Play Cast Chosen: Sophomores Practice

"Your Town and Mine," a three-act dramatic comedy by Robert Ray, is the play the Sophomore class has selected to present on April 27.

The play centers around Dr. Fuller (Lee Eby) minister of a church which is financed by domineering Mrs. Bartruff (Carol Bryant), her nephew, Jasper Bartruff (Jim Martin), and banker Frank Graham (Asa Sparks).

The minister's son, Lloyd (Wayne Murphy) is engaged to Mrs. Bartruff's daughter, Cecile (Jan Penix), but Mrs. Bartruff has chosen Dickson Adams, (Don Pyles) as Cecile's future husband.

In order to get Lloyd out of town, Mrs. Bartruff demands that the church board ask Dr. Fuller to resign.

She bases her demands on the fact that the Fullers are sheltering a girl from the "wrong side of the tracks," Anna Reed, (Elaine Huff) in their home.

Others in the cast are Janice (Bonnie Williams) the minister's wife, who is a gentle, understanding person; Amanda Swope, (Nina Griggs) the housekeeper, who is the romantic interest of Patrick O'Leary (Rusty Hartsell); Jenny Collins (Sarah Jones) a poor young girl, and her mother, Mrs. Collins (Tonya Beals).

J. M. Clark, D.D. (Eddie Cloud) is a visiting minister.

Practice sessions are getting underway under the direction of Carol Anne Asbury.

Reporters Not Reporting!

Students, do you feel that your club or class is being slighted in TREV-ECHOES? The reason may be this: club reporters have not been on the job!

The TREV-ECHOES staff is busy and not always able to find out what is going on in your clubs and classes; so it is the responsibility of the reporter to get the news to the staff.

TREV-ECHOES is interested in any activities in which your organization may be participating. So come on, reporters, get busy and put your news in the limelight.

You may contact anyone on the TREV-ECHOES staff for help in writing your story.

Read "News Flash"

We have all been enjoying the "News Flash" placed on our Bulletin Board from day to day, written by TREV-ECHOES reporters. Let's keep looking for the news every day so we will be informed on what is going on in the world today.

What is conscience: It is the guardian of the very best within us.

Recently a group of students, under the direction of Miss Mable Cooner of the speech department, presented a program of entertainment at Tennessee Preparatory School.

Those participating were Carol Asbury, Ralph Lee, M. K. Weaver, Bonnie Faye Williams and Miss Cooner.

Peabody Students to Present Vocal Recital

On Friday evening, February 10, a group of Peabody students will present a voice recital in the Fine Arts Building under the direction of the Music Department.

Jerry Jennings, a tenor from Paducah, Kentucky, was soloist in the Abilene Christian College Choir before coming to Peabody College.

Miss Dorothy Warden, a senior, has sung the role of Susanna in "Figaro." A soprano, she has sung with the Peabody Choir, the Cathedral Choir, and is a soloist with the Methodist Choir.

Roberta Womack, a contralto, from Nashville, recently had a solo part in "The Messiah." Now a junior at Peabody College, she is a soloist in the Peabody Choir.

Shirley Nonhof, a sophomore, will be the piano accompanist. She is a voice major at Peabody.

This group will sing such numbers as "Il Troubadour," and "La Boheme." They will also sing songs in English and each one will sing an Opera Ario.

Valentine Banquet To Be Saturday, Feb. 11

Saturday is the big evening! Preparation is nearing completion for the social event of the season—the Valentine Banquet.

Plans indicate that this year's banquet will be one of the most beautiful Trevecca has ever had. The theme is being kept a secret by the banquet committees until Saturday evening.

Committee chairmen are: Decoration, Jim Martin; Entertainment, Asa Sparks; Food, Tonya Beals; and Publicity, Wesley Eby.

The banquet will be formal.

Student Teachers Observe

On Tuesday, January 31, the practice teachers, accompanied by Miss Marie Perry and Professor Howick, visited Peabody Demonstration School. They spent the day observing the first, second, and third grades. From such observation the practice teachers hope to learn how to be better and more capable teachers in the future by watching expert teachers of today.

