediately and faithfully the course of study prescribed for licensed deaconesses. [132.14, 203.3, 415.4, 424]

416.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to each licensed deaconess a license signed by himself and the district secretary. [217, 698.5]

416.3. The credentials of a licensed deaconess may be renewed annually by the District Assembly, provided renewal of license has been recommended by the church board of the local church of which she is a member. If the license be not renewed, she shall no longer serve as deaconess. [132.14, 203.3]

416.4. In the interim of sessions of the District Assembly the license of a licensed deaconess may, when it is required for the good of the church, be suspended until the next District Assembly by the District Advisory Board with the approval of the district superintendent, after a conference with the church board of the local church of which the deaconess is a member, and after giving her a fair hearing. [224]

416.5. All licensed deaconesses who have passed at least one-half of the prescribed course of study for licensed deaconesses [424] shall be members of the District Assembly, provided they are in active service. [201, 203.1]

C. The Consecrated Deaconess

417. When a licensed deaconess shall have served in that capacity for two years, shall have successfully passed the prescribed course of study, and shall have been recommended by the church board of the local church of which she is a member, she may be elected to the office of consecrated deaconess by the District Assembly. [132.23]

417.1. The candidate so elected shall be consecrated by the District Assembly with appropriate religious services, under the direction of the presiding general superintendent.

417.2. The general superintendent having jurisdiction shall issue to the deaconess so consecrated a certificate of consecration signed by himself and the district secretary. [698.3]

417.3. All consecrated deaconesses shall be members of the District Assembly, provided they are in active service. [201, 203.1]

417.4. After being elected and consecrated to the office of consecrated deaconess, the candidate may wear the prescribed deaconess garb. The deaconess garb shall consist of an all-black suit with white collar and cuffs or an all white suit, with regulation bonnet adopted by the General Assembly of 1907.

D. The Transfers of Deaconesses

418. When a licensed or consecrated deaconess desires to transfer to another District Assembly, a transfer of membership may be issued by vote of the District Assembly in which her membership is held, which transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [203.6-3.7, 698.3]

418.1. When a licensed or a consecrated deaconess desires to transfer to another District Assembly before the meeting of the District Assembly in which her membership is held, a transfer of membership may be issued by the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board, which transfer may be received by the District Assembly to which it is addressed. [203.6-3.7, 223, 698.13]

418.2. The transfer of a licensed deaconess shall be valid only when accompanied by a detailed record of her grades in the course of study for licensed deaconesses, properly certified by the secretary of the District Board of Ministerial Studies of the issuing District Assembly.

418.3. All transfers shall be sent direct to the District Assembly to which addressed. The receiving District Assembly shall notify the issuing District Assembly of the reception of the transferred deaconess' membership. Until the transfer is received by a vote of the District Assembly to which addressed, the deaconess thus transferred shall be a member of the issuing District Assembly. A transfer is valid only until the close of the next session following date of issue of the District Assembly to which addressed. [203.6, 698.13]

E. Restoration of Membership of Consecrated Deaconesses

419. If for any reason the name of a consecrated deaconess shall be removed from a District Assembly roll, such consecrated deaconess shall not be recognized by any other District Assembly without having secured the written consent of the District Assembly from whose roll her name was removed.

Courses of Study

MINISTERS

SONG EVANGELISTS

DEACONESSES

FOR MINISTERS

420. The Course of Study for ministers is primarily theological and biblical in character, leading toward ordination in the ministry of the Church of the Nazarene. Students are enrolled, advanced, and graduated from the Course of Study by the District Board of Ministerial Studies.

420.1. College-Seminary Program. When a candidate elects to pursue his preparation for the ministry in one of the colleges or the seminary of the church, he shall be graduated from the course of study when he presents transcripts of record showing minimum credit in the following subject areas:

Biblical Literature	12 Semester Units
Theology (including one semester of Doctrine of Holiness)	12 Semester Units
Homiletics, Practics, and Religious Education (including some credit in each of these fields)	12 Semester Units
Church History (including History and Polity of the Church of the Nazarene)	8 Semester Units
English and Speech	15 Semester Units
Philosophy and Psychology	9 Semester Units
History and Social Science	9 Semester Units
Science	3-5 Semester Units

In the event a candidate shall do a portion of the work of the home study course and later transfer to college or seminary, the college or seminary shall evaluate the home study work in terms of units toward requirements (but not for college or seminary credit). In the event a candidate shall do a portion of the indicated work in the college or seminary, and complete work by home study, the college or seminary shall be requested to evaluate the college subjects in terms of the home study work for the benefit of the District Board of Ministerial Studies.

420.2. Home Study Program. A four-year Home Study Program is offered. When completed, it also fulfills the academic requirements for ordination in the ministry. The "First Year" program is required of local preachers and must be completed before a district license is granted. A book of Questions on the Course of Study is available for the convenience of candidates and district boards. [232-32.8]

CHURCH DISCIPLINE

DISCIPLINE OF A LAYMAN

DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

RULES OF PROCEDURE

GENERAL COURT OF APPEALS

GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

I. CHURCH DISCIPLINE

500. The object of church discipline is not the punishment of offenders, but vindication of the truth, purification of the church, warning of the careless, and reformation and salvation of the guilty. Members of the church who do violence to the General or Special Rules, or who willfully and continuously violate their membership vows, should be dealt with kindly yet faithfully, according to the grievousness of their offenses.

Holiness of heart and life being the New Testament standard, the Church of the Nazarene insists upon a clean ministry, and requires that those who bear its credentials as ministers be orthodox in doctrine and holy in life. Thus the purpose of the discipline of a minister is not punitive or retributive, but is to determine the ministerial standing and church relations of a minister accused of misconduct.

II. DISCIPLINE OF A LAYMAN

501. If a request is made for investigation of a lay member accused of unchristian conduct, the pastor shall appoint an investigating committee of three members of the local church, who shall make a written report concerning the result of their investigation. [109.15] This report must be signed by a majority and filed with the church board. The accusation upon which an investigation is made must be signed by at least two reputable members of the local church.

After the investigation and pursuant thereto, any two members in good standing in the local church may sign charges against the accused and file same with the church board. Thereupon the church board shall appoint a local board of discipline of five members who are unprejudiced and able to hear and dispose of the case in a fair and impartial manner, and these shall conduct a hearing as soon as practicable and determine the issues involved. [132.25] After hearing the testimony of witnesses and considering the evidence, they shall either absolve the accused or administer discipline as the facts shall establish to be proper. Such decision must be unanimous. Discipline may take the form of reprimand, suspension, or expulsion from membership in the local church. Repentance, apology, or restitution may be required.

501.1. An appeal from the decision of a local board of discipline may be taken to the District Court of Appeals within 30 days by either the accused or the church board.

III. DISCIPLINE OF A MINISTER

502. If an elder or licensed minister be accused of conduct unbecoming to a minister, or of teaching doctrines out of harmony with the doctrinal statement of the Church of the Nazarene, or of serious laxity in the enforcement of the General or Special Rules of the church, such accusation shall be placed in writing and shall be signed by at least two members of the Church of the Nazarene who are at the time in good standing; this written accusation must be filed with the District Advisory Board of the district where the accused has ministerial membership. This accusation shall become a part of the record in the case and the accused and his counsel shall have the right to examine the accusation and to receive a copy of the same immediately upon request therefor. The District Advisory Board shall give the accused notice thereof by placing such notice in the mail addressed to the accused, using certified or registered mail, or by personal delivery, within 10 days after the accusation is filed with the District Advisory Board.

502.1. When a written accusation is filed, the District Advisory Board shall appoint a committee of three or more elders to investigate the facts and circumstances involved and report their finding in writing and signed by a majority of the committee. If, after considering the committee's report, it shall appear that there are probably grounds for charges, such charges shall be drawn up and signed by any two elders. The District Advisory Board shall give the accused notice thereof by placing such notice in the mail addressed to the accused, using certified or registered mail, or by personal delivery, within three days after they are filed with the District Advisory Board. The accused and his counsel shall have the right to examine the charges and specifications and to receive a copy thereof immediately upon request. No accused shall be required to answer charges of which he has not been informed as specified herein. [222.4]

502.2. In case charges are filed the District Advisory Board shall appoint five elders of the district to hear the case and determine the issues; these five elders so named shall constitute a district board of discipline to conduct the hearing and dispose of the case according to the laws of the church. No district superintendent shall serve as prosecutor or as assistant to the prosecutor in the trial of an elder or licensed minister. This board of discipline shall have power to vindicate and absolve the accused in connection with said charges or to administer discipline commensurate with the offense. Such discipline may provide for repentance, confession, restitution, suspension, cancellation of credentials, expulsion from the ministry or membership of the church, or both, public or private reprimand, or such other discipline as may be appropriate including suspension or deferment of discipline during a period of probation not to exceed one year. [222.5]

502.3. When a minister is accused of immorality, or of action involving moral turpitude, disciplinary action may be taken and discipline administered by any district where such immoral acts occurred. But when disciplinary proceedings are taken on a district other than the one where the accused holds ministerial membership, only such immoral acts as may have occurred within the bounds of that district may be proved in evidence and form the basis for discipline in that proceeding.

502.4. It is provided that in no case shall disciplinary action be taken against a missionary by a national mission district as such.

502.5. The decision of a board of discipline shall be unanimous, shall be written and signed by all members, and shall include a finding of "guilty" or "not guilty" as to each and every charge and specification.

502.6. Any hearing by a board of discipline herein provided for shall always be conducted within the bounds of the district where the charges were filed at a place designated by the board which is to hear the charges.

502.7. The procedure at any hearing shall be according to Rules of Procedure hereinafter provided for. [222.4-22.5, 403.8, 404.7, 505]

503. Following a decision by a board of discipline the accused, the District Advisory Board, or those who signed the charges shall be entitled to appeal the decision to the General Court of Appeals. The appeal shall be begun within 30 days after such decision, and the court shall review the entire record of the case and all steps which have been taken therein. If the court discovers any substantial error prejudicial to the right of any person, it shall correct such error by ordering a new hearing to be conducted in a manner capable of giving relief to that person affected adversely by previous proceedings or decision.

504. When the decision of a board of discipline is adverse to the accused minister and the decision provides for suspension from the ministry or cancellation of credentials the minister shall thereupon immediately suspend all ministerial activity; and, if he refuses to do so, his right of appeal shall be for that reason forfeited.

504.1. When the decision of a board of discipline provides for suspension or cancellation of credentials and the accused minister desires to appeal he shall file with the secretary of the General Court of Appeals, at the time the notice of appeal is filed, his written credentials as a minister, and his right of appeal shall be conditioned upon his compliance with this provision. When such credentials are so filed, they shall be safely kept by the said secretary until the conclusion of the case, and thereupon the same shall either be canceled or returned to the minister as the court may direct.

