Thanksgiving Banquet To Be Nov. 20

The season of Thanksgiving is approaching and with it the annual Thanksgiving banquet sponsored by the College Senior Class. The event will take place in the cafeteria on November 20 at 7:45 p.m. Tickets will be on sale the week prior to the occasion. The menu is to be that of a traditional Thanksgiving dinner. Decorations and dinner music will furnish a typical banquet atmosphere, and the program planned will be one of interest to all attending. You may dress formally, semi-formally or just in dress-up clothes.

Missionary Highlights

Chapel Service

Ding! Dong! The bells ringing in the crisp cool air send a ray of warmth to the hearts of T. N. C. students. It is time again for chapel service.

Dr. Mackey started the week with one of his excellent messages, as only he can give, on "School Life Relationships."

On the following Tuesday we were privileged to hear Rev. Everett Howard, a returned missionary from Cape Verde Islands now working on the Texas-Mexican district. Bro. Howard vividly portrayed the need and the victories won on Cape Verde Island. The job of a Protestant missionary in these islands was not easy as the Cape Verdes had been held in Catholicism for four hundred years. Our hearts were thrilled with such stories as the one of the little Cape Verdian Nazarene Church which was spared during an earthquake on the Island of Fire. We left chapel with more of a missionary zeal in our hearts.

On Wednesday Dean L. P. Gresham spoke on "The Revival of Conscience." This message brought many interesting events to our mind from times of the past.

On the following day another member of our faculty, Professor Greathouse, brought a lecture on Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation. It was brought out that the main contribution of his Reformation was the substitution

Panel Discussion Has Interest

Members of the faculty and student body met in the McClurkan building on Friday evening, November 6, and presented a program on "How To Be A Good Citizen." The program was divided into three sections as follows: 1. "How to Be a Good Citizen"—presented by Professor Howick; 2. "A Good Citizen and Race Segregation"—discussed by a panel of four: Dr. Adams, Professor Richardson, Henry Cooper and Bob Bledsoe. 3. "A Good Citizen is an Informed Citizen"—presented in conclusion by Dr. Gresham, including a bird's eye view of world events today.

The program was beneficial and enlightening.

Dean Writes For Herald

In a recent issue of Herald of Holiness an article appeared which was written by Dean L. P. Gresham. "Through the Eyes of Succeeding Generations" effectively portrays the contagious influence that John Wesley had in his century. The article was one of several included in this issue of the Herald.

In his article Dr. Gresham not only presented his personal ideas of Wesley's influence, but brought in quotations from personalities of the past. He quoted the English poet Southey, "I consider Wesley as the most influential mind of the last century, the man who will have produced the greatest effects centuries or millenniums hence."

Dr. Gresham brought out that Methodism largely forsook the Wesleyan pattern and emphasis, but the General Board of Evan-

School For Blind To Present Program

The Tennessee School for the Blind, located here in Nashville, is to have students represented here on November 13 at 7:30 p.m., to present a concert in the Alumni Auditorium. The approximate twenty-five or thirty performers, playing in a band, are either totally or almost totally blind. The director of the band, Mr. Rice, has arranged a miscellaneous program of band, vocal piano, and group numbers.

This program is being sponsored by the College Senior Class. Under the direction of their newly elected president, James Millard, they have been working hard to provide this event for your entertainment. With the promise of a very interesting performance, they are urging that you attend.

Clothing Drive Is Success

Many Koreans will be warm this winter as a result of the recent "clothes for Korea" drive at Trevecca. A large number of students, teachers, and friends responded by giving warm clothing.