Faith at Its Highest

"The cup which My Father hath given Me, shall I not drink it?" This was a greater thing to say and to do than calm the seas or raise the dead. Prophets and Apostles could work wondrous miracles, but they could not always do and suffer the will of God. To do and suffer God's will is still the highest form of faith, the most sublime Christian achievement. To have the bright aspiration of a young life forever blighted; to bear a daily burden never congenial and to see no relief; to be fettered by some incurable physical disability; to be stripped bare of loved ones, until you stand alone to meet the shocks of life; to be able to say in such a school of discipline, "The cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?" This is faith at its highest, and spiritual success at its crowning point.

Great faith is exhibited not so much in ability to do, as to suffer. To have a sympathizing God we must have a suffering Saviour, and there is no true fellowship with another save in the heart of him who has been afflicted likewise. We cannot do good to others save at a cost to ourselves, and our afflictions are the price we pay for our ability to sympathize. He who would be a helper must first be a sufferer. We cannot have the highest happiness of life in succoring others without tasting the cup which the Lord Jesus drank. The school of suffering graduates rare scholars.—The Treasury.

A Christian—Every Day!

When are Christian ethics going to become part of the everyday life of the average student? It would seem that the most important aspect of Christian experience is a practical use of Christian ethics in daily living. However, the impression often gained is not always one of Christian ethics in practice.

We are lectured to, preached to, and just plain talked to about the fruits of Christian living, but it seems that many of us place our religion in a separate plane from our everyday conduct. If our own personal religion cannot aid us in our relations to our fellow students and our responsibilities, then we are denying ourselves one of the fundamental benefits of our experience.

There are so many considerations which can be observed by each one of us every day which will show we believe in Christian ethics. The seemingly unimportant things such as following the rules of the library and cafeteria, not because they should be followed just as rules, but because the fundamental basis for the rules is consideration for the other fellow.

It is often easier to be a Christian in areas that we do not come in contact with in our everyday life, but when we must act in daily situations using some of our Christian principles we fall down and tend to rationalize saying that really how we act in this situation has nothing to do with our Christian ethics.

It seems to us that the little things are the important things. The big things are always only on the horizon of our experience; and when they do enter into our experience we can handle them in a Christian way. So let's treat all aspects of our daily life, "the little thing", as being very important to us as Christians in the way that we handle each situation.

In my heart of memories;
Where I learned to love and worship,
As I kneeled at Mother's knees.

Social Security Notice

1. To delay joining Social Security until April 15, 1956, is to lose four "dropout years" with a resultant delay in full coverage until 1961. Full coverage may be had as early as April 1st, 1956, if one joins now.

2. Social Security benefits already earned deteriorate if one does not continue to participate. This is true even if one is "fully covered" by forty quarters of "covered employment."

3. Licensed ministers should sign the "waiver" although they are not now earning $400.00 per year in the ministry. They would not pay the tax and be covered, but they would not forfeit their opportunity to future participation in Social Security. Such persons should write on the bottom of the card which they are to send to us: "Not now earning $400.00 per year from my ministry."

4. There should be no disadvantage to any minister by joining Social Security.

5. When filling out "waiver" put 1955 in answer to question number five. This can be done until April 15 of this year.

6. If one has already filed his income tax report and did not include his Social Security tax, he may amend his report before April 15th to include the Social Security tax. To do this use page 3, Schedule C, form 1040 of the federal income tax blank.

7. If a minister is in doubt, he should write us and if he knows that he can not be included under Social Security, he should let us know now.

We have sent "waivers" and cards to all men. If these have been misplaced, they can get "waivers" at the Internal Revenue Service and we will send another card upon request.

Chapel Bells

Dr. Mackey spoke from the Scripture "Follow peace with all men, and holiness without which no man shall see the Lord." "After all sins are confessed and forgiven by Christ we are ready to seek and receive the wonderful blessing of Holiness."