IV. RULES OF PROCEDURE

505. The General Court of Appeals shall adopt uniform Rules of Procedure governing all proceedings before boards of discipline and courts of appeal. After such rules are adopted and published, they shall be the final authority in all judicial proceedings. Printed Rules of Procedure shall be supplied by the General Secretary. Changes or amendments to such rules may be adopted by the General Court of Appeals at any time, and when these are adopted and published they shall be effective and authoritative in all cases. Any steps which are thereafter taken in any proceeding shall be in accordance with such change or amendment. [502]

V. DISTRICT COURT OF APPEALS

506. Each regularly organized district shall have a District Court of Appeals composed of five elders elected annually by the District Assembly. This court shall hear appeals of church members concerning any action of a local church or church board when they are aggrieved or adversely affected by such action. Notice of appeal must be given in writing within 30 days after such action or after appellant has knowledge thereof. Such notice shall be delivered to the District Court of Appeals or a member thereof and a copy of such notice shall be delivered to the pastor of the local church and to the secretary of the church board concerned. [203.26, 309.1]

506.1. The District Court of Appeals shall have jurisdiction to hear and decide all appeals of laymen or churches from the action of a board of discipline appointed to discipline a layman.

VI. GENERAL COURT OF APPEALS

507. The General Assembly shall elect five elders to serve as members of the General Court of Appeals during each ensuing quadrennium, or until their successors are elected and qualified. [701.2] This court shall have jurisdiction as follows:

507.1. To hear and determine all appeals from the action or decision of any District Board of Discipline.

507.2. To hear and determine appeals concerning the action of any District Assembly affecting the interests of a minister amenable to that assembly.

507.3. To hear and determine appeals from the action of any district superintendent in matters affecting the interests of a minister. When such appeals are so determined by said court, such determination shall be authoritative and final. [215, 305.9]

508. Vacancies which may exist in the General Court of Appeals during the interim between sessions of the General Assembly shall be filled by appointment of the Board of General Superintendents. [317.5]

509. Per diem and expense allowances for members of the General Court of Appeals shall be the same as that of members of the General Board of the church, when the members of the court are engaged in official business of the court, and payment therefor shall be made by the General Treasurer.

510. The General Secretary shall be custodian of all permanent records and decisions of the General Court of Appeals. [323.4]

VII. GUARANTY OF RIGHTS

511. The right to a fair and impartial hearing of charges pending against an accused minister or layman shall not be denied or unduly postponed. Written charges shall be given an early hearing in order that the innocent may be absolved and the guilty brought to discipline. Every accused is entitled to the presumption that he is innocent until proven guilty. As to each charge and specification, the prosecution shall have the burden of proving guilt to a moral certainty and beyond a reasonable doubt.

511.1. The cost of preparing the record of a case, including a verbatim transcript of all testimony given at the trial, for the purpose of an appeal to the General Court of Appeals, shall be borne by the district where the hearing was held and disciplinary action taken. Every minister or layman who appeals shall have the right to present oral as well as written argument upon his appeal, but this right may be waived in writing by the accused.

511.2. A minister or layman who is accused of misconduct or any violation of the church Manual and against whom charges are pending shall have the right to meet his or her accusers face-to-face and to cross-examine the witnesses for the prosecution.

511.3. The testimony of any witness before a board of discipline shall not be received or considered in evidence unless such testimony be given under oath or solemn affirmation.

511.4. A minister or layman who is brought before a board of discipline to answer charges shall always have the right to be represented by counsel of his or her own choosing, provided such counsel be a member in good standing in the Church of the Nazarene. Any full member of a regularly organized church against whom no written charges are pending will be considered in good standing.

511.5. A minister or layman shall not be required to answer charges for any act which occurred more than five years before the filing of such charges, and no evidence will be considered at any hearing for any matter which occurred more than five years before the charges were filed.

511.6. A minister or layman shall not be twice placed in jeopardy for the same offense. It shall not be considered, however, that such person was placed in jeopardy at any hearing or proceeding where the court of appeals discovers reversible error committed in the original proceeding before a board of discipline.

PART VIII

CHURCH ZONES

CHAPTER I

ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS

600. Missionary work in the Church of the Nazarene shall lead to the establishment of new districts and District Assembly boundaries. Regular districts may emerge as quickly as possible according to the following pattern:

a. The Pioneer District. Such a district represents the beginning stages of work in a given country or area and will be under the supervision of a missionary superintendent.

b. The National-Mission District. A pioneer district may become a national-mission district when a measure of ability for self-government and for financial support has been demonstrated. A national leader may be selected as district superintendent.

c. The Mission District. A district having achieved 50 percent self-support.

d. The Regular District. A district having attained full district self-support and 1,000 non-probationary district membership.

In each instance the change in designation shall be upon the recommendation of the department of the General Board having supervision of the work and with the approval of the Board of General Superintendents and the General Board.

601. AKRON DISTRICT shall include that portion of the state of Ohio east of a line running

687. THE SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

A. The Dedication or Baptism of Children

When the sponsors have presented themselves with the child (or children) before the minister at his call, the minister shall say:

"Then were brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

In presenting this child for dedication [baptism], you not only signify your faith in the Christian religion, but also your desire that he [she] may early know and follow the will of God, may live and die a Christian, and come unto everlasting blessedness.

In order to attain this holy end, it will be your duty, as parents [guardians], to teach him [her] early the fear of the Lord, to watch over his [her] education, that he [she] be not led astray; to direct his [her] youthful mind to the Holy Scriptures, and his [her] feet to the sanctuary; to restrain him [her] from evil associates and habits; and, as much as in you lies, to bring him [her] up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

Will you endeavor to do so by the help of God? If so, answer, "I will."

The minister shall then dedicate or baptize the child, repeating the full name of the child, and saying:

Our loving Heavenly Father, we do here and now dedicate [baptize] _____ in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then may the minister offer the following prayer, or may use an extemporary prayer.

Heavenly Father, we humbly pray that Thou wilt take this child into Thy loving care. Abundantly enrich him [her] with Thy heavenly grace; bring him [her] safely through the perils of childhood; deliver him [her] from the temptations of youth; lead him [her] to a personal knowledge of Christ as Saviour; help him [her] to grow in wisdom and in stature, and in favor with God and man, and to persevere therein to the end. Uphold the parents with loving care, that with wise counsel and holy example they may faithfully discharge their responsibilities both to this child and to Thee. In the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

B. The Baptism of Believers

DEARLY BELOVED: Baptism is the sign and seal of the new covenant of grace, the significance of which is attested by the Apostle Paul in his letter to the Romans as follows:

"Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection" (Romans 6:3-5).

The earliest and simplest statement of Christian belief, into which you now come to be baptized, is the Apostles' Creed, which reads as follows:

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

"And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

"I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy Church of Jesus Christ, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting."

Will you be baptized into this faith? If so, answer, "I will."

Will you obey God's holy will and keep His commandments, walking in them all the days of your life?

Response: I will.

The minister, giving the full name of the person and using the preferred form of baptism—sprinkling, pouring, or immersion—shall say:

....., I baptize thee in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

688. THE RECEPTION OF CHURCH MEMBERS

The prospective members having come forward to stand before the altar of the church, the pastor shall address them as follows:

DEARLY BELOVED: The privileges and blessings which we have in association together in the Church of Jesus Christ are very sacred and precious. There is in it such hallowed fellowship as cannot otherwise be known.

There is such helpfulness with brotherly watch care and counsel as can be found only in the Church.

There is the godly care of pastors, with the teachings of the Word; and the helpful inspiration of social worship. And there is cooperation in service, accomplishing that which cannot otherwise be done.

The doctrines upon which the church rests as essential to Christian experience are brief. We believe in God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We especially emphasize the deity of Jesus Christ and the personality of the Holy Spirit.

We believe that man is born in sin; that he needs the work of forgiveness through Christ and the new birth by the Holy Spirit; that subsequent to this there is the deeper work of heart cleansing or entire sanctification through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, and that to each of these works of grace the Holy Spirit gives witness.

We believe that our Lord will return, the dead shall be raised, and that all shall come to final judgment with its rewards and punishments.

Do you heartily believe these truths? If so, answer, "I do."

Do you acknowledge Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, and do you realize that He saves you now?

Response: I do.

Desiring to unite with the Church of the Nazarene, do you covenant to give yourself to the fellowship and work of God in connection with it, as set forth in the General Rules and Special Rules of the Church of the Nazarene? Will you endeavor in every way to glorify God, by a humble walk, godly conversation, and holy service; by devotedly giving of your means; by faithful attendance upon the means of grace; and, abstaining from all evil, will you seek earnestly to perfect holiness of heart and life in the fear of the Lord?

Response: I will.

The minister shall then say to the person or persons:

I welcome you into this church, to its sacred fellowship, responsibilities, and privileges. May the great Head of the Church bless and keep you, and enable you to be faithful in all good works, that your life and witness may be effective in leading others to Christ.

He shall then take each one by the hand, and with appropriate words of personal greeting welcome each into the church.

(Alternate form for members joining by letter of transfer:)

_____, formerly a member [members] of the Church of the Nazarene at _____, comes [come] to join the fellowship of this local congregation.

Taking each by the hand, or speaking to the group, the minister shall say:

It gives me pleasure on behalf of this church to welcome you into our membership. We trust that we will be a source of encouragement and strength to you and that you, in turn, will be a source of blessing and help to us. May the Lord richly bless you in the salvation of souls and in the advancement of His kingdom.

689. THE SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

The administration of the Lord's Supper may be introduced by an appropriate sermon and the reading of I Corinthians 11:23-29; Luke 22:14-20, or some other suitable passage. Let the minister then give the following invitation:

The Lord himself ordained this holy sacrament. He commanded His disciples to partake of the bread and wine, emblems of His broken body and shed blood. This is His table. The feast is for His disciples. Let all those who have with true repentance forsaken their sins, and have believed in Christ unto salvation, draw near and take these emblems, and, by faith, partake of the life of Jesus Christ, to your soul's comfort and joy. Let us remember that it is the memorial of the death and passion of our Lord; also a token of His coming again. Let us not forget that we are one, at one table with the Lord.

The minister may offer a prayer of confession and supplication, concluding with the following prayer of consecration:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, who of Thy tender mercy didst give Thine only Son, Jesus Christ, to suffer death upon the Cross for our redemption: hear us, we most humbly beseech Thee. Grant that, as we receive these Thy creatures of bread and wine according to the holy institution of Thy Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, in remembrance of His passion and death, we may be made partakers of the benefits of His atoning sacrifice.

We are reminded that, in the same night that our Lord was betrayed, He took bread and, when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to His disciples, saying, "Take, eat: this is My body, which is broken for you: do this in remembrance of Me. Likewise, after supper, He took the cup, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying, "Drink ye all of this, for this is My blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you and for many, for the remission of sins; do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of Me."

May we come before Thee in true humility and faith as we partake of this holy sacrament. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then may the minister, first partaking himself, with the assistance of any other ministers present, and when necessary, of the stewards, administer the Communion to the people.

While the bread is being distributed, let the minister say:

The body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was broken for you, preserve you blameless, unto everlasting life. Take and eat this, in remembrance that Christ died for you.

As the cup is being passed, let the minister say:

The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for you, preserve you blameless unto everlasting life. Drink this, in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for you, and be thankful.

After all have partaken, the minister may then offer a concluding prayer of thanksgiving and commitment.

690. MATRIMONY

At the day and time appointed for the solemnization of matrimony, the persons to be married—having been qualified according to law—standing together, the man on the right hand and the woman on the left, the minister shall address the congregation as follows:

DEARLY BELOVED: We are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in holy matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted of God in the time of man's innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His Church. This holy estate Christ adorned and beautified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought, in Cana of Galilee, and St. Paul commended as being honorable among all men. It is, therefore, not to be entered into unadvisedly, but reverently, discreetly, and in the fear of God.