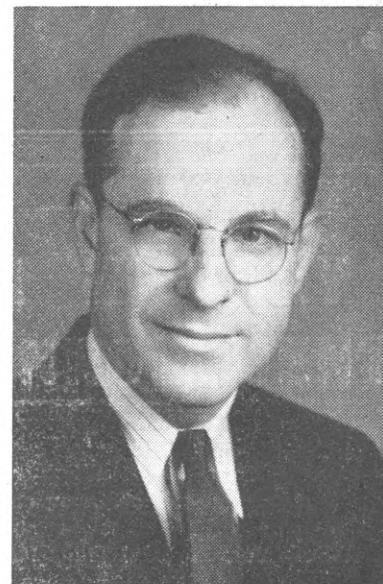

The project, sponsored by the Journalism Class and headed by Rose Merchant, was inspired by a letter from Henry W. Stroman, a Nazarene chaplain who is stationed in Korea. He told of the countless numbers that are insufficiently clothed and fed. If we can warm their bodies we have a better chance to warm their hearts with the Gospel.

Chaplain Stroman will deliver the clothes to the local Church of the Nazarene for distribution.

We wish to thank everyone who helped in anyway to make this drive such a success. Your generosity and co-operation was splendid.

gelism of the church has recognized that the church must turn back to its original way of believing.

Dr. Gresham says that Wesley "stands as a powerfully radiant beacon shedding light and truth in the darkness of formalism and moral decline that gripped the century which his lifetime almost spanned."

Founders Day Is November 13

Benson Is Guest Speaker

The annual Founders Day program was held today in the alumni auditorium. The event was in commemoration of the birthday of Rev. J. O. McClurkan, founder of Trevecca College.

The full two-hour program included an address, "Yesterday," by Mr. John T. Benson, Jr. Mr. Benson, son of a former Trevecca president, was the guest speaker of the program.

Proceeding other addresses was the first open performance of the T. N. C. Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Clifford Keys, Jr.

Following the choir selections Dr. Homer Adams gave an inspiring address, "Today." Following this address brief talks were given "Today is Our Day." These were which corresponded to the subject, given by Grant Browning, Prof. K. W. Phillips, Mr. A. B. Mackey, Harry Ulmer, and Charles Duckett.

After another beautiful song by the choir the program was climaxed by Dr. Mackey's address, "Tomorrow." The president's address presented a real challenge to both the students and faculty of Trevecca.

Our fervent prayer is that God will continue to lead T. N. C. and that it will ever be an institution of true Holiness for Christ and the church.

Go! Teach! Win!

Christian Workers
Obey Command

The soul winning organization of Trevecca College truly mean this year to go, teach, win, in a greater way than they ever have before. The organization has gotten off to a wonderful start this year in every way. A set of zealous officers lead the organization this year. These are: Harry Ulmer, president; Wayne Sharps, vice president; Joyce Blackmon, secretary; Earl Rowan, treasurer; Carol Asbury, reporter, and Professor K. W. Phillips, sponsor.

The organization participates in many fields of Christian work. As captain and co-captain respectively, Wayne Sharps and Bill Bridges lead the Christian workers in conducting street services on the steps of the Davidson County Court House. The Lord has been good to the street meeting workers. He gave them a much better location for the meeting than they had before, and also a small movable altar has been constructed which adds much to the atmosphere of the meetings.

Greshams Entertain

On Tuesday evening, November 3, the Science Club met at the Gresham home for a business meeting. Following the business meeting presided by Robert Gilliland, some scientific films were shown, after which their hostess, Mrs. Gresham served the group punch and cookies.

Some of these same students and others from the science classes gathered Friday evening, November 6, for an evening of enjoyment. Games were played, and punch and cake was served.

Mrs. Galloway Entertains

The Nazarene Ministers Wives met recently with Mrs. Claude W. Galloway for a business meeting and luncheon. Hostesses with Mrs. Galloway were Mrs. A. K. Bracken, Mrs. M. E. Redford, and Mrs. V. Neil Richardson. The retiring president, Mrs. W. G. Bennett was presented a gift from the auxiliary. Mrs. Galloway was elected vice president for the new year.

Clio Society Plans Trip

The Clio Society met recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gresham for a combined business meeting and chili dinner.

Plans were made concerning a trip to Jacksonville, Florida. Approximately eight members of the society will go as representatives, where they will visit St. Augustine and other points of interest. The plans include the filming of some pictures which will be shown to the students in the near future.