A converted Jew, Mrs. Irene Hanley, told her life story. Her heart yearned for a peace she could not find. A personal worker became interested in her and after eight years won her to Christ. She has had to endure much persecution — even been turned from her home. She has held true and her entire family has been saved. She is now a missionary evangelist among her own people here in the United States. An altar service followed her message.

A girls' trio sang, "Then I Met Jesus." Mickey Smith, student preacher, spoke from Acts 27:14-31. The world is in the midst of a great storm. In the midst of the billows, we must listen to God's call and stand firm. Let us "Be of Good Cheer." Christ, our Pilot, can pilot us across the sea of life if we will "abide in the ship." Are you on board this ship? It is the only one which will land us safely on the other side.

On Thursday, Carol Asbury gave a reading. Professor Phillips read some material from the September, 1954, Sunday School Quarterly by Dr. Harper and Professor Greathouse.

This concerns the Church of the Nazarene and the stand it takes on modesty and simplicity of appearance. "If we get steamed up over such a subject," wrote Professor Greathouse, "it is a pretty good sign that something is wrong inside. A sanctified person gladly receives all new light."

Bill Crane sang "He Cannot Fail." Spontaneous testimonies broke out among the students. The presence of God was very real and our hearts were uplifted.

After Ed Whittington sang,

Social Ledger Leaves

Everyone around T. N. C., has really been "socializing" the last few days. Social life around campus has picked up since the girls have taken the boys' place in the social program. Though the girls have less money jingling in their pockets because of this week—"The woman is requested to pay," I believe they certainly agreed it was worth it all.

Another social highlight of the week which is another Trevecca first was the Ping-pong Tournament. M. A. A. president Harold Hughes wasn't there to "Emcee," so Jan Penix was Mistress of Ceremonies. Asa Sparks should be commended for taking charge of the planning. Seeing Bill Taliaferro and Wilma Ingram, Arnetta Childers, and Wayne Gibson on their way home from the tournament, I was told the evening was a large success.

The High School Seniors don't have too much time these days for social events because of their constant practicing on their Senior play. However the "star" acting as Tom Sawyer is too much of a socialite to let this stop him. He's combining work with play. For more interesting details contact Bill Galloway and Linda Hampton.

Chapel Bells

Dr. Mackey spoke. Our best pattern is Jesus. Our physical body is important in order for our spiritual body to develop properly.

On Tuesday, Professor Phillips spoke on the subject, "Lord, teach us to pray." The Lord's Prayer was used as the example.

"Thy word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against Thee" was the basis for Dr. Mackey's message. Between the lids of the Bible are love letters to us from God's Son. Let us read and cherish them as such.

On Thursday, after a girls' trio sang "Harbored in Jesus," students who had a need in their heart began to go to the altar.

Repeat That, Please!

Here is a helper (or more so, a mixer-upper) for the English student:

We'll begin with a box, and the plural is boxes,
But the plural of ox should be oxen, not oxes;

Then one fowl is goose but two are called geese.

You may find a lone mouse, or a whole set of mice,

But the plural of house is houses not hices.

If the plural of man is always called men,

Why shouldn't the plural of pan be pen?

If I speak of a foot, and you show me your feet,

And I give you a bout, would a pair be beet?

If one is a tooth, and a whole set are teeth,

Why should not the plural of booth be beeth.

Then one may be that and these would be those

Yet hat as a plural wouldn't be hose,

And the plural of cat is cats and not cose.

We speak of a brother and also of brethren

But though we say mother, we never say methren.

Then the masculine pronouns are he, his, and him.

But imagine the feminine, she shis, and shim.

So English, I fancy you all will agree,

Is the funniest language you ever did see.

Without a song the altar and front seats were filled. Many received definite help. This is characteristic of the wonderful revival spirit which has been especially blessed for the past few weeks.

Rev. Keys took his text from I Peter. Christ has a pattern for every one of us. Education, position, and money, may be important, but if we leave God out of our life's pattern we will fail.