Into this holy estate these persons present now come to be joined.

Addressing the couple to be married, the minister shall say:

_____ and _____, I require and charge you both that, if either of you knows any impediment why you may not be lawfully joined together in matrimony, you do now confess it; for be well assured that so many as are coupled together otherwise than God's Word allows are not joined together by God, neither is their matrimony lawful.

If no impediment be alleged, then shall the minister say unto the man:

_____, will you have this woman to be your wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Will you love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto her, so long as you both shall live?

Response: I will.

Then shall the minister say unto the woman:

_____, will you have this man to be your wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of matrimony? Will you love, honor, and keep him, in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep yourself only unto him, so long as you both shall live?

Response: I will.

Then shall the minister ask:

Who gives this woman to be married to this man?

Response (by the father, or whoever gives the bride in marriage): I do.

Facing each other and joining right hands, the couple shall then exchange the following vows:

The man shall repeat after the minister:

I, _____, take you, _____, to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better—for worse, for richer—for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I pledge you my faith.

The woman shall repeat after the minister:

I, _____, take you, _____, to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better — for worse, for richer — for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death us do part, according to God's holy ordinance; and thereto I pledge you my faith.

If desired, a ring ceremony may be inserted at this point. The minister receives the ring from the groomsmen and, in turn, passes it to the groom. As he then places it upon the bride's finger, he shall repeat after the minister:

This ring I give you as a token of my love and as a pledge of my constant fidelity.

The couple then shall kneel as the minister offers the following, or an extemporaneous prayer:

O Eternal God, Creator and Preserver of all mankind, Giver of all spiritual grace, the Author of everlasting life, send Thy blessing upon these Thy servants, this man and this woman, whom we now bless in Thy name; that, as Isaac and Rebekah lived faithfully together, so these persons may surely perform and keep the vow and covenant made between them this hour and may ever remain in love and peace together, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall the minister say:

Forasmuch as this man and woman have consented together in holy wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and have declared the same by joining of hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife together, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Those whom God has joined together let not man put asunder. Amen.

The minister shall then add his blessing:

God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, bless, preserve, and keep you; the Lord mercifully with His favor look upon you, and fill you with all spiritual benediction and grace. May you so live together in this life that in the world to come you may have life everlasting.

The minister may then conclude with an extemporaneous prayer and/or benediction.

691. THE FUNERAL SERVICE

DEARLY BELOVED: We are gathered today to pay our final tribute of respect to that which was mortal of our deceased loved one and friend. To you members of the family who mourn your loss, we especially offer our deep and sincere sympathy. May we share with you the comfort afforded by God's Word for such a time as this:

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also" (John 14: 1-3).

"I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die" (John 11:25-26).

INVOCATION (in the minister's own words or the following):

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, we come into this sanctuary of sorrow, realizing our utter dependence upon Thee. We know Thou dost love us and canst turn even the shadow of death into the light of morning. Help us now to wait before Thee with reverent and submissive hearts.

Thou art our Refuge and Strength, O God — a very present Help in time of trouble. Grant unto us Thy abundant mercy. May those who mourn today find comfort and healing balm in Thy sustaining grace.

We humbly bring these petitions in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

A HYMN OR SPECIAL SONG

SELECTIONS OF SCRIPTURE:

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls" (I Peter 1:3-9).

(Other passages which might be used are: Matthew 5:3-4, 6, 8; Psalms 27:3-5, 11, 13-14; Psalms 46:1-6, 10-11.)

MESSAGE

A HYMN OR SPECIAL SONG

CLOSING PRAYER

AT THE GRAVESIDE

When the people have assembled, the minister may read any or all of the following scriptures:

"For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: and though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another" (Job 19:25-27).

"Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. . . .

"Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

"Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord" (I Corinthians 15:51-58).

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them" (Revelation 14:13).

The minister shall then read one of the following committal statements:

For a Believer:

Forasmuch as the spirit of our departed loved one has returned to God, who gave it, we therefore tenderly commit his [her] body to the grave in sure trust and certain hope of the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who shall give to us new bodies like unto His glorious body. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

For a Nonbeliever:

We have come now to commit the body of our departed friend to its kindred dust. The spirit we leave with God, for we know the merciful Judge of all the earth will do right. Let us who remain dedicate ourselves anew to live in the fear and love of God, so that we may obtain an abundant entrance into the heavenly Kingdom.

For a Child:

In the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commit the body of this child to the grave. And as Jesus, during His earthly life, took the children into His arms and blessed them, may He receive this dear one unto himself, for, as He said, "of such is the kingdom of heaven."

PRAYER:

Our Heavenly Father, God of all mercy, we look to Thee in this moment of sorrow and bereavement. Comfort these dear ones whose hearts are heavy and sad. Wilt Thou be with them; sustain and guide them in the days to come. Grant, O Lord, that they may love and serve Thee and obtain the fullness of Thy promises in the world to come.

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen" (Hebrews 13:20-21).

602. INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Following the singing of an appropriate hymn, let the secretary read the names and positions of the officers to be installed. These may come forward and stand at the altar of the church, facing the minister. A covenant card* should be provided for each. The minister shall then say:

Recognizing God's method of setting apart certain workers for specific areas of Christian service, we come to this moment of installation of these officers [and/or teachers] who have been duly chosen to serve in our church for the ensuing year. Let us consider God's instructions to us from His Holy Word.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God" (Romans 12:1-2).

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Timothy 2:15).

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord" (Colossians 3:16).

"Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things" (Galatians 6:6).

*Available from the Nazarene Publishing House.

We now come to this important moment when you who stand before the altar are to take upon yourselves the task of caring for the affairs of the church and its auxiliary organizations. May you look upon the assignments you now assume as special opportunities for service for our Lord and may you find joy and spiritual blessing in the performance of your respective duties.

Yours is no light task, for the ongoing of the church and the destiny of souls are in your hands. The development of Christian character is your responsibility and leading the unsaved to Jesus Christ is your highest objective. May God grant you wisdom and strength as you do His work for His glory.

You have been given a card on which is printed a covenant. We shall read it in unison, and as we do so, let us make it a personal commitment.

WORKER'S COVENANT

In consideration of the confidence placed in me by the church in being selected for the office I now assume, I hereby covenant:

To maintain a high standard of Christian living and example in harmony with the ideals and standards of the Church of the Nazarene.

To cultivate my personal Christian experience by setting aside each day a definite time for prayer and Bible reading.

To be present at the regular Sunday school, the Sunday morning and Sunday evening preaching services, and the midweek prayer meeting of the church, unless providentially hindered.

To attend faithfully all duly called meetings of the various boards, councils, or committees to which I have been, or will be, assigned.

To notify my superior officer if I am unable to be present at the stated time, or to carry out my responsibilities in this office.

To read widely the denominational publications, and other books and literature which will be helpful to me in discharging the duties of my office.

To improve myself and my skills by participating in Christian Service Training courses as opportunity is afforded.

To endeavor to lead people to Jesus Christ by manifesting an active interest in the spiritual welfare of others and by attending and supporting all evangelistic meetings in the church.

The minister shall then offer an appropriate prayer, and a special song of dedication may be sung, after which he shall say:

Having pledged together your hearts and hands to the task of carrying forward the work of this church in your particular assignments, I herewith install you in the respective positions to which you have been elected or appointed. You are now a vital part of the organizational structure and leadership of this church. May you, by example, by precept, and by diligent service, be effective workers in the vineyard of the Lord.

The minister shall ask the congregation to rise, and shall address them as follows:

You have heard the pledge and covenant entered into by your church leaders for the coming year. I now charge you, as a congregation, to be loyal in your support of them. The burdens which we have laid upon them today are heavy, and they will need your assistance and prayers. May you always be understanding of their problems and tolerant of their seeming failures. May you lend assistance joyfully when called upon, so that, as we work together, our church may be an effective instrument in winning the lost to Christ.

The minister may then lead in a concluding prayer or have the congregation repeat the Lord's Prayer in unison.

693. CHURCH DEDICATIONS

Minister: Having been prospered by the hand of the Lord and enabled by His grace and strength to complete this building to the glory of His name, we now stand in God's presence to dedicate this structure to the service of His kingdom.

To the glory of God our Father, from whom cometh every good and perfect gift; to the honor of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour; and to the praise of the Holy Spirit, Source of light, and life, and power — our Sanctifier, Congregation: We do now, with joy and gratitude, humbly dedicate this building.

Minister: In remembrance of all who have loved and served this church, establishing the heritage we now enjoy, and who are now part of the Church Triumphant, Congregation: We gratefully dedicate this edifice [sanctuary, education building, fellowship hall, etc.].

Minister: For worship in prayer and song, for the preaching of the Word, for the teaching of the Scriptures, and for the fellowship of the saints, Congregation: We solemnly dedicate this house of God.

Minister: For the comfort of those who mourn, for the strengthening of the weak, for the help of those who are tempted, and for the giving of hope and courage to all who come within these walls, Congregation: We dedicate this place of fellowship and prayer.

Minister: For the sharing of the good news of salvation from sin, for the spreading of scriptural holiness, for the giving of instruction in righteousness, and for the service of our fellowmen, Congregation: We reverently dedicate this building.

Unison: We, as laborers together with God, now join hands and hearts and dedicate ourselves anew to the high and holy purposes to which this building has been set apart. We pledge our loyal devotion, faithful stewardship, and diligent service to the end that in this place the name of the Lord shall be glorified, and His kingdom shall be advanced; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CHAPTER I

694. CONSTITUTIONS FOR NAZARENE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

694.1. Local Nazarene Young People's Society

ARTICLE I. Name

The organization shall be called the Nazarene Young People's Society of the _____ Church of the Nazarene.

ARTICLE II. Object

The object of the society shall be to bring others to Christ and to provide ways of channeling the energies of youth into the total evangelistic mission of the church. It shall also be the purpose of the society to build up its members in Christian experience and in holy character and to instruct them in the doctrines of the church.

ARTICLE III. Motto

Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity (I Timothy 4: 12).

ARTICLE IV. Divisions

SECTION 1. So that the benefits of the society may best be enjoyed by all ages of the society on their own interest levels, the society shall be composed of three divisions:

Nazarene Junior Fellowship (ages 4-11 or sixth grade)

Nazarene Teen Fellowship (seventh grade or ages 12-19)

Nazarene Young Adult Fellowship (ages 20-40)

SEC. 2. These three divisions may be further divided into special age or interest departments as desired by the local church, or it may function with a combination of divisions.

ARTICLE V. Membership

SECTION 1. Membership in the Nazarene Young People's Society shall be open to all those between the ages of four and 40 inclusive who desire the benefits and blessings offered through the purpose and program of the society, providing that those above 11 years of age are those who give testimony to the saving grace of Jesus Christ, and are of good moral character.

SEC. 2. Membership in the Nazarene Young People's Society shall be divided into three classes: Junior, Teen, and Young Adult.

SEC. 3. Only those members who are members of the Church of the Nazarene and who have reached their twelfth birthday shall vote in the business meetings of the society, hold elective office, or serve as chairmen of standing committees or as delegates to district or general conventions. All junior members are eligible to vote and hold office in the Nazarene Junior Fellowship.