Further plans included the dues to be collected at each meeting. Laurie Murray was appointed to assist France Winder in collecting them.

of a new Trinity for the Roman Catholicism of the old world. This was a very interesting, informative message.

Again, Dr. Mackey started the week out with a fine message; this one based on the sixth chapter of Galations. The students will never be able to measure the wealth they have received from Dr. Mackey's inspiring talks.

On the third and fourth of November we were privileged to have Rev. R. V. Bridges, an outstanding pastor and evangelist. Rev. Bridges brought two soul thrilling messages. The first was on "Personal Holiness" and the second on the topic, "Has Christianity Failed?"

Cake Code Challenges

In a recent Sophomore class meeting, the president, Howard Spruill, appointed the annual cake code committee: consisting of Margaret Barnett, chairman, Harold McCue, Dick Landgrave, Ruby Potter, Harry Ulmer, and Paul Schurman.

This committee went right to work on it's task. They met November 4 to make plans for the traditional cake code. The original code was given to the president of the Freshman class, Lynn Casady, on Friday, November 6. Individual copies were presented to each freshman at their regular class meeting on November 10.

The freshmen received a code this year which apparently has been put to music. We hope that the inspiration which the sophomores had for composing this code will reach the hearts and minds of the Freshmen to solve it.

Your little heads are filled with question marks??? Yes, that is the way the Sophomore class hoped you would feel—bewildered. Do not give up, though. keep seraching, Freshmen, the cake is on the campus.

Dr. Mackey closed the week with a practical talk, bringing out the thoughts of being thankful in spite of everything; striving to obey at all times, and the comforting thought "All things work together for good for those who love the Lord."

Is "Ike" Losing Popularity

The new Administration has not found smooth sailing to be evident in the past ten months. Along with the Korean situation and the constant worries of the United Nations, the President has found considerable friction apparent in some of the various departments of the government; namely, the Department of Labor and the Department of Ariculture.

Martin P. Durkin resigned as Secretary of Labor as a result of the President's failure in considering the repealing of the Taft-Hartley Law. Unfortunately for Eisenhower a vast number of people have had a similar feeling to that of Durkin. Then Ezra Taft Benson, Secretary of Ariculture, has been under political fire for some time. His plan for the farmers is not going over as well as the Administration would like. These indifferences that are salient in the government have helped greatly to deteriorate the popularity of the administration, and the blame tends to go to the President.

Election day has rolled around once again. Important elections

A screech owl sought refuge beneath the eave of the tower one midnight recently. He rolled two big eyes and screeched, "This halloween week is a terrible season! Those students down there run around and scream, "Boo! Ooo!!!" I'm so confused when they yell like that; I think sure it's one of my relatives in distress and my wings are worn out from flying around chasing sounds!! Sometimes I watch them from my hollow tree and almost get dizzy. Some of them get dizzy, too. The other day Virginia Curl checked a book out in the library and walked off with the card instead of the book . . . Jean Money borrowed a can opener from Jane Maser in the dorm, but she didn't know how to use it! Her girl friends came to her rescue, however, and she was able to eat her minced ham anyway . . . Winnie Halstead keeps everyone in good spirits over in McKay. She goes from room to room eating carrots and pulling pranks . . . Speaking of pranks someone took Eunice Wactel's shoe and sock while she was in class. I heard her wailing from the McClurkan building. Eleanor Richardson was found guilty . . . You know some humans can really sing. Wendell Williams is developing a solo voice from the way he warbled out the other day in choir. Anyway he was prompt in obeying instructions . . . Dale Martin is a helpful character. He assisted Dr. Mackey the other day when he had a flat tire. They both rolled up their sleeves and went to work . . . I saw Sarah Jones on her way to class. I'm glad she's getting well again. I don't mind staying inside in daytime but, I'm an owl. Humans have to have sunshine to be happy . . . Its almost daylight!! I think I'll go to sleep right here on the tower . . . I don't know though There's the Wh-Oooooo again! But I think that is just Dick Landgrave in his early