R. Potter Is Efficient Honor Society President

We have often heard the old adage "Let George do it." Around Trevecca College we have changed that to "Let Ruby do it," and no matter what it is, it's always very capably done by this vivacious brown-eyed brunette.

This "bundle of energy" that we know as Ruby Potter arrived in this world on August 10, 1932, here in Nashville, Tennessee. Ruby liked Nashville so well that she has remained here ever since.

For her introduction to higher learning she chose Hume Fogg High School and Trevecca College. At Hume Fogg she was active in Glee Club, participating in several talent programs; was a member of the Trade and Industrial club and graduated with a commercial award.

Using her commercial training she worked as a secretary following graduation from high school and then in 1952 she came to T. N. C.

Ruby has stayed very active in campus activities the four years she's been here. She has been a member of the A Capella choir four years, serving as a very efficient secretary and treasurer; secretary of the Music Club and treasurer of the Senior Class. She has also been active in campus

Prayer

Prayer is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed;

The motion of a hidden fire

That trembles in the breast.

Prayer is the burden of a sigh,

The falling of a tear,

The upward glancing of an eye,

When none but God is near.

Prayer is the simplest form of speech

That infant lips can try;

Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach

The majesty on high.

Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,

The Christian's native air;

His watch-word at the gates of death;

He enters heaven with prayer.

Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,

Returning from his ways,

While angels in their songs rejoice,

And cry, "Behold, he prays."

O Thou, by whom we come to God,

The Life, the Truth, the Way!

The path of prayer thyself hast trod;

Lord teach us how to pray.

—James Montgomery

publications, acting as typist and circulation editor of the TREVECHOES and club's editor of the Darda during the year 1954-55. Her organ music in chapel is much enjoyed.

Ruby has also been active intellectually and has been a member of the Honor Society during the years 1953-54 and 1955-56. This year she has the "honor" of being Honor Society president.

Ruby has been a member of Grace church nearly all her life and has won a prominent place in church activities. She serves as organist, teaches an intermediate Sunday school class of girls and is active in the N.Y.P.S.

"Ruby" has truly been a "jewell" of a student at T. N. C. Her life and influence have meant much. We pay tribute to one of "Trevecca's Best".

Strickland Scores 30 as UPC Routs H.S., 79-28

The Upperclassmen, although Larry Finger and Harold Hughes were absent from the starting lineup, showed amazing strength by blanketing the High School 79 to 28.

The scoring for the Upperclassmen was scattered like this: Strickland, 30; Schurman and Evans, 16 each; Bullock, 9; and Smith 8.

F. Spruill, Kelly, A. Spruill, and Toney constituted the scoring power of the High School by scoring 10, 7, 7, and 4 points respectively.

A determined Sophomore team out-rebounded and out-shot a slow Upperclass team to register a 47 to 32 win, Saturday.

Great Men Are Made

This is the month when we celebrate the birthdays of two great men. The date of their birth is of very little import perhaps in the light of their success. For great men are not born, they are made; yes, they are made by their daily making the wise choice, and pursuing that course to the end.

Garber Champ in First Ping-pong Tournament

All went according to expectation in the Friday night ping-pong finals of Trevecca's first Ping-pong tournament.

Leroy Garber, with the finesse and superiority it takes to become a champion, took the Men's Singles from Fred Thurman.

Judy Wallace a high school senior from West Virginia, defeated Winnie Halstead in the finals, and Gwen Pearson in the semi-finals, to gain the Girls' Singles title.

Two strong contestants in the Girls' Division, Nina Griggs and Dolly Smith, were forced to withdraw from tournament semi-finals because of illness.

The seemingly unbeatable combination of Garber and Calkin won over Martin and Eby to take the doubles first place.

Professor Phillips presented new ping-pong paddles to the winners.

The tournament was sponsored by the M. A. A., and planned by Harold Hughes and Asa Sparks.

Gill Leads Frosh Victory

Ray Gill, playing his best game of the season, led the Freshmen squad to a 46 to 33 victory over the High School Tuesday by scoring 13 points.

Hampton hit 67% of his shots to lead his teammates in scoring, with 10.