ARTICLE VI. Officers

SECTION 1. The officers of this society shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer. All officers shall be members of the local church whose society they serve.

SEC. 2. The officers shall be elected annually by the members of the society, and shall serve for the period of the District Assembly year, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 3. The president of the local society shall be nominated by the nominating committee, consisting of not less than three nor more than seven members of the Nazarene Young People's Society, including the pastor, and appointed by the pastor. This committee shall submit at least two names for the office of president, providing, however, that a president may be reelected by a yes or no vote when such election is recommended by the nominating committee and approved by the pastor. The president shall be elected by majority vote of the members present and voting by ballot. His election shall be subject to the approval of the church board. He shall be a member, ex officio, of the church board, to which he shall make a monthly report. He shall submit a report to the annual meeting of the local church.

SEC. 4. The vice-president of the society shall be elected from one or more names submitted by the nominating committee provided in Section 3.

SEC. 5. Other officers of the society shall be elected from nominations submitted by the nominating committee.

SEC. 6. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Nazarene Young People's Society president, such vacancy shall be filled in harmony with the provisions for the election of president outlined in Section 3.

ARTICLE VII. Executive Council

SECTION 1. In a society with all above 11 years of age functioning as one division, the executive council shall consist of the pastor, the officers of the Nazarene Young People's Society, the chairmen of the standing committees, and the director of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship.

SEC. 2. In a society functioning with more than one division above 11 years of age, the executive council shall consist of the pastor, the officers of the Nazarene Young People's Society, the presidents of the Teen and/or Young Adult Fellowships, and the director of each division.

SEC. 3. In a society functioning with two or more departments within the Nazarene Teen Fellowship, or Nazarene Young Adult Fellowship, the president of each department and the adult directors of the departments in the Nazarene Teen Fellowship shall become members of the executive council.

SEC. 4. In churches not having an organized Nazarene Young People's Society the church board may serve as Nazarene Young People's Society executive council, so that the needs of the juniors, teens, and young adults of the church may be served.

SEC. 5. The executive council may offer its services in the creation of a local youth council which, under the direction of the church board, would provide unified direction for the total local youth ministry. (This assistance in the development of unified leadership could be offered at the children's, teen, and young adult levels.) For example, at teen level such a council could include: youth minister, representatives of the NYPS council, directors of Nazarene Teen Fellowships, teen choir, IMPACT, recreation, Bible quiz, as well as church school workers and teachers of teens, and any other teacher or director of teen ministry in the local church.

ARTICLE VIII. Division Officers

SECTION 1. The officers of each of the three divisions of the society, or departments within divisions, shall consist of a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer, who shall be elected by ballot at an annual meeting of the division or department; the Nazarene Junior Fellowship may elect officers quarterly or semiannually. There shall also be a director of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship and a director of the Nazarene Teen Fellowship.

SEC. 2. The director of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship shall be elected by the executive council of the Nazarene Young People's Society, of which he shall become a member. There shall be no age limit on this director. The director may ask for adult assistants as needed, and such assistants shall be appointed by the executive council of the Nazarene Young People's Society.

SEC. 3. The director of the Nazarene Teen Fellowship shall be nominated by a committee composed of the president of the Nazarene Young People's Society, the pastor, and the executive committee of the Nazarene Teen Fellowship, and shall be elected by the executive council of the Nazarene Young People's Society, of which he shall become a member. There shall be no age limit on this director. (When the Nazarene Teen Fellowship is divided into age departments, in place of a Nazarene Teen Fellowship director, directors of each department shall be elected as provided in Section 4 below.)

Sec. 4. When the Nazarene Teen Fellowship is divided into two or more departments, each department shall have an adult director, elected in accordance with Sections 1 and 3, Article VIII. The director shall be nominated by a committee consisting of the pastor, president of the Nazarene Young People's Society, and the presidents of the respective departments, and elected by the executive council of the Nazarene Young People's Society, of which they shall become members.

Sec. 5. The executive committee of each division or department within a division shall consist of the officers, the chairmen of the standing committees, and the director.

Sec. 6. Each division of the society or department within a division may have a program committee, evangelism and missions committee, literature committee, activities committee, and such other committees as are necessary for properly conducting its work. The committee chairmen shall be elected by the executive committee of the division, or department, of which they shall become members.

ARTICLE IX. Meetings

SECTION 1. An annual meeting of the Nazarene Young People's Society shall be held in harmony with the Manual, paragraph 106.5, within sixty (60) days of the District Assembly. Other business meetings may be held during the year on call of the executive council and with approval of the pastor.

Sec. 2. At the annual meeting, there shall be elected the officers of the society in harmony with Article VI, Sections 1-5, of the Local Constitution. There shall also be elected delegates to the District Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society in harmony with Article II, Section 2, of the District Constitution, and alternate delegates in equal numbers.

Sec. 3. A semiannual conference of the Nazarene

Young People's Society consisting of the pastor, the executive council, and the executive committees of the three divisions and departments shall be held to plan the work of all divisions of the Nazarene Young People's Society.

ARTICLE X. Amendments

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting at the General Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society and by the approval of the General Assembly. All resolutions concerning such amendments must be in the hands of the General Secretary 15 days prior to the opening of the General Convention.

694.2. District Nazarene Young People's Society

ARTICLE I. Membership

All local organizations of the Nazarene Young People's Society within the boundaries of _____ District shall be members of the district Nazarene Young People's Society.

ARTICLE II. Conventions

SECTION 1. There shall be an annual District Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society, at which reports shall be received from the district officers, directors from the District Council, and zone presidents and any business pertaining to the work of the Nazarene Young People's Society may be transacted.

SEC. 2. The District Convention shall be composed of the members of the District Council, the district superintendent, and the district zone presidents, pastors of local churches, full-time salaried associates of NYPS age, presidents of local societies, local directors of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship, elders of the district within the NYPS age limits, and two elected delegates for each society with 30 or fewer members, and one additional delegate for each successive 30 members or final major part of 30 members. Where practical, both Teen and Young Adult Fellowships shall be represented in the elected delegation.

SEC. 3. One delegate may be appointed by the pastor of each local church not having an organized Nazarene Young People's Society.

ARTICLE III. Officers

SECTION 1. The officers of the district shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary, a treasurer, who shall be elected by ballot at the annual convention and who shall serve until the close of the following annual convention and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 2. All district officers shall be voting members of a local Nazarene Young People's Society within the bounds of the district at the time of their election.

ARTICLE IV. District Council

SECTION 1. The District Council shall be composed of the officers of the District Nazarene Young People's Society, the district superintendent, the full-time district youth director, if there be such, director of the Nazarene Junior Fellowship, director of the Nazarene Teen Fellowship, director of the Nazarene Young Adult Fellowship, director of literature, director of evangelism and missions, director(s) of youth camps, teen Bible quizzing, and IMPACT, and six members-at-large elected by ballot by the annual convention, three of whom shall be of Nazarene Teen Fellowship age and three of whom shall be laymen of young adult age at the time of their election.

SEC. 2. The District Council shall elect a director of literature, a director of evangelism and missions, a director of teen Bible quizzing, a director of IMPACT, and in cases where a separate Youth Camp Board does not exist, the youth camp director(s).

SEC. 3. The District Council shall fill any vacancies that may occur in the council between conventions. Should a vacancy occur in the office of a district president, a nominating committee of from three to five members shall be appointed by the district superintendent, who shall serve as chairman. The committee shall submit at least two nominees for election by majority vote of the District Council.

ARTICLE V. Salaried Youth Director

Wherever desired, the District Convention may establish a plan for the election of a salaried district youth director, subject to the approval of the district superintendent and the District Advisory Board.

ARTICLE VI. District Zones

The annual District Convention may order the district divided into zones.

ARTICLE VII. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting at the General Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society and by the approval of the General Assembly. All resolutions concerning such amendments must be in the hands of the General Secretary 15 days prior to the opening of the General Convention.

694.3. General Nazarene Young People's Society

ARTICLE I. Membership

All district and local Nazarene Young People's Societies shall constitute the General Nazarene Young People's Society, which shall be administratively related to the General Board through the Department of Youth.

ARTICLE II. Convention

SECTION 1. There shall be a General Quadrennial Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society. The length of this convention and the time it shall convene shall be decided upon by the General Council in consultation with the Board of General Superintendents.

SEC. 2. The General Council shall announce the time and place of the General Convention at least ninety (90) days previous to such convention.

SEC. 3. The General Convention shall be composed of the members of the General Council, the executive secretary of the Department of Youth, district NYPS presidents, the student body president-elect of each school with membership in the Nazarene Student Leadership Conference, and one ministerial delegate (district-licensed or ordained at the time of the General Convention), and one lay delegate elected by each District NYPS Convention for the first 500 or fewer members, and one ministerial delegate and one lay delegate for each successive 750 members and the final major part of 750 members, based on the membership report of the District Assembly prior to the General Convention. All shall be elected by ballot by majority vote at a session of the District Convention within 16 months of the meeting of the General Convention. All members of the General Convention shall be members of the Church of the Nazarene at the time of the General Convention.

SEC. 4. Each delegate to the General Convention shall at the time of the General Convention be a member of the Church of the Nazarene on the district from which he is elected and residing on that district.* He shall be within the NYPS age limits. No delegate shall be seated in the General Convention who has passed his forty-first birthday at the time of the convention.

SEC. 5. In the case of a pastor, he shall be a member of the District NYPS Convention at the time of election, and serving on the assembly district from which he was elected, at the time of the General Convention.

SEC. 6. In the case of world mission districts and overseas home mission districts, General Convention representation shall be governed by the respective departments of the general church and their respective missionary policies.

ARTICLE III. General Council

SECTION 1. The General Convention shall elect by two-thirds majority vote by ballot two general officers, a president and a secretary, who shall serve without salary.

SEC. 2. At the General Convention there shall be elected to the General Council one member from each of the church zones in the United States, one member as the representative of the British Commonwealth Zone, one member as the representative of Europe, and one member as the representative of the Latin-American districts.

SEC. 3. The General Council may elect by majority vote one member-at-large to the Council whose purpose shall be to adequately represent outreach ministries among North American ethnic groups. Qualifications, term, and method of selection shall be at the discretion of the Council.

SEC. 4. All of these elected officers shall be voting members of the NYPS and shall not have reached their thirty-seventh birthday at the time of their election.

SEC. 5. The General Convention shall also elect two members-at-large who shall be voting members of the NYPS and of Nazarene Teen Fellowship age at the time of election. One member-at-large shall not have advanced beyond completion of the eleventh grade of school. These shall be elected by majority vote.

SEC. 6. The incumbent student cochairman of the Nazarene Student Leadership Conference shall be an ex officio member of the General Council. He must be a member of the Church of the Nazarene.

SEC. 7. No U.S. or British Commonwealth Zone representative of the General Council shall be elected to serve more than two quadrennia. No general president or secretary shall serve more than one quadrennium. No European or Latin-American representative shall be elected to serve more than one quadrennium.

Sec. 8. These elected officers shall constitute a General Council to serve until the close of the following quadrennial convention or until their successors are elected and qualified. The executive secretary of the Department of Youth shall be an ex officio member of the General Council.