Trev-Echoes Staff Meets

Trev-Echoes Staff met at the home of their sponsor, Mrs. K. W. Phillips, on November 6 for their first business meeting of the year. The meeting was presided over by the editor, Juanita Orndoff. The Editor, Business Manager and Circulation Manager all gave reports of their work. The entire group joined in discussing how they could make the paper a better one. During the discussions Mrs. Phillips served the group tea and cookies, and also gave some helpful suggestions concerning the paper. The aims of the entire group is to hold the standards, keep the paper of the highest quality, and make it a real representation of Trevecca Nazarene College.

Go! Teach! Win! (from p. 2)

ers proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ to those in the County Workhouse. Walter White serving as captain and Bob Hamilton, with Velve Sharps and Nina Hart are truly doing a fine work in the city workhouse. To the men and women behind bars at the County Jail is being brought the message of salvation from the Christian Workers led by Carol Asbury and Nina Griggs in the women's department and Cliff Hampton and Allen Hollis in the men's. Wanda Naff and Earl Rowan along with earnest T. N. C. students are giving counsel to misled boys and girls at the Juvenile Court.

The Christian Workers Monday night prayer meetings are times of great blessing from the Lord. Here a great volume of prayer goes up for the new converts and contacts that have been made in the different services. So far this year around fifty souls have been definitely won to the Lord with many others raising their hands and kneeling for prayer.

morning voice practice. I'll try to go to sleep anyway." Snorezzzzz...

So the owl went to sleep but not before he brought me news about you under the eave of the TOWER.

Student Wives

Enjoy Halloween Party

On Tuesday evening, October 27, the Student Wives gathered in the oasis for a Halloween party. Approximately forty were present. Two very unwelcome but expected guests were Mr. and Mrs. Blowing Wind.

The refreshments were weiners with cole slaw and chili sauce, potato chips, marshmallows and soft drinks. The group all joined in some games and following this the song leader, Mrs. Laing, led the group in choruses.

We hope to see all of you Student Wives next Tuesday night and every Tuesday at 7:30 in the cafeteria.

Honor Society Has Social

On Friday evening, November 6, the Honor Society and its sponsor, Miss Amy L. Person, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Z. Taylor at 1409 Harwood Drive. The group joined in such games as table tennis and shuffle board and then after enjoying hot dogs, all joined in group games. If Allen Hollis seems to have a pale complexion, it may be because he succeeded in blowing the dime out of the glass. The evening was climaxed by singing choruses.

The prayer meetings have been filled with inspiring testimonies and messages given by Rev. K. W. Phillips, Rev. Glaude W. Galloway, and Rev. Sammy Martin.

President Harry Ulmer wishes to express his appreciation for the co-operation, sincerity and earnestness of everyone participating and wishes to appeal to those who have not done any Christian work so far to avail themselves of the opportunity. Let us all be laborers of God and go! teach! win!

Choir Announces Trip

On Sunday morning, November 22, the choir will be leaving the campus via chartered bus in the early hours of the morning, departing for Louisville, Kentucky. They will sing for the morning services of the Broadway Nazarene Church. The choir will be furnished dinner, then leave for Nashville, but will stop in Clarksville that evening to sing at the Nazarene Church there.

Also, since the last news from choir, it has been announced that the choir will definitely assist the speech department again this year in the traditional Christmas program, which this year will be on December 11. This is a program you will want to attend.

Leaders make the organization. This is true of the Men's Athletic Association. Under the guidance of Dr. Adams the M. A. A. is carrying on a program that surpasses any in the history of the organization.

To list a few of the plans and give you a glimpse of the existing program would open the eyes of the uninformed students as to the spirit of the M. A. A.

A well-balanced football program, a completed schedule, additional bleachers, a trophy case, an insurance fund for injured athletes, trophies for each major sport, a football banquet, are a few of the things sponsored and carried on by this group.