Sec. 9. The General Council, in consultation with the executive secretary of the Department of Youth and the Board of General Superintendents, shall fill any vacancy that may occur on the Council between General Conventions according to Article I, Sections 5 and 6, of the General Bylaws.

Sec. 10. In the event a zone representative of the General Council shall move his residence or transfer his church membership during the quadrennium from the zone he represents, his membership on the General Council shall be terminated at once and the vacancy so created shall be filled in accordance with Article I, Section 6, of the General Bylaws.

Sec. 11. The general superintendent assigned as the advisor to the Department of Youth shall also be the designated advisor to the General NYPS Council.

Sec. 12. The duties of the General Council shall be defined by Bylaws adopted by the General Convention.

ARTICLE IV. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at a General Convention of the Nazarene Young People's Society, and by the approval of the General Assembly. All resolutions concerning such amendments must be in the hands of the General Secretary 15 days prior to the opening of the General Convention.

CHAPTER II

695. CONSTITUTIONS FOR NAZARENE
WORLD MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

695.1. Local Nazarene World Missionary Society

ARTICLE I. Name

This society shall be called the Nazarene World Missionary Society of the _____ Church of the Nazarene.

ARTICLE II. Object

The object of this society shall be to enlist the members of the church in active missionary service, in united prayer, and in the study of the salvation needs of the world to promote a wider knowledge of the mission fields of the Church of the Nazarene, to inspire and challenge the youth to open minds and willing hearts for God-called missionary service on the mission fields of the church, and to raise funds, as elsewhere provided for in this constitution, for extending the kingdom of Jesus Christ around the world. This society shall be a constituent part of the local church and subject to the supervision of the pastor and the church board.

ARTICLE III. Membership

The membership of the local NWMS shall be divided into three classes: active, associate, and junior members.

SECTION 1. Active Members

Any person 12 years old or over and a member of the Church of the Nazarene shall be classified as an active member of the society. A person may become an active member by declaring his intention to pray, give, and work for the objectives of the society. Voting and holding office shall be limited to active members, except in junior and teen chapters. Voting in the annual meeting of the NWMS shall be limited to active members.

Sec. 2. Associate Members

Any person 12 years old or over and not a member of the Church of the Nazarene may become an associate member of the NWMS by agreeing to unite in prayer for the objectives of the organization and by making freewill offerings for the support of the missionary interests of the Church of the Nazarene.

Sec. 3. Junior Members

Children through 11 may become junior members of the NWMS by making known their desire to be members and agreeing to pray for the missionary interests of the Church of the Nazarene, participate in giving as they are able, and work for the objectives of the society.

ARTICLE IV. Officers

SECTION 1. Election of Council

The officers of this society shall be president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, publicity secretary, Prayer and Self-denial secretary, membership secretary, Other Sheep secretary, and box work secretary. These officers shall be elected by ballot annually by the members of the society, or the executive committee may be the only officers elected at the local NWMS meeting, other officers of the local council to be appointed by the executive committee. These 10 officers together with the chapter chairmen, junior and youth supervisors, and pastor, shall constitute the local NWMS council.

The president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, and publicity secretary shall constitute the executive committee of the society. The pastor shall be an ex officio member of the NWMS executive committee.

Sec. 2. Election of President

The president shall be nominated by a committee of not less than three nor more than seven active members of the Nazarene World Missionary Society appointed by the pastor, who shall serve as chairman. This committee shall submit one or more names for the office of president, providing, however, that any incumbent president may be re-elected by a yes-no vote when such election is recommended by the nominating committee and approved by the pastor. The president shall be elected by a majority vote by ballot of the active members present and voting, and this election shall be subject to the approval of the church board. The president shall be a member of the local church whose society is served, a member, ex officio, of the church board, and a member of the District Assembly.

NOTE: Where there are two or more chapters in the local society, follow the plan provided for in Article VIII.

See local bylaws for duties of officers, appointment of supervisors, assistants, and committees.

SEC. 3. Vacancies

Vacancies occurring in any elective office shall be filled by a majority vote of active NWMS members present at any regular monthly meeting of the society.

In the case of a vacancy in the office of the local president, the executive committee shall nominate one or more names for the office of president.

ARTICLE V. Representation at District Convention

Local representation at the District NWMS Convention shall be composed of:

1. The pastor of the local church and the local NWMS president, both of whom are members of the District NWMS Convention by virtue of office. In the event that the local president is unable to attend or serve, the local vice-president may be seated in his or her place. In the event the local vice-president is unable to attend or serve, the newly elected local president may be seated in his or her place; and if the newly elected president is unable to attend or serve, then the newly elected local vice-president may be seated in his or her place.
2. Two elected delegates for the first 25 active NWMS members or less, and one additional delegate for each additional 25 active members, or major portion thereof.

ARTICLE VI. Meetings

SECTION 1. Monthly

There shall be one or more meetings for business, mission study, and prayer held each calendar month, or a minimum of 12 meetings a year.

Sec. 2. Annual

The annual meeting of the society shall be held at least 30 days prior to the District Assembly, at which meeting officers for the ensuing year shall be elected.

Chapter officers shall be elected and/or appointed before the District Convention.

Officers shall assume their duties at the close of the District Assembly or the District NWMS Convention, whichever is later.

ARTICLE VII. Funds

SECTION 1. General Budget

All funds raised by this society for the General Budget shall be sent direct to the General Treasurer.

Funds for the support of General Budget shall be raised in the following manner: (1) from the regular missionary society General Budget offering; (2) from the Prayer and Self-denial offerings; (3) from special offerings such as the Easter and Thanksgiving offerings.

Sec. 2. Specials

Opportunity shall be given to contribute to world mission specials over and above the General Budget apportionment such as Alabaster and Latin-Language Broadcast. Additional world mission specials may be approved and authorized by the Department of World Missions and the executive secretary of the department.

Sec. 3. Medical Aid and Retirement Fund

The Medical Aid and Retirement Fund shall be held in trust by the General Treasurer for the General Nazarene World Missionary Society and shall be used for medical aid for active missionaries and pensions and medical aid for retired missionaries, such aid to be granted by the Department of World Missions according to their established policy. Funds shall be raised by: (1) placing of names on the Memorial Roll by the payment of $25.00 for that special purpose, (2) annual payments by active members of 60 cents each.

SEC. 4. General Expense Fund

Each active member shall contribute 40 cents annually for the General Expense Fund. This fund provides for the expenses of the general office, council members' expense, literature and helps for the district and local societies.

SEC. 5. General Funds Exclusive

No part of the above general funds shall be used for local or district expense or charitable purposes.

SEC. 6. Local Expense

A local expense fund shall be provided either by assessment or freewill offerings (the amount to be determined by local needs). A percentage of the local expense fund may be set aside to help defray the expenses of the delegates to the District Convention.

NOTE: Since our church is strictly opposed to engaging in any form of merchandising to raise funds for the support of the church and its missionary program, local societies shall refrain from engaging in the sale of merchandise or food as an organization or in the name of the Nazarene World Missionary Society.

ARTICLE VIII. Chapters

SECTION 1. Chapters

This society may have one or more chapters as may be authorized by the executive committee, and approved by the pastor and local church board; and these together shall constitute the local society. A chapter is an integral part of the local society, the division being made for the matter of convenience.

A local society may request the organization of women's chapters, men's chapters, chapters includ-

Sec. 2. Elections

These chapters meeting in joint session shall elect the officers authorized in Article IV. The executive committee of the local society shall have general oversight of the work of the various chapters, receive all literature for distribution to the various chapters, and keep records and send reports for the combined chapters.

Sec. 3. Chapter Officers

The officers of each chapter shall be chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, publicity secretary, membership secretary, Prayer and Self-denial secretary, Other Sheep secretary, and box work secretary. These officers shall be elected by ballot annually by the members of the chapter. (Officers of the local society may hold office in any chapter.) The chapter chairman, vice-chairman, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, and publicity secretary shall constitute the chapter executive committee.

Sec. 4. Nomination of Chapter Officers

Chapter officers shall be nominated by a nominating committee appointed by the pastor.

A chapter chairman is a member of the local NWMS council.

ARTICLE IX. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting at the General Convention of the Nazarene World Missionary Society, and by the approval of the Department of World Missions.

695.2. District Nazarene World Missionary Society

ARTICLE I. Membership

All local Nazarene World Missionary Societies within the boundaries of _____ District shall be members of the District Nazarene World Missionary Society. The activities of this society shall be under the supervision of the district superintendent, the District Advisory Board, the District Assembly, and the District NWMS Council.

ARTICLE II. District Convention

SECTION 1. Purpose

There shall be an annual District Convention of the Nazarene World Missionary Society for the purpose of hearing reports of district officers and local presidents, uniting in prayer for the work, making aggressive plans for propagating missionary information and inspiration in the local societies, and conducting any business pertaining to the district organization.

The time and place of the annual NWMS Convention shall be decided by the District NWMS Council in consultation with the district superintendent.

Sec. 2. Membership

The District Convention shall be composed of the District NWMS Council, the district superintendent, pastors of the local churches, NWMS zone chairmen, the presidents of local societies, two delegates from each local society having an active membership of 25 or less, and one additional delegate for each additional 25 active members (or major portion thereof), and General NWMS Council members, retired missionaries, missionaries on furlough, and missionary appointees who hold their church membership on the district.

ARTICLE III. Officers

SECTION 1. District Council

The officers of this society shall be president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, publicity secretary, Prayer and Self-denial secretary, membership secretary, Other Sheep secretary, and box work secretary. The 10 named officers shall constitute the District NWMS Council. The district superintendent shall be ex officio member of the District NWMS Council.

The District Executive Committee shall be composed of the president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, study secretary, and publicity secretary.

When a District Council in consultation with the district superintendent so desire, an additional officer may be added to the District Council, namely, a Men for Missions secretary. The nomination and election of this officer shall follow the same procedure specified in Article III, Section 2, for officers other than district presidents.

SEC. 2. Election of Officers

The District President. The District Convention shall elect a district president, who shall be: (a) elected by two-thirds favorable vote by ballot from two or more nominees presented by a nominating committee, appointed by the District Executive Committee, and chaired by the district superintendent; (b) or in case of reelection the district president may be reelected by a yes-or-no vote when such vote is recommended by the District NWMS Council with the approval of the district superintendent. The district president shall serve without salary.

Other Officers. The other district officers shall be elected by majority vote by ballot by the convention from two nominees presented for each office by a nominating committee appointed by the District Executive Committee.

Or the District Convention may elect a district treasurer and eight others to serve on the District NWMS Council. They shall be elected by majority vote by ballot from nominees submitted by a nominating committee appointed by the District Executive Committee.

The eight council members thus elected, along with the district president and district NWMS treasurer, shall organize, assigning each member responsibilities in accordance with Section 1.

SEC. 3. Election of Teen-age Representatives

The District Convention may elect by ballot one and not more than two teen-age representatives to "sit in" with the District NWMS Council to make any suggestions they feel might be helpful to teenage chapters, and to observe the procedure of the council. The nominating committee appointed by the District Executive Committee shall nominate twice the number to be elected.

Sec. 4. Vacancies

A vacancy in the district presidency shall be filled by a majority vote of the District NWMS Council, two nominees having been submitted by the District NWMS Executive Committee in consultation with the district superintendent.

All other vacancies occurring in the District Council between annual conventions shall be filled by majority vote of the District NWMS Council.

ARTICLE IV. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of all members present and voting at the General Convention of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society, and by the approval of the Department of World Missions.

695.3. General Nazarene World Missionary Society

ARTICLE I. Membership

All district and local Nazarene World Missionary Societies shall constitute the General Nazarene World Missionary Society. It shall be auxiliary to the Department of World Missions.

ARTICLE II. General Convention

SECTION 1. Time and Place

There shall be a General Convention of the Nazarene World Missionary Society preceding the General Assembly. The time and place shall be decided upon by the General Council in consultation with the general superintendent adviser and the Department of World Missions.

Sec. 2. Members of the General Convention

1. This convention shall be composed of the following members: members of the General Council; district NWMS presidents; two delegates from each district of 1,000 or fewer active NWMS members, and one additional delegate for each additional 700 active members (or major part thereof), delegates to be elected by ballot by majority vote by the District Convention within 16 months of the General Convention.

2. Any elected General Convention delegate must be at the time of the General NWMS Convention residing on the district.* If an elected delegate moves off the district, the privilege of representing the former district is forfeited.

3. In the event the district president cannot attend the General Convention, the district vice-president (ex officio) shall be allowed to go in her place to represent the district.

4. In the case of world mission districts and overseas home mission districts, General Convention representation shall be governed by the departments of the general church and their respective policies.

ARTICLE III. General Council

SECTION 1. Nomination and Election of the General President

The general president shall be elected from nominees selected by a nominating committee composed of the General Council zone representatives, the executive secretary, and one other representative from each geographic zone appointed by the executive committee of the General Council. No two members of the nominating committee may be from the same district. The executive secretary shall serve as chairman of the nominating committee.

The committee shall submit the names of two and not more than three persons for general president. The nominations shall be approved by the Board of General Superintendents.

From these nominees the General Convention

shall elect by two-thirds majority vote by ballot a general president.

The term of the general president shall be limited to two quadrenniums.

The general president shall be an ex officio member of the General Council, and shall serve without salary.

Sec. 2. Election of the General NWMS Council

The number of members on the General NWMS Council shall be determined by the active NWMS members on the zones on the following basis: one representative for the first 40,000 active NWMS members or less on the zone. When the zone exceeds 40,000 active NWMS members, it shall be entitled to elect two representatives to the General NWMS Council.

A member of the General Council shall be a member of and resident in the zone. Should the council member move off the zone, he or she automatically ceases to be the zone representative on the council.

No two representatives of one zone shall be from the same district until each district on the zone has one representative.

All council members (except general president and executive secretary, otherwise provided for) shall be elected by the General Convention by majority vote by ballot.

The term of service of a General Council member shall be limited to two consecutive quadrenniums.

The executive secretary of the Department of World Missions shall be an ex officio member of the General Council.

Sec. 3. Nomination of General Council Members

Zone representatives on the General Council shall be nominated by zone caucuses, held at the General Convention, each district on the zone having the privilege of submitting two names from the district to the caucus.

The zone in caucus shall elect by ballot the nominees from the zone (twice the number to be elected). Of the nominees submitted to the General Convention for election, no two shall be from the same district until each district on the zone has one representative.

Caucus nominations shall be approved by the Department of World Missions and the Board of General Superintendents.

Sec. 4. Council Organization

The council shall elect by a two-thirds vote by ballot an executive secretary, who shall be approved by the Board of General Superintendents. The executive secretary shall be an ex officio member of the council.

The council shall also elect from its own number a vice-president and two other members, who with the general president and executive secretary shall constitute the executive committee, three of whom shall constitute a quorum.

Council members shall hold office until the final adjournment of the next Quadrennial Convention, except as provided for in Section 2, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The council shall assign to its members responsibility for the various emphases and projects.

Sec. 5. The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall:

1. In case of vacancy in the general presidency in the interim between sessions of the Quadrennial Convention, submit the names of two nominees for general president in accordance with Article IV, Section 1, of the General Constitution.
2. Transact any business deemed necessary between sessions of the General Council.

Sec. 6. General Superintendent Adviser

One general superintendent shall be appointed by the Board of General Superintendents as adviser to the General Council to serve for the quadrennium.

Sec. 7. General Board Representative

The General Council shall nominate to the General Assembly two members of the council, one of whom shall be elected by the General Assembly as a member of the General Board of the Church of the Nazarene as a representative of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society.

Sec. 8. Council Meeting

The council shall meet annually prior to the meeting of the General Board. Seven shall constitute a quorum. A condensed report of the business transacted in the annual meeting of the council shall be referred to the Department of World Missions for approval.

ARTICLE IV. Vacancies

SECTION 1. General President

Should a vacancy occur in the office of general president in the interim between sessions of the Quadrennial Convention, a general president shall be elected from nominees selected by the Executive Committee of the General Council in consultation with the general superintendent adviser by two-thirds vote of all district presidents to fill the vacancy and to perform the duties of general president until adjournment of the next Quadrennial Convention provided the question of calling for an election to fill the vacancy shall be decided by the General Council in consultation with the general superintendent adviser.

Sec. 2. Council

Should a vacancy occur in the council during the quadrennium, the Executive Committee shall present two names as nominees approved by the Department of World Missions and the Board of General Superintendents. The vacancy shall then be filled by majority vote by ballot of the members of the council provided that the question of calling for an election to fill the vacancy is approved by the Department of World Missions and the Board of General Superintendents.

Sec. 3. Executive Committee

Should a vacancy occur in the Executive Committee during the quadrennium, two names as nominees from the council shall be presented. The vacancy shall then be filled by a majority vote, by ballot, of the council.

ARTICLE V. Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of members present and voting at a General Convention of the General Nazarene World Missionary Society, and by the approval of the Department of World Missions.

CHAPTER III

696. BYLAWS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Sunday school is basically threefold:

1. To teach the Word of God effectively until pupils are saved, sanctified wholly, and maturing in Christian experience.
2. To help Christians grow spiritually by involving them in a reaching, teaching, and soul-winning ministry.
3. To locate and visit unchurched people until they become enrolled and regular in attendance.

ARTICLE I. Membership

SECTION 1. Membership in the Sunday school of the _____ Church of the Nazarene is open to all who desire the help and association this school offers and who consent to become members under the provision of the Manual and these bylaws. There shall be three classes of members; namely, Sunday School, Cradle Roll, and Home Department.

SEC. 2. All persons eligible to Sunday school membership who declare their willingness to attend with some degree of regularity may be enrolled at once.

SEC. 3. Sunday school members should be dropped from the roll immediately when they join another Sunday school, move out of town, die, or specifically ask to have their names removed. Members who have ceased to attend but who still live in the community should be removed only after every effort has been made by the teacher, supervisor, superintendent, and pastor to gain their attendance. A non-attending member may be transferred to another class upon recommendation of the supervisor and/or superintendent in the interest of gaining his regular attendance. Non-attending members should be removed only upon approval of the pastor.

SEC. 4. The attendance count shall be closed not later than midpoint of the Sunday school hour. In unified services the count shall be concluded 30 minutes after the beginning of the service. No person shall be counted more than once in one week even though he attends or teaches in multiple sessions or outreach classes.

The number of sessions used to determine Sunday school average attendance shall also be used to determine outreach average.

Total Accumulative Outreach Attendance	1,785
Total Sunday School Sessions	÷51
Outreach Average Attendance	=35

SEC. 5. Cradle Roll members shall be children under four years of age, enrolled in the Cradle Roll department, who do not attend Sunday school. Cradle Roll members shall be enrolled by the Cradle Roll supervisor or "department visitors." All Cradle Roll members are a part of the total Sunday school enrollment, just as are Home Department members.

All children on the Cradle Roll should be considered as prospects for the Nursery Department. The parents of these children are prospects for the Young Adult Department or class.

Any children on the Cradle Roll who have not started attending Sunday school by their fourth birthday should be transferred to the prospect list of the Kindergarten Department.

Children remain on the Cradle Roll until they come to Sunday school with some regularity. They are then enrolled in a nursery class suitable for their age — nursery crib, nursery one (toddlers), nursery two, or nursery three. When enrolled in the Nursery Department they are taken off the Cradle Roll and placed on a class roll. They are counted in the Sunday school's enrollment, and in the attendance when they are present.

It is recommended that the Cradle Roll be sponsored as a project by a young married people's Sunday school class, or a young married people's department.

Sec. 6. Home Department members shall be enrolled by the supervisor of the Home Department.

When Home Department members are present in the school they should be counted as visitors in the class where they attend.

It is recommended that the Home Department be sponsored as a project by a middle-aged or older adult class or department of the Sunday school.

Sec. 7. When a church sponsors an outreach Sunday school, enrollment and attendance of the outreach Sunday school are to be credited to the parent Sunday school until the outreach becomes an organized church. Records from the outreach school are to be included in the records of the sponsoring school, but shown as a separate item in local and district reports as follows:

Attendance	126
Outreach School	23
Total	149

Where two or more churches sponsor the same outreach school, enrollment and attendance figures are to be equally divided among sponsoring churches. An outreach school shall be defined as a group with reasonable expectation of becoming an organized church, or an extension group with more than one class.

SEC. 8. When a group of persons under the supervision of the associate superintendent of outreach or under the Home Department meets regularly each week for not less than one-half hour of Bible study at a time or place other than the regular Sunday school, such a group shall be known as an outreach class. Outreach classes shall be counted in enrollment and attendance as follows:

Sunday School Attendance	150
Outreach Classes	35
Total	185

Outreach class attendance shall be posted the following Sunday. An outreach class must continue at least eight weeks to be included in the yearly average.

ARTICLE II. Classes and Departments

SECTION 1. For the teaching work and certain group activities the Sunday school shall be divided into classes on the basis of school grade or age and other conditions. Each class shall be under the care of a competent teacher suited to the group age.

SEC. 2. For the most effective work a Sunday school should be departmentalized. Even a small school, if there be more than one class for children, will progress more rapidly if there is a department supervisor to correlate the work of the children's classes. As soon as there are two or more classes within a given age-group, e.g., juniors (nine to 11 years), someone should be appointed as the junior supervisor even though a separate worship service for juniors is not possible. A youth supervisor and an adult supervisor should be appointed as soon as there are two or more classes in either of these age-groups. It shall be the duty of the department supervisor, in harmony with the Manual and the bylaws of the Sunday school: (a) to attend all cabinet meetings, and to preside at all meetings of his department workers; (b) with the superintendent to nominate to the pastor such teachers as may be needed, and provide such other officers and helpers as may be required for the most efficient work of the department; and (c) to cooperate with the pastor and superintendent in their plans for the general advancement of the school.

SEC. 3. Each Sunday school class above primary age should be organized to carry out Christian service projects and other helpful class activities.

SEC. 4. The Department of Church Schools will, upon request, furnish full instructions for a plan of departmentalization of the Sunday school.