Orchids and our appreciation to the Florida Club of 1947 for the trophy case and to Professor Richardson and the school for the bleachers.

Interest in the football games has caused private parties to tape record the last few games. Harry Evans is co-operating by furnishing line-ups and information on the players and teams.

Plans are in the making to tape record and also to film the TEA BOWL GAME. Make plans now to attend. You won't forget November 24th.

All-Stars Selected

Listed below are the players, who after being selected on the All-Opponent teams, received sufficient votes to be placed on the All-Star team. Surprisingly enough all members of the first team were selected unanimously.

FIRST TEAM:

- Elmer Heaberlin Jr.
- Howard Spruill
- Harold McCue
- Jimmy Herndon
- Danny Godby
- Phillip Rodgers

SECOND TEAM

- Tom Pate
- Grant Browning
- Don Spotloe
- Joel Cassidy
- Harry Hasty
- Paul Schurman

were held in Virginia and New Jersey. Before election day Republican leaders stated that the results would certainly attest the popularity of the President and the administration.

Virginia went Democratic in the election of a governor. This was not too surprising. When the citizens of New Jersey, a traditional Republican state, elected both a Democratic governor and congressman, Republican leaders received quite a jolt. Republican Chairman Leonard W. Hall said solemnly, "We are in trouble politically." President Eisenhower refused to say that the fight was lost. "I have lost skirmishes before," he declared.

It is yet difficult to say whether Eisenhower himself is losing popularity. Perhaps it is not he personally, but the Republican Administration in general. Many things have been accomplished in the past year under the leadership of President Eisenhower. With his wisdom and with our un-biased support many things can be accomplished in days ahead.

Trevecca All-Stars

Meet Champs

Traditional at TNC is the TEA BOWL GAME where the conference champions meet the all school ALL-STARS in the climax of the football season. The time is 3:00 p.m. November 24 at Spencer Field.

There is a keen spirit of rivalry and all the color and confetti of any bowl game. Two evenly matched teams will be playing their hardest for all the glory and honor that go to the winners.

The champion team, which is the Sophomore Lions, are undefeated but will be up against a team of Stars any school would be proud of. The Champs are outweighed, averaging 160 pounds to the Stars 173 pounds, and must rely on speed and deception to protect their string of victories.

Lions Edge Frosh

In what could be voted the game of the year the undefeated sophomore battled a powerful freshman team to a close 6 to 0 victory.

The Green-Wave, hungry for victory and anxious for an upset over the first place Lions, were fighting and threatening to score from the opening whistle to the last minute of play.

The blue and gold Lions, surprised by the power and speed of the freshmen, were on edge and were penalized quite severely. The lone score came in the second quarter on a pass from H. Spruill to B. Spruill.

Capt. Godby of the Freshmen lead his team in stopping the best offensive team in the conference

Hiking Highlights

Preferring to be out of doors as much as possible the Girl's Athletic Association has organized hiking teams and spend their Saturday afternoons tramping over acres of Ft. Negley, Joelton, and Percy Warner Park.

Each team gets a certain number of points every hike and the winning team will be honored at a grand hike tentatively scheduled for November 21. This will include a weiner roast and will be held at Percy Warner Park.

Frosh Defeat High School

The Freshmen Green-Wave rolled over the High School team 18 to 0 in winning their first game of the season. It was a game of passing and pass interceptions were plentiful.

Proving to be the team of pre-season predictions the Green-Wave scored early in the first period when Dale Martin recovered a Hi School fumble in the end zone. Both teams threatened several times in the second quarter but were unable to push across the goal line.

Capt. Godby broke thru the line and ran 55 yards for the freshman's second score. Try for the extra point was no good. Cassidy, who hit his receivers quite frequently, passed to Rowan in the end zone for the last touchdown with only seconds left in the game.

P. Rodgers starred for Hi School. Several times he intercepted or blocked passes that would have meant more TD's for the powerful Frosh. Final score, 18 to 0.

Frosh	6	0	6	6

at one touch-down. Final score was 6 to 0.