ARTICLE III. Officers and Their Duties

SECTION 1. The officers of the Sunday school shall be a superintendent, an associate superintendent of outreach, an assistant superintendent, a secretary, a treasurer, department supervisors, and such other officers as may be needed. These shall be elected according to 159.9-59.16, 164.1, and 165.2.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the superintendent (a) to administer the affairs of the school according to the provisions of the Manual and the bylaws; (b) to counsel with the supervisors and/or teachers relative to their work; (c) to give an annual report to the annual church meeting; (d) to attend the District Assembly; (e) to cooperate with the District Church School Board and Department of Church Schools in the promotion of the church school work.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the associate superintendent of outreach, in cooperation with the pastor and superintendent, to initiate, staff, and supervise outreach classes and schools. These may be home Bible study groups, children's Bible clubs, neighborhood Sunday schools, or other group meetings for Bible study to reach new people who do not ordinarily attend the church.

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of the secretary (a) to be familiar with the official Nazarene Sunday school record system; (b) to keep an accurate record of the enrollment of the entire school (regular enrollment cards should be used), the record of attendance, absentees, visitors, and such other items as may be required; (c) to keep correct minutes of all meetings of the Sunday school cabinet; (d) and to fill out and forward promptly all statistical and informational blanks requested by the pastor, the District Church School Board, and the Department of Church Schools.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the treasurer to receive all funds raised by the Sunday school and direct disbursement of the same as directed by the budget and policies laid down by the church school board. He shall keep an accurate account of all finances and make a monthly, detailed report to the cabinet and a quarterly report to the church school board of all receipts, expenditures, and obligations.

In the small school one person may serve as secretary-treasurer.

Sec. 6. It is well to have a librarian, whose duty will be (a) to have charge of all Sunday school literature, books, and periodicals, and direct their proper distribution; (b) to promote and have charge of a workers' library; (c) to create through the school an appreciation of wholesome literature and encourage the reading of the same.

Sec. 7. A music committee with the following duties may be profitable: (a) to have general charge of the music of the school; (b) to see that proper persons are selected to lead the singing and play the musical instruments; (c) to see that proper songbooks are provided for each department; (d) to create throughout the school an appreciation for wholesome music in Christian worship and character building; (e) to organize and promote such ensemble work as may be desirable and helpful.

ARTICLE IV. Administration and Supervision

SECTION 1. This school is an organic part of the local church, and of the local church educational program. It is under the general supervision of the church school board, the care of the pastor, and the immediate leadership of the Sunday school superintendent.

SEC. 2. There shall be a Sunday school cabinet, in which the administrative work of the school is vested. The cabinet shall consist of the general officers and the department supervisors, if any, of the Sunday school. (In case it shall be deemed preferable by the local church, the members of the church school board and/or the Sunday school teachers may be included in the membership of the Sunday school cabinet.) This cabinet is the executive body of the school and shall meet regularly on the _____ day of each week (or month), with the superintendent or pastor presiding. This cabinet shall consider (a) the general interests of the school, and lay and execute plans for the realization of these interests; and (b) recommend to the church school board such matters as should have its consideration.

SEC. 3. A Sunday school workers' meeting shall be held the _____ day of each quarter, month, or week. It may be (a) a general meeting composed of all teachers and officers, (b) a general meeting with department or class meetings following, or (c) a meeting by departments for the full time. In general meetings the superintendent, pastor, or educational director may preside. These meetings shall be planned in advance to provide for devotions, review of progress, study and discussion for improvement, new plans, and general inspiration and fellowship. General policies and needs developing out of these meetings shall be passed on to the proper executive body for official action and execution.

ARTICLE V. Conventions

1. District Conventions. — All pastors, local directors of Christian education, Sunday school superintendents, church school board chairmen, and department supervisors shall be members of the District Convention ex officio. [239]

Each local Sunday school shall elect additional representatives equal to 25 percent of the officers and teachers of the school.

The church school board shall serve as a nominating committee to select at least the number of nominees to be elected.

Nominees shall be chosen from Sunday school officers, teachers, and workers in other church school areas such as vacation Bible school, Caravan, Christian Service Training, Christian Family Life, Home Department, Cradle Roll, and Visitation.

In selecting nominees attention should be given to areas of church school work to be emphasized in the convention. Efforts should be made to select nominees from teachers in the various age-groups of the Sunday school. All nominees shall be members of the Church of the Nazarene.

Representatives shall be elected by ballot at any regular Sunday school session. Members of the Sunday school of junior high age (12 years) and older shall be eligible to vote. It is provided, however, that the local church school board may serve as the elective body for convention representatives where desired.

Plurality vote shall be sufficient for election. In case elected representatives cannot attend, alternate representatives shall be designated in the order of the votes received.

Interested persons not elected as representatives should be encouraged to attend the convention.

Elected representatives should be given priority in any financial assistance provided by the church.

2. General Convention. — Members of the Department of Church Schools, the staff of the Department, all district superintendents, District Church School Board chairmen, and professors of Christian education at our colleges and seminary shall be representatives ex officio, to the General Convention. [337.3]

Each district shall elect representatives equal to the number of its District Church School Board or a number equal to 1 percent of the Sunday school officers and teachers on the district, whichever number is larger.

The district superintendent, District Church School Board chairman, and at least three others appointed by them shall constitute a nominating committee who shall select three times the number of nominees to be elected.

Nominees should include the most active church school workers on the district—district directors, District Church School Board members, local directors of Christian education, outstanding Sunday school superintendents and teachers.

Persons should not be elected who will serve as delegates to the General Nazarene Young People's Society Convention or the General Nazarene World Missionary Society Convention. The three conventions run concurrently, and one person cannot effectively represent his district in more than one convention.

Representatives shall be elected by ballot in the District Church School Convention within 18 months prior to the General Convention. Fifty percent of the representatives shall be laymen. When the total number is uneven, the extra representative shall be a layman. If no convention is held, representatives shall be elected at the District Assembly.

A plurality vote shall be sufficient for election.

In case elected representatives cannot attend, alternate delegates shall be designated in the order of the votes received.

Representatives who attend the convention should have financial assistance from the district comparable to expenses provided from the district for Nazarene Young People's Society and Nazarene World Missionary Society convention delegates.

ARTICLE VI. Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the members present and voting at a General Assembly.

CHAPTER III

702. ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES

702.1. Parliamentary Procedure

We recommend the adoption of Robert's Rules of Order when no definite method of parliamentary procedure is indicated in the Manual. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

702.2. Annuities

The General Board and institutions of the church are prohibited from using annuity gifts until such have become their valid property by the death of the annuitant, and that such gifts are to be carefully invested in funds usually accepted as trust funds by the courts of the land. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923, 1968.]

702.3. Debt

No institution may incur any debt on the strength of pledges, and pledges are not to be counted as assets. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1923, 1968.]

702.4. Bible Societies

(1) Approved Bible Societies

The Church of the Nazarene places special emphasis upon the Bible as the written revelation of God, and we believe that it is the only effective agency to win new followers to Jesus Christ, and because there is an increasing need for more copies of the Scripture; therefore be it Resolved, First, That the General Assembly express its hearty approval of and sympathy with the work of the United Bible Societies around the world.

Second, That we endorse the observance of Universal Bible Sunday, directing attention on this day to the essential place the Scriptures should occupy in the lives of Christian people.

Third, That the General Assembly authorize its general secretary, or an alternate whom he may appoint, to attend during the ensuing quadrennium each annual session of the Advisory Council of the American Bible Society held in December at Bible House in New York City.

(2) Offering for Bible Societies

Resolved, That the Church of the Nazarene designate the second Sunday of December of each year as a special time for the presentation of this important matter and the taking of an offering for the American Bible Society in the United States, and the respective Bible Societies in Canada and the British Isles; also that a special effort be made to have all of our churches take part in such an offering. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

NOTE: It is understood that our churches in Scotland send their contributions to the National Bible Society in Scotland, the churches in England to the British and Foreign Bible Society, and the churches of Canada to the Canadian Bible Society. The churches of the United States forward contributions to our denominational Headquarters, 6401 The Paseo, Kansas City, Mo. 64131, U.S.A., for the support of the American Bible Society.)

702.5. Athletics

The schools and colleges of the Church of the Nazarene shall be bound by such regulations regarding intercollegiate activities as the General Department of Education shall decide. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

702.6. Dramatics

WHEREAS, There is danger in the excessive use of dramatic productions in our schools and colleges; be it

Resolved, That this practice be carefully restricted and greater emphasis be placed on the spiritual exercise that leads to sound Christian experience. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1940, 1968.]

702.7. Trustees of Nazarene Colleges

We request our college boards of control to revise their constitution and bylaws as soon as possible so as to equalize their membership between ministers and laymen. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1956, 1968.]

702.8. Use of Church Buildings

This General Assembly goes on record as being opposed to the use of any part of our church sanctuaries for recreational and entertainment purposes. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

702.9. The "Manual"

Be it Resolved, That the members of the Manual Editing Committee appointed by the Board of General Superintendents be and they are hereby constituted the Manual Editing Committee; and be it further

Resolved, That the Manual Editing Committee be and they are hereby authorized to harmonize conflicting statements which may appear in the record of the actions of the Eighteenth General Assembly in regard to changes in the Manual; and also to make such editorial changes in the text of the present Manual as will correct the language without altering the meaning; also to make such editorial changes in the copy of the newly adopted matter as may serve to correct the language without altering the meaning.

The Manual Editing Committee is hereby further authorized to substitute plainly understood words or expressions for confusing words or expressions, to revise the numbering of chapters, paragraphs, sections, and other divisions of the Manual in harmony with any actions adopted by the Eighteenth General Assembly, and also to prepare the index in harmony with any actions adopted by the Eighteenth General Assembly. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1972.]

702.10. "Manual" Appendix Review

Any item remaining in Chapters III and V of the Appendix for three quadrennia (12 years) without reconsideration shall be referred by the Committee on Reference to the proper committee of the General Assembly for the same consideration as a memorial to the General Assembly. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

702.11. Tenure of Committees

702.12. General Assembly Business

RESOLUTIONS AND PETITIONS

Rule 26. Presentation. District Assemblies, a committee authorized by the District Assembly, the General Board or any of its recognized departments, official boards or commissions of the general church, or five members or more of the General Assembly may present resolutions and petitions for the consideration of the General Assembly in accordance with the following rules:

a. Resolutions and petitions shall be presented in triplicate and typewritten on the official form furnished by the General Secretary.

b. Each resolution or petition presented will include the subject and the name of delegates or group making the presentation.

c. They shall be presented to the General Secretary at least 90 days prior to the convening of the Assembly to be numbered and sent to the Reference Committee in order that they may be printed in the Delegate's Handbook.

Rule 27. Resolutions and Petitions for Late Reference. With the consent of the Assembly, resolutions, petitions, and other items for consideration by the Assembly may be presented to the General Secretary for reference to a legislative committee no later than 5 p.m. on the second day of business.

Rule 28. Proposals for "Manual" Changes. Proposals for changes in the church Manual must be presented in writing and shall give paragraph and section of Manual to be affected and the text of the change should it be adopted. These shall be referred to committees in accordance with Rule 35. These committees shall consider such proposals and report their recommendations to the General Assembly. If adopted, the proposals shall be submitted to the Manual Editing Committee to be harmonized with other Manual provisions.

CHAPTER IV

703. INTERPRETATIONS OF CHURCH LAW

Judiciary Actions

703.1. Has the District Advisory Board the right to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination?

Ans. The District Advisory Board has no authority to transfer a member of the District Assembly to another denomination.

703.2. (a) Does a district superintendent have the right to give his written approval to the sale of church property without the consent of the District Advisory Board?

(b) Does he need the consent of the District Advisory Board?

Ans. (a) The district superintendent does have the right to give his written approval of the sale of church property without the approval of the District Advisory Board.

(b) He does not need the consent of the District Advisory Board.

703.3. Relating to General Rules 25 § 1 (7), "membership in or fellowship with oath-bound secret orders or fraternities."

(a) Does this mean that the Church of the Nazarene will not permit its members to hold their former insurance in this class of orders, provided that the fees are paid for this purpose only and there is no fellowship with the organization?

(b) Does a church have the right to maintain the membership of a person when he holds membership in a secret order solely for the purpose of keeping his insurance while it bars from membership other persons because they are members of the same order?

Ans. (a) (b) According to 25 § 1 (7) of our Manual one cannot be a member of the Church of the Nazarene while holding membership in an oath-bound secret order.

703.4. General Rules 24 § 1 (3) relating to "Using of tobacco in any of its forms, or the trafficking therein."

Does this prohibit church membership in the Church of the Nazarene to a person who is employed in a store, either as clerk or manager, where among other things he is obliged to sell tobacco?

Ans. There is a distinction between trafficking as the owner of a business and selling as a clerk and, therefore, we would not interpret the selling as a clerk as violating the letter of the Manual.

703.5. At a church meeting called for the purpose of voting on the recall of a pastor, is it legal to count the votes of members not present at the time of such voting?

Ans. It would be illegal to count the votes of members not present when voting on the recall of a pastor.

703.6. If a licensed minister meets all the requirements for the renewal of his license according to 403.2, is the District Assembly obliged to renew such license?

Ans. A District Assembly is not under obligation according to 403.2 to renew said license.

703.7. A church has a debt on its property. It elects a finance committee of three who are members of the church board with instructions to receive and disburse all money which applies to the church debt. Has the church the right to make this committee custodian of that part of the church funds and to receive and disburse the same independent of the regularly elected church treasurer?

Ans. The church does have such a right.

703.8. A pastor resigns. The district superintendent calls the church board together to consider the appointment of a man to fill the vacancy until the next District Assembly. He finds that the church board had previously held a meeting and elected a man for the pastorate for the remainder of the District Assembly year, and also had called him for the year following. Is the church acting within its rights?

Ans. The church is not acting within its rights.

703.9. In case a district superintendent and pastor fail to investigate charges filed against a minister in their Assembly District as directed in 502 of the Manual, does this incriminate the district superintendent or the pastor for failure to make this investigation?

Ans. A district superintendent would be incriminated if he failed to investigate written accusations against a minister in his assembly district. The fact of his amenability to his District Assembly is evidence that he will be subject to charges for failing to discharge his official duty. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1928.]

703.10. Clarify the status of an elder who may be dropped from the local membership roll on account of absence of over a six-month period, which is unsatisfactorily explained, and the nonsupport of the church during this period. If a local church drops his name from the roll, what is his assembly relationship?

Ans. It is the opinion of the Committee on Judiciary that the dropping of an elder from the church roll of which he is a member, under the conditions mentioned, cannot affect his status as a member of his assembly district. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1940.]

CHAPTER V

704. CURRENT MORAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES

704.1. Prayer and Bible in School and Nation

WHEREAS, The United States of America was founded on Christian principles and the law of God as embodied in the Scriptures; and

WHEREAS, The First Amendment of the Constitution states that "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof," and

WHEREAS, Prayer and reading of the Bible were never known to be in opposition to the Constitution of this great nation; and

WHEREAS, We have throughout our history been a God-fearing and God-honoring Christian nation; and

WHEREAS, Certain religious, atheistic, and secular forces have set about to tear down this time-tested fabric of our national life; be it

Resolved, That the Sixteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene in session at Portland, Ore., in June, 1964, be recorded as supporting:

(1) All present references to God on our national currency and in the pledge of allegiance and other reverent usage

(2) The present system of the chaplaincy in federal, state, and local governments

(3) Voluntary prayer and Bible reading in any public, government, or private institutions

(4) The traditional practice of public school baccalaureate and

(5) Prayer and other religious observances by public and civic organizations. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1964.]

704.2. War and Military Service

We believe that the ideal world condition is that of peace and that it is the full obligation of the Christian Church to use its influence to seek such means as will enable the nations of the earth to be at peace and to devote all of its agencies for the propagation of the message of peace.

However, we realize that we are living in a world where evil forces and philosophies are actively in conflict with these Christian ideals and that there may arise such international emergencies as will require a nation to resort to war in defense of its ideals, its freedom, and its existence.

While thus committed to the cause of peace, the Church of the Nazarene recognizes that the supreme allegiance of the Christian is due to God, and therefore it does not endeavor to bind the conscience of its members relative to participation in military service in case of war, although it does believe that the individual Christian as a citizen is bound to give service to his own nation in all ways that are compatible with the Christian faith and the Christian way of life.

We also recognize that, as an outgrowth of the Christian teaching and of the Christian desire for peace on earth, there are among our membership individuals who have conscientious objection to certain forms of military service. Therefore the Church of the Nazarene claims for conscientious objectors within its membership the same exemptions and considerations regarding military service as are accorded members of recognized noncombatant religious organizations.

The Church of the Nazarene, through its general secretary, shall set up a register whereon those persons who supply evidence of being members of the Church of the Nazarene may record their convictions as conscientious objectors. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1940, 1968.]

704.3. Race and Discrimination

We, the members of the Seventeenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, wish to reiterate our historic stand of Christian compassion for men of all races. We believe that God is the Creator of all men, and that of one blood are all men created.

We believe that each individual, regardless of race, color, or creed, should have equality before law, including the right to vote, equal access to educational opportunities, and to all public facilities, and to the equal opportunity, according to one's ability, to earn a living free from any job or economic discrimination.

We urge our churches everywhere to continue and strengthen programs of education to promote racial understanding and harmony. We also feel that the scriptural admonition, "Follow peace with all men" (Hebrews 12:14), should guide the actions of our people. We urge that each member of the Church of the Nazarene humbly examine his personal attitudes and actions toward other races, as a first step in achieving the Christian goal of full participation by all in the life of the church and the entire community.

We reemphasize our belief that holiness of heart and life is the basis for right living. We believe that complete understanding between racial groups will come when the hearts of men have been changed by complete submission to Jesus Christ, and that the essence of true Christianity consists in loving God with one's heart, soul, mind, and strength, and one's neighbor as oneself. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

704.4. Tobacco and Its Effects on Health and Morals

In view of our historic stand on the use of tobacco and its attendant evils; and

WHEREAS, Medical evidence documented by the American Medical Association, the American Cancer Society, the Federal Trade Commission, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, and other associations throughout the world, have condemned its use as a health hazard, and have shown conclusively that its use may produce and result in changes in normal bodily physiology, both serious and permanent; and

WHEREAS, We are admonished to maintain our bodies as the temple of the Holy Ghost; and

WHEREAS, We are concerned about the protection of our youth against any enemy of health and morals; and

WHEREAS, These organizations and agencies have condemned the use of tobacco; and

WHEREAS, The Federal Trade Commission has ordered the placing of warning of the health hazard on each package of cigarettes; and

WHEREAS, The American Cancer Society has conducted a concerted campaign against smoking, be it

Resolved, That the Church of the Nazarene encourage these agencies and organizations in a stand thus taken, and send to each a statement of our support. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

704.5. Separation of Church and State

We, the Eighteenth General Assembly of the Church of the Nazarene, desiring to reaffirm our continuing concern that our great Protestant heritage be understood and safeguarded, remind our people that both our political and religious freedom rest upon biblical concepts of the dignity of man as God's creation and the sanctity of his individual conscience. We encourage our people to participate in political activity in support of these historic concepts and to be ever vigilant against threats to our precious freedom.

We recognize that, in the United States, separation of church and state is a tradition which has implemented these principles at the national, state, and local levels. Believing that our precious freedoms are constantly in danger, we urge election of men to public office at all levels of government who believe in these principles and who are answerable only to God and the constituency which elected them when carrying out a public trust. Further, we resist any invasion of these principles by religious groups seeking special favors.

We believe that the role of the Church is to be prophetic and constantly to remind the people that "righteousness exalteth a nation." [Adopted by General Assembly, 1972.]

704.6. Modern or Folk Dancing

Resolved, That we go on record as being opposed to modern or folk dancing, in either ballrooms or other places, even under the guise of physical education classes. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1952, 1968.]

704.7. Magazines, Radio, and Television

Since we are living in a day of great moral confusion in which we face the potential encroachment of the evils of the day into the sacred precincts of our homes through various avenues such as current literature, radio, and the more modern medium of television, it is essential that the most rigid safeguards be observed to keep our homes from becoming secularized and worldly.

While we recognize these agencies are of great value in the propagation of the gospel and the salvation of souls, we do deplore the low moral tone of much current literature, comic magazines, articles and pictures of some magazines, and the contents of many books.

We do likewise deplore the sensual appeal of many radio and television programs. We believe it to be detrimental to the welfare of our homes to listen to or view programs of the Hollywood type of movies or shows of the vaudeville level. We therefore call upon our leaders and pastors to give strong emphasis in our periodicals and from our pulpits to such fundamental truths as will develop the principle of discrimination between the evil and the good to be found in these mediums.

We suggest that the standard given to John Wesley by his mother, namely, "Whatsoever weakens your reason, impairs the tenderness of your conscience, obscures your sense of God, or takes off the relish of spiritual things, whatever increases the authority of your body over mind, that thing for you is sin," form the basis for this teaching of discrimination.

We especially recommend that the reading, listening, and viewing on the Sabbath day be consistent with our high standards of holiness, and that we do not allow any television program to become a substitute for church attendance. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1952, 1968.]

704.8. Public Swimming

Resolved, That our people exercise Christian judgment in the matter of swimming in public places in the same manner that we urge them to exercise modesty in the matter of dress. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1968.]

704.9. Pornography

Realizing that sales of pornography are increasing throughout the world due especially to promotion of such by organized crime, and that pornographic materials degrade the human, violate the commandments of God, and corrupt the family, the Church of the Nazarene resolves actively to oppose pornography in all its forms by all means possible. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1972]

704.10. Homosexuality

We recognize the depth of the perversion that leads to homosexual acts, but affirm the biblical position that such acts are sinful and subject to the wrath of God. We believe the grace of God sufficient to overcome the practice of homosexuality (I Corinthians 6: 9-11). We urge clear preaching and teaching concerning Bible standards of sex morality. We deplore any action or statement that would seem to imply compatibility between Christian morality and the practice of homosexuality. [Adopted by General Assembly, 1972]

704.11. Abortion

We believe induced abortion to be permissible only on the basis of sound medical reasons affecting the life of the fetus and that of the mother. We oppose induced abortion for personal convenience or population control. We also oppose liberalizing of the laws which allows induced abortion on demand. There may be pregnancies that require deliberate termination by therapeutic abortion, but such a decision should be made only on the basis of adequate medical and spiritual counselling. [Adopted by the General Assembly, 1972]

704.12. Drugs

Because of their harmful effects, we condemn the widespread misuse and abuse of drugs, i.e., hallucinogenics, stimulants, and depressants. Only on competent medical advice and medical supervision should such drugs be used. [Adopted by the General Assembly, 1972]
